A Delightful Dessert Cake From THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

FROM the Royal Hawaiian Hotel at Honolulu we bring Pineapple Cream Cake, the master creation of Edgard Kina, most famous chef of the Pacific Isles.

Served at most public functions, this cake is looked upon as the official dessert of the Islands and is held in high esteem by the Hawaiians—comparable to our Hot Cross Buns at Easter time. Tomorrow, our Mr. Steele, baker of southern Oregon's finest cakes, presents this tropical masterpiece.

SUPER MEAT MARKET

Here Is a New Convenience

Everybody likes fried chicken, but it's hard to find a broiler to fit the family. In a small family a whole one is too much, while in a larger family the average broiler is too small.

Now you may buy a half chicken, a chicken and a half or as many halves as you want. Real economy, because no waste.
