

SCORES INJURED AS HARLEM MOB BATTLES POLICE

Police fighting the rush of crowds who assaulted pedestrians and looted stores in a riot in New York's Harlem. There were scores injured in the melee as 250 policemen tried to disperse the crowd. The riot started after a negro boy was said to have been ejected from a store. (Associated Press Photo)

SON OF EX-KING ALFONSO IS MARRIED IN ROME

The former Emanuela de Dampierre, granddaughter of the former Josephine Curtis of Boston, and Don Jaime, son of the former king of Spain, leaving the historic old church of St. Ignatius in Rome, after their wedding. (Associated Press Photo)

DETROIT BOXER TAKES DECISION

Joe Louis, Detroit heavyweight, pounded out a 10-round decision over Natie Brown of Washington, D. C. In Detroit he ran his string of consecutive victories up to 17. Louis (right) is shown aiming a left to Brown's mid-section during the fight. (Associated Press Photo)

FOES OF NRA LEAVE WHITE HOUSE

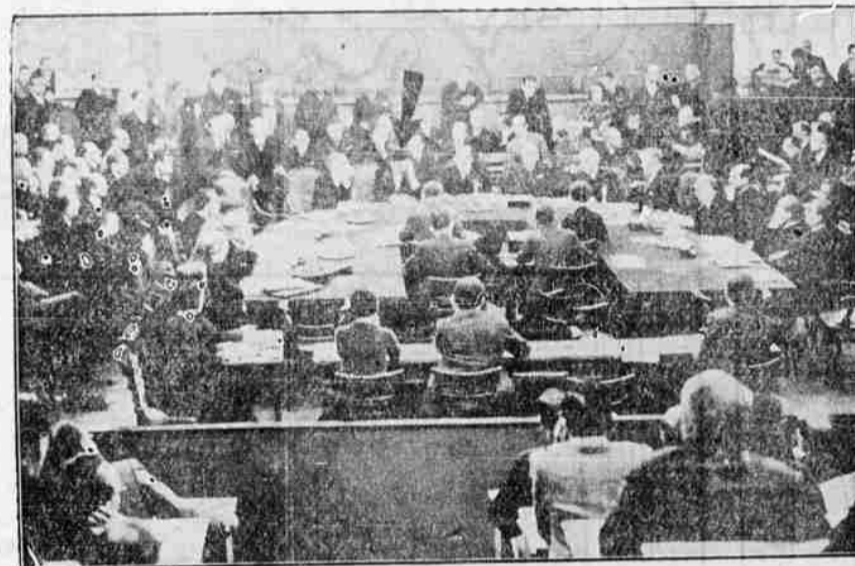

Senator McNary (left) of Oregon and Senator Borah of Idaho, both Republicans, and opponents of NRA, are pictured leaving the White House after a conference with President Roosevelt. (Associated Press Photo)

RED CROSS CARRIES ON IN BERLIN'S MIMIC BATTLE

This Associated Press picture, taken in Berlin as airplanes attacked the city in maneuvers, was rushed to London and then radioed to New York. The air force was demonstrating its offensive attack following the abandonment of the Versailles treaty by Germany. The Red Cross is shown in action with "wreckage" in the middle ground.

The League of Nations council is shown in a special session in Geneva as Foreign Minister Laval (indicated by arrow) of France read his country's condemnation of Nazi Germany due to the rearmament ordered by Hitler. Around the huge table are representatives of Chile, Denmark, Argentina, Spain, Italy, Turkey, England, Russia, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Austria and Portugal. (Associated Press Photo)

HAVE HOUSING PROBLEM, TOO

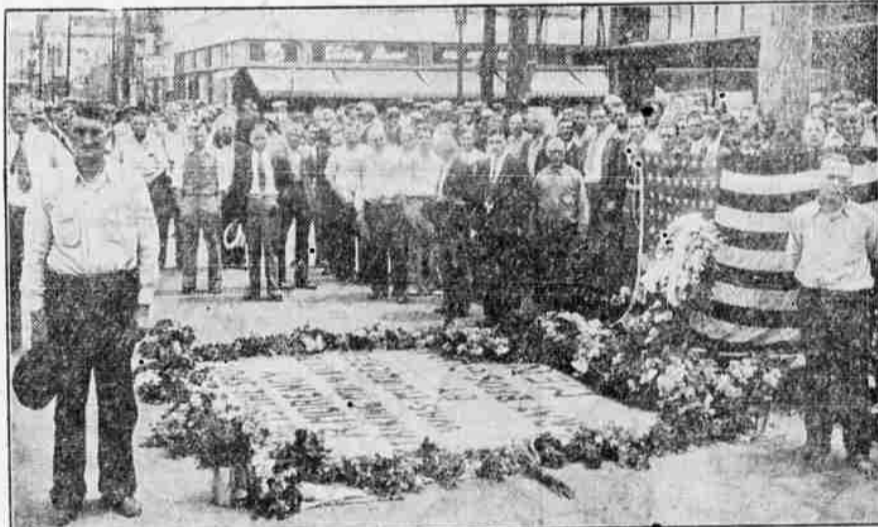

With the announcement of their engagement, Miss Adelaide Moffett, daughter of Federal Housing Administrator James A. Moffett, and Henry Gibbons, Jr., began solution of a housing problem of their own. They'll be married in the fall. (Associated Press Photo)

Presents Protest

Vittorio Cerrutti (above), Italian ambassador to Germany, delivered to the German foreign office Italy's note objecting to German rearmament. It met a curt reception. (Associated Press Photo)

FLOWERS MARK STRIKER'S DEATH SPOT

Striking union warehousemen in Stockton, Calif., placed a flower-bordered sign on the street pavement where Ray Morency, 25, union officer, was killed by Charles Gray, 25, in a dispute over the walk-out. (Associated Press Photo)

MAX FIGHTS WITH SWOLLEN HAND

Max Baer (left), world's heavyweight champion, lashing out with a left to the midriff of Babe Hunt, Ponca City, Okla., boxer, in their exhibition fight at St. Louis. Baer used his left almost exclusively during the four rounds. He fought with a badly swollen right hand. (Associated Press Photo)

PRIEST LAUNCHES UNION IN POLITICS

The Rev. Fr. Charles E. Coughlin, organizer of the National Union for Social Justice, calling for an united front at the first state mass meeting of the new organization in Detroit. Several members of congress also spoke at the mass meeting. (Associated Press Photo)

MEDICA SETS NEW SWIM RECORD

Jack Medica (left) from the University of Washington and James Gilhula, University of Southern California aquatic ace, after their 1500 meter free style battle in Harvard pool at Cambridge, Mass. Medica set up a new world record of 18:59.3 minutes, almost eight seconds faster than the old mark, with Gilhula only second behind in the N. C. A. A. meet. (Associated Press Photo)

Miller Spills Him

Jockey Gerry Wilson (above), the jockey up on Golden Miller when Miss Dorothy Paget's heavily favored steeplechaser fell in the Grand National race at Aintree, England, fell from the same mount on the following day. His fall in the big race created comment among London sports writers. (Associated Press Photo)

Asks Heart Balm

Cora Irene Sund, former school teacher in Minnesota, as she appeared in a Los Angeles court where she was suing Capt. Michael Paul, former Russian army officer, for $150,000 alleging breach of promise. (Associated Press Photo)

BROTHER SHOTS INVENTOR

Gangs and money, a million dollars to be obtained from the sale of a patent, figured in the fatal shooting of Joseph Grisenti, (left), San Francisco inventor, by his brother, John Grisenti, in Denver, Colo. (Associated Press Photos)