

BARKER AND BERG VERDICTS WARNING TO 'SNATCH' GANGS

played any emotion upon the reading of the verdict.

Story Not Believed. Before pronouncing sentence on Berg, Judge Joyce said to him: "The story you told was not believed one bit. It was a fantastic tale which other persons of lesser intelligence than the jury might have been swayed by."

Convicted with the gangster who with Alvin Karpis headed the Barker-Karpis mob were Harold Alderton, in whose home at Bensenville, Ill., Bremer was held prisoner 21 days; Oliver Berg, later in the Illinois state prison; John J. McLaughlin, 68-year-old former political leader in Chicago, and James J. Wilson, 27-year-old former Northwestern University medical student.

The seven defendants were all tried on a charge of conspiracy under the Lindbergh kidnap law, which calls for penalty upon conviction ranging up to life imprisonment. The prison term is discretionary with the court.

BUTTER AND EGGS HOLD UNCHANGED

PORTLAND, Ore., May 17.—(AP)—There was no change in the general dairy products market for the day in the local field. Butter was unchanged here. There was a further increase of supplies from out-state points but a decrease in centralizer churning was suggested during the last few days, although this was believed to be temporary.

There was no change in either sentiment or prices on the exchange for the late season while on the open market continued premiums over the "official" quotation were suggested. Trading in the egg market continued of firm character with full prices continued. Portland retained title to being the lowest market along the coast.

White there were reports in the trade of a lowering of bids for chickens, the trade here continued to show a shortage.

GLEEMEN, TEACHERS IN JOINT REHEARSAL

In preparation for the annual Spring concert, which is to be presented Monday evening at the high school auditorium, the Medford Gleemen and the Jackson county teachers chorus will meet for joint rehearsal tomorrow.

Much interest is being manifested in the coming recital, and the Gleemen, under direction of James Stevens, baritone, promise the best program they have yet presented. Approximately 70 numbers are included in the Gleemen's library, ranging from classics to popular melodies well suited to the club's well-blended voices. Associate members' tickets are good for admission to the concert.

Fat Folks Read This She Reduced 14 lbs. in 3 Weeks

Paid No Attention To Envious Gossips

Mrs. J. H. Valentine of Preport, N. Y., writes: "I lost 14 lbs. with Kruschen and my husband took off 12 lbs. in 3 weeks and intends keeping up the good work. I think Kruschen is simply wonderful."

Intelligent folks like Mr. and Mrs. Valentine don't listen to gossiping folks who tell them it's impossible to reduce safely. Kruschen Salts is one safe reducing treatment—it's a health treatment—physicians prescribe it—just take a half teaspoonful in a cup of hot water first thing every morning—tastes fine with juice of half lemon added—a jar lasts 4 weeks and costs but a few cents—For sale by Jarmin Drug or any drug store.

Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, May 17.—(AP)—Inflationary speculation waned in today's stock market and profit taking depleted some of the gains established in yesterday's bulge. The utilities, steel, mines and oils were resistant, however, as the remainder of the list churned uncertainly. The close was irregular. Transfers approximated 1,650,000 shares.

FLY CASTERS TO TALK FORMING ORGANIZATION

Preliminary plans for the organization of a fly and plug casting organization of southern Oregon fishermen will be discussed at a meeting of all sportmen on Monday evening at 7:45 sharp. It was announced by those interested today.

The meeting will be held at the Chamber of Commerce building, and all those who have felt the need for such an organization are asked to attend. Sponsors of the club have stated that an improvement in casting ability will automatically result in an improvement in fishing skill, and a large turnout is expected.

RICHBERG TO QUIT WHEN NRA EXPIRES IS CAPITAL RUMOR

head it. If the new law should not be passed by that date, the expiration of the present act would put Richberg's post and the whole NRA setup out of legal existence.

Besides Richberg, other NRA executives also are said to be contemplating early retirement. Only yesterday Senator Barkley (D., Ky.) read to the senate a letter from Richberg saying he had accepted his post only temporarily and wanted to go back to private life. Inquiry in some authoritative circles last night elicited the word that there was no prospect of his early retirement. Today, however, other circles said such a step was imminent.

INCORPORATE GIRLS' COMMUNITY CLUB

Articles of incorporation of the Girls' Community club of Medford were filed yesterday with the county clerk.

The incorporation papers set forth that the organization is a "non-profit organization," and lists the Community Chest as a source of revenue. The purposes are listed as establishment of a recreational center for the physical, mental, social and spiritual betterment of girls and young women in this vicinity.

Officers of the group are listed as Mary E. Phipps, president; Margaret Schuler, vice president; Margaret Kerr, treasurer and Aletha E. Vawter, secretary.

Directors are named as Sarah Hammond, Georgia Holloway, Isabel Neff, Lillian Humphreys, Ella Pennington, Marjorie Newbury, Laura Drury, Marjorie Kelly, Lillian Aldrich, Edwina Wetshaar, and Lorraine Norris.
