

LEGION'S POPPY SALE WILL OPEN FRIDAY MORNING

Tomorrow the United States will pay its annual tribute to its World War dead by wearing their flower, the poppy. Millions of Americans in almost every city and town throughout the country will wear the blood-red memorial poppy to show that they still honor and are grateful for the services of those men who gave their lives in defense of the nation seven years ago. In purchasing the paper poppy, they will contribute to the welfare of the disabled veterans and the families left in distress by the death or disability of a veteran. Women from Medford will be on the streets here all day distributing the memorial flowers. They will be part of an army of nearly 100,000 women which will carry out the Auxiliary's nation-wide distribution of poppies. Fully 10,000,000 of the little red blooms are expected to be given out with $1,000,000 received in contributions in exchange for them. The paper poppies have been made by disabled veterans working in 96 different government hospitals and convalescent workrooms located in forty states. The flowers which will be distributed here were made at Roseburg and Portland hospitals. They will be offered on the streets by a corps of volunteer workers under the leadership of Louise Cleaves, chairman of the Auxiliary's Poppy day committee. No price will be asked for the paper poppies, each person being free to contribute as little or as much as he chooses for his flower. All funds received will be expended in the welfare activities of the American Legion and Auxiliary among disabled veterans and needy families of veterans during the coming year. The bulk of the money will remain right here in Medford to be used in the work of the local Legion post and Auxiliary unit.

JEERING COMMUNISTS FAIL TO DAUNT ROYAL JUBILEE CELEBRANTS

LONDON, May 23.—(AP)—Loyal Britons had further evidence today of the unconcern with which their king and queen face the communistic derision which several of the silver jubilee celebrations have evoked. Despite a demonstration by jeering Reds, their majesties adhered to their intention last night of attending the civic reception and ball in their honor in the city of London's 15th Century Guild hall. As the brilliant assemblage of guests was entering the hall, communists gathered in the vicinity, singing the Internationale and shouting, "your fine robes would buy us bread," and "our families are starving." Police reinforcements drove the demonstrators some distance away where they lingered and continued their shouting. Among the guests at the reception, given by the Lord Mayor and the Corporation of London, were the Prince of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of Kent, the Duke and Duchess of York, the Duke of Gloucester, the Princess Royal and her husband, Lord Harewood, United States Ambassador Robert W. Bingham and Mrs. Bingham.

Jack Holt Heads Cast Roxy Drama

Sure, swapper, smart to a fault, with a sense of humor that is his stock in trade, the "Bill Grimes" of Jack Holt in "I'll Fix It," showing today and tomorrow at the Roxy theater, reveals a hitherto unsuspected comic side to the versatile M-Holt. "I'll Fix It" is the story of a cocky politician who turned to a school teacher for a lesson in love! Gay, actionful, romantic, it provides Holt with his finest role to date. Supporting the star will be seen Mona Barrie, Jimmy Butler and Winnie Lightner.
