

Little Jr. Retains British Crown

TWEDDELL BESTED 1 UP, NEW HONORS FOR COAST STAR

First Golfer in History To Win Three National Titles In Row—Stages Thrilling Come-Back To Win.

By GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer
ST. ANNE'S-ON-SEA, England, May 25.—(AP)—William Lawson Little, Jr., the Colossus from California, fixed the mantle of golfing greatness more firmly on his shoulders today when he defeated Dr. William Tweedell, a 36-year-old British physician, one up, in 36 holes and some the British amateur golf championship for the second straight time.

Thus the burly, 24-year-old San Francisco shotmaker became the first player in history to win three consecutive national amateur golf crowns and the third man ever to register a "double" in the 50 years of this championship.

During a sensational struggle which saw the hunky holder of the British and American Simon-pure titles three up at the end of the morning round, only to be brought back on even terms with six holes to go in the home stretch, Little played some of the grandest golf in his career. He withstood paralyzing pressure over the final, wind-whipped passage to subdue Tweedell, the winner of the 1927 championship, who made a bold bid to restore the crown to England on the last nine holes.

Desperately needing a four on the final hole to assure victory, the American skillfully got off one of the most testing shots of the tournament, hemmed in on three sides by a gallery of almost 10,000 which had verged on riotous conduct over the prospect of witnessing Little's downfall.

Standing on the 36th hole, Little had his opponent down one. Tweedell, having the honor by virtue of winning the previous hole, divided the fairway with a 250-yard drive. Earlier in the day Little had been betting the ball from the tees fairly consistently about 300 yards.

Down the stretch, he was hard pressed and sacrificed accuracy for distance. He sliced his drive into a swarm of spectators standing in the rough and the ball settled on a bare spot.

His fore-caddy, with a stick flying an American flag, rushed to the spot and fell on all fours, animal-like, to prevent the rampaging spectators from trampling on the ball. Little slowly ambled up to the ball and with characteristic impassiveness viewed the situation without a sign of emotion. One hundred yards distant was the green, with two yawning traps in between. It took the marshals fully five minutes to move the crowd back to permit Little to get a free swipe at the ball. He chose a spade mashie, lobbed the pellet beautifully to clear the traps and it came to rest on the green 28 feet from the hole. Tweedell plucked his approach three feet inside of Little's.

Recovery here
The recovery had a revitalizing effect on the champion. For the first time during the final match he smiled. He took less time than usual in lining up the putt and then rolled the ball "stone dead" for a sure four, putting the pressure on Tweedell and, as it turned out, blighting the challenger's hopes. Facing the most difficult operation of his career, the medico saw his 25-foot putt, which would have taken the match by at least an extra hole, slide past the cup fearfully but grinning. Tweedell tapped Little's ball into the cup and rounded defeat.

The gallery, which had cheered Tweedell's magnificent uphill fight, cheered equally loud for the victorious Californian.

Southern Oregon Gun Clubs Enter Annual Event On Local Grounds.

The annual Medford Gun club classic, the Mail Tribune trophy shoot, will be contested at the local gun club grounds, north of the Medford airport this morning.

Represented by their crack teams, several Southern Oregon gun clubs will enter their top shooters in the hope that one of the target busters will be able to show the skill that will be required to take the trophy away from Medford.

Last year the trophy was won by William Bates, a feat that brought the coveted trophy back from Klamath Falls. The Klamath shooters have sent word to Medford that they will be here in force and expect to take the plaque back to Klamath.

A program of 100 16-yard singles, 50 handicap targets and 25 pairs of doubles will be shot in the tournament. This will be the last big shoot staged at the local club grounds previous to the big state shoot which will be held June 13 to 15.

The Medford grounds have been enlarged and improved and are now the finest in the state and the members are anxious that the people of Medford will turn out today to witness the contest. Visitors are welcome and there is no admission charge.

Automobile Owners Oregon's New "Financial Responsibility Act" BECOMES EFFECTIVE JULY 1st

It is the general understanding of many people that this Act is imperative until a person has had one accident. This is true to the extent that it isn't necessary to show financial responsibility in order to obtain licenses to operate an automobile, but the Act is not a "One Accident" proposition. The following are some of the major provisions of this Act.

- The Secretary of State is required to revoke or suspend operator's or chauffeur's licenses and suspend registration cards and plates when as a result of an accident: (a) a final judgment for property damage is rendered in excess of $100.00, or (b) a final judgment for personal injury in any amount, has not been satisfied within thirty days.
- These suspensions or revocations remain in effect until the judgments have been satisfied and until proof of financial responsibility has been given for future accidents.

To constitute proof of financial responsibility, there must be filed with the Secretary of State one of the following: (a) a policy of insurance with $5000-10,000 limits for liability and $1000 limits for property damage, (b) a deposit of money or securities in the amount of $10,000, (c) a personal bond in the amount of $10,000, (d) a corporate surety bond in the amount of $10,000.

A discharge in bankruptcy following the rendering of any such judgment shall not relieve the judgment debtor from any of the requirements of this act.

It should be apparent enough to anyone that if they do not have insurance protection, they will sooner or later be faced with a situation whereby their RIGHTS to drive or operate an automobile will be TAKEN AWAY.

MEDFORD GOLFERS PLAY NEIGHBORS

Twenty or more golfers from this city are expected to leave today for Grants Pass for a good-will tournament and word received from the Grants Pass Country Club that they will be greeted with a potluck luncheon at the house at noon, arranged by the Grants Pass women golfers under the direction of Mrs. S. W. McQuat.

Local women players were afield on Friday, taking a trip to Klamath Falls, where they report a highly successful tournament, which came out in their favor. Nine made the trip, among whom Mrs. J. C. Thompson, town low gross; Mrs. Leland Clark, low net; Mrs. D. R. Wood, the putting contest, and Mrs. George Codding the driving contest. Others who participated were Mrs. W. S. Thurlow, Mrs. Dave Wilcox, Mrs. F. G. Bunch, Mrs. Larry Schade, Mrs. Anne Pison, who changed plans and did not make a trip to Hollywood as she had planned this week, and Mrs. Mack Lillard, who was already in the neighboring city.

Other outstanding performers of the day were George Scharp of Oregon who won the half-mile in 1:26.9, and Ernie Guggenberg of Oregon State who ran the mile in the fine time of 4:22.9.

With Bud Shoemaker out of the picture with muscle ailment the Webfoot sprinters nevertheless managed to place one-two. Walt Sophson won the 100-yard dash with Ken Miller, a sophomore, second, and in the furlong they reversed order.

Before the meet Colonel Bill Hayward was honored as the letterman's organization presented the

MERCHANTS MEET PASS HERE TODAY

Jack Oipe's Grants Pass Merchants will face the whistling curves of "Speedball" Thompson at the new high school baseball field on South Holly street here this afternoon at 2:30, when the Caymen tangle with the Medford Rogues in a setting of their game-and-game tie.

Manager "Hooster" Hoffer of the Rogues has stated that his team will win the game, and the railbirds have been rather inclined to string along with him in this opinion. Thompson threw the pill past the Merchants for no hits and no runs until he blew in the seventh inning last week, and a new pitcher with control, Strickland of the Bellingham Normal, will be there to back Thompson if he shows signs of weakening today.

The Medford club boasts the strongest infield in the league, and they also retain the second heaviest slugger in the circuit, Hoffer, who has knocked out a 4-0 so far this year. To pit against this advantage Grants Pass will throw into the fray their ace pitcher, Earhart, a lad with an eye on the major leagues who has been chucking great ball, and the ancient Al Delette, league leading slugger with percentage of .371.

The Jacksonville Ginnery Club, with their old manager, Bud Conlin, missing from first base, will encounter the formidable Dave Cal, nine today at Dorris with promising, but untried pitcher, the box, Joe Naumes, Santa Claus, according to the club's manager, Bob Lewis. Naumes has developed a sensational style of delivery to offset his lack of experience, and Hess will be ready to leave him if the going gets tough. Kenton will be moved in from the outfield to take Conlin's sweeney position.

Next Mat Card June 6
The wrestling arena at the armory will remain dark again this week due to the fact that state athletic rules prohibit professional wrestling cards on Memorial day, which falls on Thursday.

Promoter Mack Lillard announced last night, however, that when wrestling activities open again the following week, June 6, a three-bout schedule will be in effect, instead of the two-match type of card that has prevailed during the winter. There will be a slight raise in admission prices.
