2 KILLED IN SUNDAY ACCIDENTS

WASHINGTON, May 13.—Traffic is jamming up around President Roosevelt's four billion dollar pap barrel.

PAUL MALLON

The crowd has become so close that the mayors have actually established a Washington headquarters.

Of course, the mayors insist they are not lobbying. In a sense, that is true. There is no doubt that the relief program requires states and cities to have representatives on it.

An old ex-lobbyist standing before the new mayors' lobby building recently and pondered how times have changed.

In their places have grown up groups which seem to be endlessly spreading. A few years ago, the foremost groups with Washington lobbying headquarters were those of the veterans, manufacturers, labor, etc.

Just for the information of mayors, they need not weep about the statements being put out by the New Dealers (Hopkins, et al), implying that cities are not going to get much money unless their credit is good and they can borrow it from the government.

The situation on that is that Mr. Hopkins wisely wants to give away just as little money as possible. He would rather lend it. However, the financial situation of most of the cities is no secret.

But Hopkins must give them the money because the relief problem is largely in their hands.

Also, many cities loom larger than states in the fiscal and public works field. For instance, the ten largest fiscal units of government are: the federal government, five cities and four states, ranking in that order.

New York City spends more for its police than 35 states do for their entire government.

Francis Fraley, 12, Struck While Riding Bicycle on Highway

An inquest into the death of Francis Fraley, 12, who was fatally injured yesterday when run over by an auto while riding a bicycle along the Jacksonville highway, will be held Tuesday, it was announced today by County Coroner Frank Perry.

Francis Fraley 12-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Fraley of 10 West Jackson street, died at 6:40 p. m. on Sunday at the Community hospital from shock and injuries received when he was run over about 3:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon in a peculiar auto tragedy on the Jacksonville highway near the Oak Grove school.

Joseph Wilson of Medford is being held in the county jail on an open charge as a result of the accident. Police stated that he was the driver of a car which attempted to pass another vehicle as the latter was attempting to pass Fraley and another boy who were riding along the highway on their bicycles.

A police report indicated that Jacob Lemley, 36, of route 2, driver of the car which struck the boy, swerved slightly into the center of the highway while passing the bicycles, to avoid hitting them, and that his car was hooked by the Wilson auto as the latter came alongside.

The boy was rushed to the hospital, suffering from a multifractured pelvic internal injuries and shock, and never regained consciousness, according to the attending physician Dr. A. E. Dodson.

Fraley's companion, who was riding behind, escaped uninjured.

Arvin Carman of 1211 Locust street, Medford, suffered a broken hip and ribs and possible internal injuries in another accident on the Jacksonville highway which occurred about forty-five minutes before he was removed to the Community hospital, and was reported improving today.

The car he was driving, a Chevrolet two-door sedan, left the highway and turned over several times at a point about a mile and a half from the city limits. It was badly damaged. Carman believed that faulty steering gear caused the auto to go out of control. He was approaching Medford when the accident occurred.

Bill Vawter Jr., young son of W. J. Vawter, suffered leg bruises and cuts about 10 a. m. Sunday when he was struck by an auto while at the Chamber of Commerce. A police report indicated that the car, driven by Wilson O'Brien of 325 Alice street, had just started from the curb and was making a right hand turn into North Front street when young Vawter reputedly ran in front.

Earl H. Fehl, former county judge of Jackson county, and for a dozen years a stormy figure of Jackson county and local politics, now serving four years in state prison for ballot-theft conspiracy, returned last evening in the custody of a penitentiary guard to appear as a defendant and a witness in the Niedermeyer, Inc., interpleader suit which started today in circuit court before Circuit Judge Carl G. Wimberly of Douglas county.

Fehl is in the custody of E. S. (Ski) Warden, deputy warden of the state prison, under a court order, with orders that he be kept in the county jail, save when in court or at meals, and at all times to be under the eye of his keeper.

Fehl spent last night in the county jail, and was taken out for breakfast at eight o'clock this morning by his guard. He appeared in court accompanied by his guard, and his wife, Elgeta A. Fehl, and Mrs. Corlitha E. Stalley, his mother-in-law. Less than two dozen people were in the courtroom when the former temperamental local figure made entry.

Fehl wore a grey business suit. He removed a pair of eye-glasses after reaching the courtroom. His face showed but slight signs of worry or prison pallor. He seemed slightly underweight, but otherwise in good physical condition. Throughout the morning session he manifested a lively interest in the proceedings and conferred several times with his lawyers, Attorneys H. (Baron) Von Schmalz of Burns, and George Rhoades of Salem.
