

POLITICIANS EYE SWING OF CAPPER TOWARD LIBERALS

Support of Various New Deal Policies Arouses Speculation in View of Forthcoming Election

By HERBERT PLUMMER WASHINGTON — (AP) — An analysis of the vote in the senate on the Norris bill designed to strengthen the Tennessee Valley Authority...

The slight, gray-haired senator from Kansas, serving his third term, comes up for re-election next year. For one running on a regular Republican ticket in a presidential year...

Consider with whom he cast his lot on the TVA measure: His name is to be found alongside such liberals of his party as Norris of Nebraska, Johnson of California, Nye of North Dakota...

Political gossip in Washington has it that Capper's liberal tendencies are finding a reaction among the members of his party in Kansas and the middle west.

John M. Hamilton, national committeeman from Kansas, a prime mover in the midwest conference of Republicans from 10 states, scheduled to meet in Springfield, Ill., in June, has aroused the interest of politicians by his announced intention to exclude certain Republicans from the so-called "grass roots" gathering.

Hamilton's move to restrict the delegates to the Springfield meeting to "real" Republicans who have opposed the "new deal" is interpreted here by politicians as a probable effort to oppose the Kansas senator's renomination.

The man most prominently mentioned as his opponent is Governor Alf Landon of Kansas. No "hybrids" wanted.

Rumor has it the strategy will be to have Kansas pull forward Governor Landon as its favorite son for the Republican presidential nomination next year as a move to increase his prestige. The idea and hope among his supporters is that in this manner Landon will attain sufficient strength to give Capper a real contest for the senate.

Those who cling to this view, point to a recent statement of Senator Dickinson of Iowa in support of their stand.

"If the Republican party," says Dickinson, "is to aggressively expose the weakness of the 'new deal' and its shortcomings, these conferences must be dominated by Republicans and not hybrids."

What disposition is made of the Capper issue is regarded as highly significant of what may happen in the future of O. O. P.

LITTLE, TWEDDELL ARE FINALISTS IN BRITISH AMATEUR

(Continued from Page One.) shrift of George I. Q. Henriques, the 42-year-old stock broker who had been the sensation of the early rounds winning by the lopsided score of 6 and 4. This afternoon Little put out Robert Sweeney, Jr., formerly of New York and a resident of London for many years, 3 and 2.

Tweddell scored two noteworthy victories in advancing to the final. His first victim of the day's play was Eric Fiddian, a former runner up for the crown, who fell by the score of one up, and this afternoon he accounted for the 44 year old British Walker cup player, Tony Torrance, 2 and 1.

As he has done to his last four victims, Little eliminated Sweeney with a sensational last hole. Going to the 16th he was two up and three to play. He rapped out a 290-yard drive and followed it up with a 150-yard mashie shot to within three inches of the cup for a great finishing birdie three.
