came clutching at her from behind!

In the passages beyond, another part of her was no key; she herself had seen all the house-keys hanging, tied with string, on a hook in the pantry; left hanging there, no doubt, by the last tenants. There was no turniture in the small tiled bathroom except a light atool and alison, although tail, was very slight.

She was shaking so much that the door ratified as she pushed herself doorer ratified as she pushed herself against it and she felt appailingly.

But though the from behind!

In the passages beyond, another part of her brain knew with complete certainty that she could not do it. Botter to chance a mad dash through the house, back through the house band and she felt appailingly and the pantry window to the open read, while the last spot of electricity linguistic and must seem a lifetime to the pitch dark, holding the door?

She kept her knee against the panel and leaned far back, reaching for the torch.
