D. A. R. News Mrs. E. N. Vilm was hostess to Crater Lake Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Saturday at her home on Genesee street.

Mrs. H. W. F. Spilner, the regent, presided and after the regular opening exercises, plans for the observance of Memorial day were announced. The chapter will take part in the parade on the 30th and attend the Memorial service on May 26.

Interesting and gratifying reports of the past year's work were submitted. A class of fifteen applicants for citizenship is being instructed, the D. A. R. society has been ably supervised and two radio patriotic programs have been presented.

The outstanding work of the year has been the preservation of cemetery records by the chairman of the genealogical research committee, Mrs. J. H. Cochran, assisted by the regent, Mrs. Chas. Woods, and other members of the chapter. Names, dates, etc., have been copied from all of the tombstones in the Jacksonville cemetery and from the records of the Odd Fellows cemetery.

These have been alphabetized and typed and will be available to future generations. This work will go forward as rapidly as possible, as time and the elements are gradually obliterating the inscriptions in the older cemeteries.

The election of officers resulted as follows: regent, Mrs. F. J. Newman; vice-regent, Mrs. H. E. Armstrong; recording secretary, Mrs.

Volney Dixon, corresponding secretary, Mrs. R. O. Beach; treasurer, Mrs. Chas. Woods; registrar, Mrs. W. W. P. Holt; chaplain, Mrs. E. A. Moore; historian, Mrs. J. O. Gray; directors, Mesdames H. F. W. Spilner, J. H. Cochran, and C. Q. D'Aubini.

Vintages fermented, aged and mellowed by

J. BATTISTA CELLA

(AMERICA'S MOST CELEBRATED VINTNER)

and bearing his seal of unqualified approval

FOR YOU AND YOUR family to enjoy, America's largest vintner has long been choosing certain select vintages.

Wines finer in bouquet—more delicate of flavor... sound as molten gold. Chiantis, Sauternes, Ports, Sherries... 19 types of private vintage wines.

Now part of the wine mellowed in these favored vats is released for all to enjoy. It is aged and mellowed under the eye of Battista Cella himself. Every quart is drawn from a vat tested by him and carries his unqualified approval. Conformed to a high standard which is Battista Cella's own.....

exceeding not only all State and Federal standards for fine wine but those of European vintages as well.

How can you be sure of getting these wines personally preferred by Battista Cella?

The name Roma Wine Company on the label is your protection. Look for it—whether you buy in quart bottles or gallon jugs. Wines which are marked "made by Roma Wine Company" carry Battista Cella's approval as to mellowness, trueness of type and matchless goodness.

These are wines from only the finest grapes of each California harvest.

Owner of vast vineyard acreage, crushing many thousand tons of grapes each year, Battista Cella has been in a position to choose.

From the mild, valley grapes For these extra special vintages he has used the mild valley grapes. Full blooming in flavor and bouquet. Yet free of the faintest touch of the sharpness that in some wines can offend the American taste.

Try them yourself. Note the bouquet, the special goodness. Leading stores and shops have them. Prove for yourself that good wines can be bought at reasonable prices.
