Miss Ramstrom and Stanley Stark United In Beautiful Wedding

A charming wedding took place last evening when Miss Ruth Ramstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hjalmar Ramstrom, was married to Stanley L. Stark, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Stark of Hillsboro, Oregon. The ceremony was performed at eight o'clock at the Ramstrom home, "Green Acres," near Central Point, Oregon. Rev. W. R. Baird of the First Christian church of Medford officiated.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding march, the bridal party descended the stairway and met before a bower of white blossoms banked with evergreens.

The bride was gown in white satin, bound on princess lines with long bell-shaped sleeves. The panel train hung gracefully from the shoulders. Her finger-tip length tulle veil of the same design as Princess Marina's was held in place with a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of Tallahassee roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Lola Lindsey, maid of honor, wore a bouffant dress of turquoise blue net over tulle. Her slippers were silver and she carried a nosegay of pink rosebuds. Carl Ramstrom, brother of the bride, was best man.

The ceremony was followed by a reception at which Paul B. Rynning was toastmaster. A ring of white flowers surrounded the bride's cake and on each end of the table were silver candlesticks with white candles.

The bride's mother wore a gown of French blue crepe. Her corsage was pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother was gown in pale green lace and her corsage was pink rosebuds.

About 150 friends and relatives were present. Dancing was enjoyed during the remainder of the evening.

After a wedding trip to San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Stark will be at home at Medford, where Mr. Stark is associated with the Standard Oil Co.

Mesdames Daniels, Brewer Hostesses

One of the most enjoyable and successful entertainments of the week was given Wednesday by Mrs. C. M. Brewer and Mrs. T. E. Daniels when they entertained at luncheon and at bridge. Forty-five ladies were invited, and met at the Daniels home for luncheon, followed by an afternoon of bridge at the home of Mrs. Brewer.

Dinner Dance Will Fete CCC Heads Next Saturday Eve

A dinner and dance honoring Major and Mrs. Clare H. Armstrong and Major and Mrs. George R. Owens will be held Saturday evening, May 18, at the Medford hotel.

The affair is planned by the Officers Club of the Medford CCG district. Major Armstrong is to leave soon, having commanded the district since its beginning two years ago. Major Owens arrived here recently from Fort Worden, Washington, and will assume command with Major Armstrong's departure.

Captain Glenn J. Key is active vice-president of the Officers club. The committee in charge of arrangements for the coming party is made up of Captain Herman J. Meiring, Lieutenant Fred W. Greene and Lieutenant Roy D. Craft.

Forest service and park supervisors, camp superintendents, and the Army officer personnel of the CCG. Reserve Officers and National Guard of this vicinity are being invited.

Meeting Attended By Grand Officers Of Pythian Sisters

When the 19th annual convention of Pythian Sisters of District No. 4 was held in the Knights of Pythian hall May 4, several grand officers were given a cordial welcome, as were members of visiting temples, in a setting made lovely with banks of spring flowers.

Adelaide Swartz of this city, district deputy, presided over the business sessions, at which election of officers was held. Officers elected were: district deputy, Zona Baldwin of Grants Pass; junior, Elizabeth Fuhrer of this city; manager, Jean Bateman of this city; treasurer, Myrtle Mayberry of Bandon.

The temple was given an invitation to meet at Medford next year. Among the visiting members, 13 in the afternoon and 33 in the evening, were from the Grants Pass temple, several were from the Umpqua Temple at Roseburg and there were other visitors from Portland and Vancouver.

During the program, numbers were given by Mrs. McCorkle's class of girls from West, a reading was given by a representative of Umpqua temple, and songs and music were presented by Myrtle Watson of Grants Pass. Dance numbers were given by members of Ruth Luy's dancing school and also by Clyde Fichtner. Initiatory work was done by the Grants Pass temple and the memorial service was presented by Tallman temple of this city.

Grand officers present were: past supreme representative, Mabel A. Roberts, Ashland; supreme representative, Ella G. Workman, Medford; grand junior, Ella Roper, Grants Pass; grand chief, Barbara Graves, Portland; district deputy grand chief, Wretha Tanker, Bandon; senior, Zona Baldwin, Grants Pass; junior, Elizabeth Fuhrer, Medford; manager, Gene Bateman, Medford; secretary, Mrs. Lewin, Bandon; treasurer, Mae Parker, Roseburg; protector, Mary Harper, Grants Pass; guard, Myrtle Mayberry, Ashland.

Mrs. R. W. Clancy Hostess to Chapter

Chapter AA of P. E. O. was hosted at a Mother's party Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. W. Clancy. Each guest brought with her some old treasured article, and was asked to tell something of interest in connection with the article displayed.

The articles displayed were largely heirlooms and ranged from patchwork quilts to beautiful handmade silverware, and in age from 75 to 150 years, and some interesting stories were told.

Entertainment for the afternoon was furnished by children of the P. E. O. members, and consisted of piano solos by Helen Young and Barbara Lemmon, a piano duet by Joyce and Lois Young, and a group of two songs by Mr. Millard. Refreshments were served on the porch overlooking the garden, which is just now at the height of its spring beauty.

Guests for the afternoon were: Mesdames Lynam, Perry, Snedcor, Riggs, Acker, Walt, Crews, Will Andrews, Iversen, Osborn, Lyons, Holmes, Palm, Reed and Dunlap.

Chain Luncheons Newest Thing in Social Set Here

The popular chain idea has made its entrance into the social world, in the novel form of chain luncheons, which are becoming "the thing" in Medford. It started the latter part of the week and has spread so rapidly that members of the social throng will be kept more than busy during the next two or three weeks if the series is kept unbroken.

It works this way: A chain letter is started in the ordinary way, but to have the name added to the list of five, one must entertain four guests at a bridge luncheon. Each of the guests brings a quarter, and the four quarters are sent to the person at the top of the list.

State Meeting of Garden Clubs To Open This Week

The state meeting of the Federation of Garden Clubs will be held in Medford Friday and Saturday of this week. Many of the sessions are open to the public and the program promises to be unusually interesting. All meetings will be held in the court house auditorium, the opening being scheduled for 10 o'clock Friday morning.

The state president, Mrs. Dorothy Seymour, has accepted A. H. Banwell's invitation to speak over the radio Friday noon at 12:10. In the afternoon Rev. Bartlam will be the principal speaker.

A tea for all Medford club members and delegates at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter will be held in the late afternoon, followed by a banquet at the Hotel Medford in the evening.

D.U.V. President Feted Upon Visit Here on Tuesday

One of the most enjoyable occasions of the spring season was the official visit of Mrs. Edith M. Weed of Portland, president of the Department of Oregon, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, 1861-65, on Tuesday of last week.

The program for the event began with a noon luncheon at the home, on North Riverside, of Mrs. Edna Kindred, president of the Medford temple. Guests for the luncheon besides the honor guest, were Miss Cox, junior vice-president of the Department of Oregon, and council member of the local order; Mrs. Grace Guyer, chief of staff; Mrs. Grace Seashorn, secretary to Mrs. Kindred; Mrs. Linnie Albaugh, press correspondent, and the hostess.

In the afternoon Mrs. Weed was taken for a scenic drive, visiting the historical town of Jacksonville and other places of interest in and around Medford, returning for a 6 o'clock dinner in the dining room of Lincoln school, after which the regular meeting was held in the armory. Guests from Ashland and Grants Pass attended the dinner and business meeting. Mrs. Mabel Luman, president of the Ashland tent, and son of her members and Mrs. Eva Webb, president of the Grants Pass tent, and six of her members were in attendance. Two candidates were initiated, Mrs. Ethyl Weed and Mrs. M. Archer, with a very impressive ceremony.

One of the attractive features of the evening was the forming of the letters P. E. O. and L. also D. U. V., by the drill team of the tent, directed by Miss Cox, with Mrs. May Follenberger at the piano. Mrs. Weed, in making her closing speech to the assembly, spoke in glowing terms of the beauties of the Rogue River valley.

On the following day several of the Medford tent accompanied Mrs. Weed on her official visit to Ashland for the banquet at noon, and the business meeting following. Those attending from Medford were: Mrs. Edna Kindred, Mrs. Frances Campbell, Mrs. Maude Holmes, Mrs. Grace Guyer, Mrs. Margaret Hubbard, Mrs. Dorothea Nelson, Mrs. Carrie Averill and Mrs. Eunice Albaugh.

Guild In Musicales At L. Pennington Home Monday Eve

Members of Crater Lake guild and their guests met at the country home of Mrs. L. Pennington, Monday evening. After a brief business meeting, the evening was devoted to music in observance of National Music week.

The spacious living room, Spanish in architecture, gay with colorful spring flowers, provided a charming setting for the splendid program, which included the following numbers:

Miss Alice Brill, violin solos, "Crimson Blues" and "Karmamur."

Medford High Girls' Octet, "Sylvia," by Oley Speaks, "Alma's Holiday," Rudolf Friml, and "My Lady Moon," Vera Francis Smith, piano solo, "Climbing."

Carlton Blumark, piano solo, "The Whale" John Buchter, dance, in butterfly costume.

Mrs. Barbara Holt, vocal solo, "Glimina Mia" from the Firefly, by Rudolf Friml.

Trio-Catherine Wandt, Maurine Duncan, Jean McAllister, "Slave Song."

Dol Riego, "Boat Song," Harriet Ware.

Mrs. Bertha Denton, flute solo, "Spring Song," by Mendelssohn; Mrs. Edith Garrett, vocal solo, "I Hear a Thrush at Evening," by Cadman; "Years at the Spring," by Beach; Miss Alice Holmback, piano solos, "Liszt Etude," "Clair de Lune," Debussy; Miss Eleanor Curry, vocal solos, "The Holiday," by John Pringle Scott, "Where Did You Come From, Baby Dear?"

At the conclusion of the program refreshments were served from an attractively appointed table, by the following hostesses: Mesdames Pennington, Welshar, Wilson and the Misses Fredericks Brommer, Margaret Kerr and Winifred Andrews.

Student Musicians Will Give Recital Here Monday Eve

Tomorrow night Mabel Sims, pianist, Marcia Van Dyke, violinist, and Genevieve Brown, soprano, pupils of Effie Herbert Yeoman and John R. Knight, will appear in joint recital at the Christian church. For several months these artist students have been preparing for this event and a rare treat is in store for those who hear them. Both Miss Brown and Miss Sims are well known locally, having been active in choir and recital work.

Marcia Van Dyke is the twelve-year-old violinist from Grants Pass who is counted a genius by all who have heard her. She is rapidly reaching the artist stage and is already spoken of in the highest praise throughout southern Oregon. She is scheduled to play a thirty-minute program at the Southern Oregon Normal next Wednesday morning.

Last Monday these three soloists were heard in recital at Grants Pass by a large and enthusiastic audience.

The public is invited to hear this program, which will begin at 8:15 o'clock.

Honey Krushed WHEAT BREAD

AS MADE IN SOUTHERN OREGON ONLY BY FLUHRER'S

Let the experience of these others help you

Six months ago Honey Krushed Wheat Bread was introduced in the east and mid-west. Today it is the most imitated loaf in America. So remarkable has been the acceptance of this "miracle" bread that 113,500 users from the general public and 1,685 physicians and food authorities have given written endorsement to it. NO OTHER LOAF IS "JUST THE SAME," REGARDLESS OF WHAT OTHERS MAY SAY.

Here's new flavor and taste in bread and toast

Don't take our word for it. Try Honey Krushed yourself! Here's a new and different appetizing, almost nut-like flavor. Good? You bet! But the remarkable part of it is that in addition to the more than usual food values, Honey Krushed relieves constipation without the use of laxatives or drugs.
