Orchestral Ensemble To Give Vesper Service
As their contribution to National Music week the orchestral ensemble of the Girls' Community club will present a vesper service Sunday afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock at the clubhouse on North Bartlett street. The public is cordially invited.

Mrs. E. E. Gore, supervisor, and Miss Alice Holmbeck, director, have donated their services toward the teaching of this group for the past three months. This is the first public appearance. The choir is composed entirely of young girls deeply interested in music who appreciate the opportunity of studying under the volunteer leadership of these well known musicians, members of the ensemble said.

A complete program of the afternoon will be announced Sunday. The board of directors of the Girls' Community club will act as hostesses and all music lovers of the city are cordially invited to attend and support this civic project.

Officers' Club Dinner Will Be Held Saturday
Officers' Club of the Medford CCG district is sponsoring a dinner and dance tomorrow night at Hotel Medford, having extended invitations to members of the club, local army and forest service personnel and others connected with the services.

The party will bid farewell to Major and Mrs. Clare H. Armstrong who will leave Medford in June, and will welcome Major and Mrs. George R. Owens, who have arrived to make their home in Medford, where Major Owens will succeed Major Armstrong in the command of Medford CCG district when the latter is transferred east this summer.

St. Ann's Altar Society Changes Next Meeting Date.
St. Ann's Altar society will meet Wednesday instead of Tuesday of next week, it was announced today, at the parish hall at 2:30 o'clock, for a regular business session. The change was made so that the meeting would not conflict with the St. Mary's Academy May party.

Local Pupils To Give Ashland Dance Recital
Pupils of Ted and Evelyn Schroeder's Dancing school of this city will appear in a recital tonight at the Lithia theatre in Ashland, the program being presented between the regular screen performances. About 20 numbers will be presented, with 40 pupils taking part.

FISCHER WITNESSES HOME FROM HEARING
Five Medford men returned yesterday from Los Angeles where they were called by federal subpoenas to appear as witnesses in the trial of John Fischer, formerly owner of the Swiss Creamery here. Fischer was charged with making false affidavits as to place of citizenship in taking out naturalization papers.

In his affidavit Fischer claimed Los Angeles as his place of residence for the past five years. He was in Medford from 1929 until 1933. Fischer pleaded guilty to the charge, but as yet has not been sentenced. He, as a native of Switzerland, may be deported to that country, it was intimated by local police officers. The fire from Medford called south were Chief of Police Clatous McCredie, City Traffic Officer Tom Robins and Vern Shangle, H. T. Hubbard, and Arnel Butler.

SMUDGE POTS LIGHTED IN PART OF ORCHARDS
Several orchardists south and northwest of Medford smudged last night as the temperature dropped into the freezing range, reaching a low mark of 30 degrees, according to Meteorologist Rogers. A light pall of smoke hung over the lower parts of the valley this morning. There was no forecast of frost for tonight, the weather bureau promising clear weather with rising temperatures Saturday.
