HASKINS DRUG STORE READY FOR OPENING TOMORROW MORNING

Completely remodeled and decorated in old ivory, sepia and brown, the new drug store of Leon B. Haskins, the Rexall store, at the corner of Main and Grape streets, will hold its official opening tomorrow, with a carnation given free to each customer. The new store is so arranged as to be one of the sunniest in the city, with every type of merchandise occupying its own separate place in the attractively arranged display counters. Each section is playfully marked so that a quick glance around as one enters the front door, shows just what one is looking for. A separate prescription counter, with a complete line of new chemicals and pharmaceuticals, has been established.

"We want everyone to feel at home here," said Mr. Haskins today. The new store is to be a store of service, with a free telephone, rush assignments for film printing, and other special features. As an opening day special, Miss Irene Nolan, special representative for the Elizabeth Arden line of cosmetics, will be in the store to help the ladies with their problems, showing them the best type of make-up, the proper lotions to use on their type of skin, and the creams best suited to their purposes. Known here for years as "Haskins for Health," Mr. Haskins is returning to the drug business after an absence of several years. His business he describes as the "newest old drug store in town." Many of his old friends will visit him tomorrow.

Jolson Changed In Craterian Musical

Al Jolson and his "Misau" (Ruby Keeler), came to the Craterian theatre yesterday in their first co-starring picture, "Go Into Your Dance," replete with dramatic situations as well as hilarious laughs, romance and spectacular dance numbers.

Jolson shows more of his old time verve, both in his singing and his acting, than he has displayed in any other picture. His work with Miss Keeler seems to have given him an unusual stimulus.

As a Broadway entertainer, in the picture, he is barred from the New York stage because of his fondness for the "ponies" and also wine and women. After sharing honors with a little dancing girl in a mid-west town he stages a comeback that sets the theatrical world aflame.

Miss Keeler is as sweet and winsome as ever as the dancing partner, who is unable to hide her love for the great entertainer although he continually snubs her, having fallen for the wiles of a blues singer, the wife of the king of the underworld.

Helen Morgan, torch singer and piano sifter, is given a bigger part than usual.

Glenda Farrell is the same wisecracking, hard-boiled character she usually portrays, although in this picture she is not the gold digging type, her entire interest lying in keeping her brother, Al Jolson, from ruin.

Others include Barton MacLane, Sharon Lynne, Patsy Kelly and Phil Regan.

The Catholic Card Party will be held at Parish Hall Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Auction and contract bridge, pinocle and five hundred will be played. Refreshments will be served. Price 25c. All are invited.

Auto Racing on Rialto Screen

"Red Hot Tires," a roaring romance of the automobile racing tracks, with Mary Astor and Lyle Talbot co-starring is at the Rialto theatre for today and Saturday. Dynamic drama is woven around a stirring and unusual romance in which two daredevil drivers battle both for racing honors and the love of a beautiful girl. Roscoe Karns, Frankie Darro and Gavin Gordon are also featured.

FIREBALL HURLER SIGNED BY ROGUES

Hooster Hoffard, manager of the Medford Rogues, announced today the acquisition of R. H. "Speedball" Thompson, huge chucker from Regina, of the Canadian league, as pitcher for the Rogues in their game Sunday against Grants Pass. Last Sunday Thompson whiffed 19 batters. He stands 6 feet, 8 inches, and weighs 225 pounds. Last year he pitched a shut-out against Grants Pass when twirling for Glendale.

Hoffard has also announced that the Broadway Colored Clowns, one of the flashiest colored teams in the country, will play here sometime during the summer, probably on July 28th.

The Rogues meet Grants Pass at Grants Pass Sunday in a crucial game. The Rogues have already dumped the Merchants once, and hope to do so again.

Roxy Western

Bub Steele comes to the Roxy theatre tomorrow only in his newest western thriller, "Western Justice," in which he has the support of several well known favorites of outdoor drama.

Essentially a comedy, with a laugh in almost every line of dialogue, the picture nevertheless can be termed mystery, semi-gangster, a detective story or a romance as modern as any moderne could wish for.

Powell is shown as a suave man-about-town with criminology as a hobby. Taken from the Arthur Somers Roche story, "Star of Midnight," should prove to be a happy entertainment for Powell and Rogers fans who are legion after their favorites, outstanding recent triumphs.
