

DOOMED MAN TALKS 45 MINUTES

William De Boe (left) and Executioner G. Phil Hanna are pictured in the Smithland, Ky., jail just before De Boe was hanged. Before he was hanged De Boe denounced the woman who accused him of criminal assault for 45 minutes. He was the first white man hanged in Kentucky in a generation. More than 1500 persons witnessed his death. (Associated Press Photo)

VOTERS REJECT HITLER RULE IN DANZIG

Men and women voters in crowded polling places are shown casting their ballots in Danzig at the election that brought defeat to Nazi leaders who had demanded full control of the mandated city. General Goering, Hitler's chief aide, led a futile last minute drive to win the election. (Associated Press Photo)

YOUNG CUBAN ARRIVES AT SCENE OF EXECUTION

Jaime Greinstein, alias Jose Gustavo Terry, Cuban terrorist and first to die under Cuba's recently enacted emergency law, as he arrived at the Havana rifle range with a priest and death guard. He was executed at this spot. (Associated Press Photo)

PRESIDENTIAL AIDES DISCUSS RELIEF PROBLEMS

President Roosevelt held a night conference with this group on the $4,000,000,000 work relief fund. They are shown as they left the White House. Left to right: Secretary Morgenthau, Joseph P. Kennedy, Harry Hopkins, Budget Director Daniel Bell, Secretary Ickes, Charles West, Undersecretary Tugwell and Rear Admiral Peoples. (Associated Press Photo)

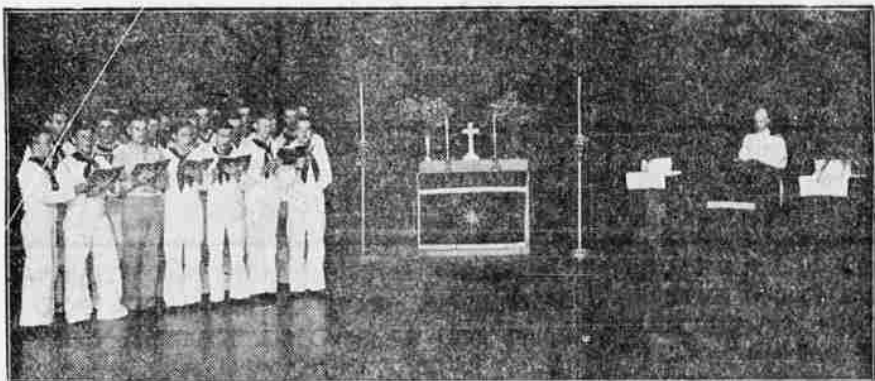

A terrific explosion of 250 kegs of blasting powder and 20 cases of dynamite nearly destroyed Helenwood, Tenn. Fifty homes and buildings were destroyed or damaged, seven persons injured and 75 made homeless by the blast. This picture is typical of the destruction caused. (Associated Press Photo)

TRIPLETS BORN TO 17-YEAR-OLD WIFE

Mrs. Estelle Carranza, 17, gave birth to triplets at Los Angeles in what attending physicians believed to be an extremely rare case for so young a mother. The triplets were two girls and a boy, but one of the daughters and the son died. The father, Joseph Carranza, was serving a 180 day jail sentence when the triplets were born. (Associated Press Photo)

SAILORS GO TO CHURCH DURING WAR GAMES

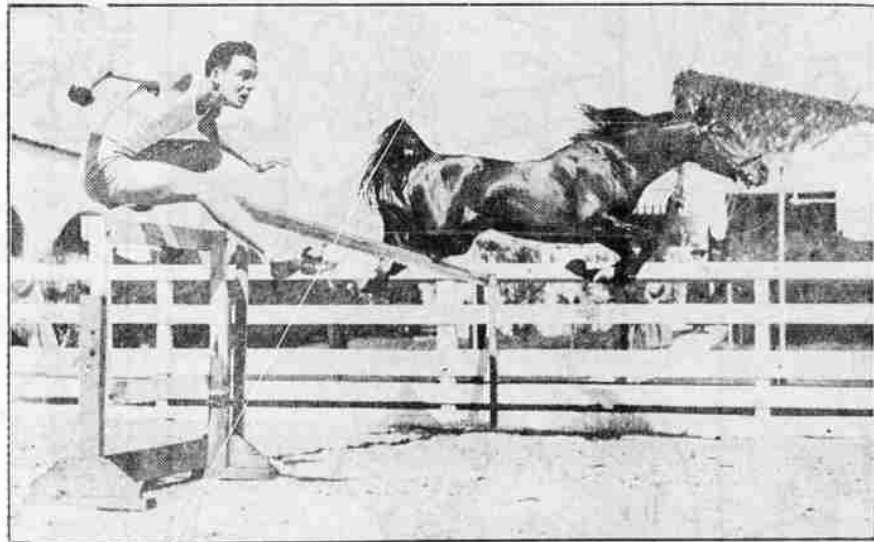

While the U. S. fleet is working out problem 16 in the navy's most extensive maneuvers on the broad Pacific, regular church services are held aboard the fighting craft. A choir of one of the battleships is pictured at left with the chaplain at right. (Associated Press Photo)

FIGHT FOR KIDNAPER'S LIFE

Three women led a fight for the life of Walter McGee (center, below), condemned kidnaper of Mary McElroy, daughter of Kansas City's city manager. One was the modish victim of the abduction (center, above); the second was McGee's sister, Mrs. Alberta Brewer (right); and the third, his woman lawyer, Miss Lillie Knight (left). (Associated Press Photos)

CRACK HURDLER PITS SPEED AGAINST HORSE

Bob Farr of Loyola university at Los Angeles is shown taking a hurdle with "Raiet," prize Arabian horse, at the Kellogg Institute of Animal Husbandry at Pomona. (Associated Press Photo)

Remembers Maine

Rear Admiral W. T. Cluverius who was a midshipman on the battleship Maine when it was blown up in Havana harbor 37 years ago goes to sea again as commander of the base force, U.S. Fleet. He had been stationed at Great Lakes. (Associated Press Photo)

Queen Of The May

Queen of the pageantry that will climax Honolulu's colorful May Day celebration this year will be 15-year-old Mabel Likelike Lucas. (Associated Press Photo)

'Typical Consumer'

Miss Verna Long (above) of New York City was named "Miss Typical Consumer of 1935" at the Industrial Arts exposition held in New York. A sales girl and model, she comes from a typical family, earns an average income and is of average height, weight and appearance. (Associated Press Photo)

BARRYMORE AT NIGHT CLUB

John Barrymore, famous actor recently reported in marital difficulties, is shown with Edna Barrie as they shared a table in a New York night club. (Associated Press Photo)

BEAR HARRIERS AID IN DEFEATING CARDS

When little Sam Klopstock (right), Stanford's brilliant hurdle star, hit an obstacle in the low sticks event against University of California, Dell Fishback (left) and Tom Moore (center) passed him and aided materially in the Bears' 77 1/2 to 53 1/4 victory over the defending I. C. 4-A. and N. C. A. A. champions. (Associated Press Photo)

HAY! HAY!! THEY'RE OFF!! SO WHAT??

"Stogie," beautiful but dumb, proved the standout in Seattle's "Spavin Derby" for equine quadrupeds not less than 12 years old. He (or is it she?) finished third and thereby won first prize of a keg of beer in what Mayor Charles Smith termed a horse race "with no sense to it." "Stogie" is alleged to be in this starting picture, but where nobody knows. (Associated Press Photo)