are not to be used unless the AAA sees fit. The AAA boys say that, therefore, the concession does not amount to much.

Some substantial persons on the inside of this situation have a different view. They believe that, within the next year, the AAA will get around to these more precise methods of maintaining a high domestic price against a cheaper foreign price. Strong sentiment for such export subsidies exists inside the farm bureau federation, among cotton brokers, railroads and others. There really seems to be something in the wind along this line.

If the AAA comes to this view, it would mean that, in the end, it will be converted by Senator Smith instead of Smith by it.

An added inducement to the senator, however, may be discovered in the way the AAA crowd has been beating about the bushes in his home state. Their propaganda activities down there have been ostensibly in favor of the administration program, but, naturally, these centered against Smith personally. A lot of things are supposed to have been dug up.

The extent of South Carolina support for the AAA program was manifest in the recent farmers' march on Washington. Smith was out of town at the time, but he heard about it.

There is no question now that the AAA encouraged the promotion of that march as part of its decentralized lobbying for its amendments. It is working generally on the old American Legion lobbying plan of promoting sentiment among the folks back home for the influence it will have on congress, rather than working on congressmen here directly.

One bright AAA boy recently suggested to Mr. Wallace the employment of an unofficial lobbyist to work for the department directly on congress here. Mr. Wallace rejected the idea on the ground that it might look bad.

The AAA crowd has made many changes in its amendments. All were made to meet specific objections from congressmen and others. Essentially, they do not amount to much. For instance, the old ones permitted the AAA crowd to go freely into the books of processors. As now drawn, they permit inspection of the books only on pertinent matters, and the AAA cannot make the information public. The word "reduction" (of acreage) has been changed to "adjustment."

All the changes really mean is that the AAA can alter its program if it wants to, but it is not required to.

The announcement that Governor Lehman of New York would not be a candidate for re-election struck the Democratic party bosses here as a trial balloon to test his strength. They believe he will run again if sufficient popular sentiment develops. Apparently Postmaster General Farley is out of it in any event. He is supposed to be satisfied with the mention of Robert Jackson (government attorney who prosecuted Andrew Mellon) in case Lehman does not run.

As the Democratic politicos here size it up, the voters are moving out on Tammany. They think the old powerful political outfit is on its last legs. Its subjects are continuing to scatter out into the suburbs of the city, getting away from the old ward control. This movement will undoubtedly be developed further in the next few years.

Eagle Point

EAGLE POINT, May 22.—(Spl.)—The play, "The Youngest," given by the high school at the "Oasis" last Friday evening, drew the largest crowd and was conceded to be the best ever produced in Eagle Point. Major credit goes to Miss Fern Winslow, teacher, for her work in training the characters, but the parents of the youngsters may well be proud of them for they certainly are deserving of it. Proceeds from the play were a little over $50.

Mrs. Donn Brittson and two little youngsters of Eagle Point, in company with her father, Mr. Brandon of Medford, left May 15 for a month's visit in Galveston, Texas, with her sister and other relatives living there.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Wiedman have moved into the little house owned by Grandma Stowell.

An epidemic of dogs being run over and killed struck Eagle Point last week as the dogs owned by Eva Nichols, Walter Clements, John Smith and William Crandall were killed in that way within the week.

Alice Walker and little Kathleen Davies are ill with the mumps.

Frances Myer is staying with the Youngs this week in order to finish out the term of schol before going to her home in Medford.

A 4½-pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Straus of Sams Valley on May 15. Mrs. Straus was formerly Dorothy Pierce of Eagle Point.

Sams Valley

SAMS VALLEY, May 22.—(Spl.)—Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Fisher, who recently sold their farm to Mr. Pefley, are located for a short time at Central Point. The Fishers, who owned one of the finest small orchards in the valley, have spent over 30 years in this district, where their friends regret to lose them. They plan to leave soon for New York where they will visit several weeks with their son and grandson, Bill and Bill, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ober returned to their home at Long Beach last week after spending a week with their relatives, W. W. Edington and daughter, Mary.
