

AWARDS MADE IN FLOWER DISPLAY BY GARDEN CLUB

Show Declared One of Best Yet Staged Here—Doors to Remain Open This Evening—Roses Feature

Considerable interest is being shown in the flower show being sponsored by the Medford Garden club in the corridors of the courthouse. The show will be kept open until late this evening, to give everyone who cares to do so a chance to see the beautiful displays.

No exhibits in containers will be moved until after 9 o'clock this evening, it was announced today. Tomorrow morning, between 8:30 and 9:30, those wishing flowers, and those who have not yet taken their containers are asked to call at the west door of the courthouse for them. Those in charge of the show declare it to be one of the best ever given in this city, and entrants were received from all points of the valley. An attempt was made to arrange each variety to its best advantage, and consideration in judging was given to delicacy of structure, formation and condition, as well as to color harmony. Also, general appearance. Those who followed the judges were more than satisfied at their selections.

Judges for the event were Mesdames A. E. Reames, T. W. Miles, J. F. Reddy, J. H. Monroe and Wilson, F. G. Sheddor, Annel Butler, Mr. Lester and W. D. Brown also served. Hostesses this morning were Mesdames T. Waterman and Simmons. This afternoon Mesdames E. E. Crews, H. A. Stanley and B. Beach were hostesses, and tonight Mesdames R. G. Fowler and J. A. Perry will act as hostesses.

It is unusual to find so comprehensive a display and definition of arrangement as is evidenced in this showing, flower lovers agree. The rose displays rival even those of Portland, the city known throughout the country for its roses. Twenty-one awards were made in this division alone. Seventy-one awards were made during the show, ribbons going to the following:

It was declared the attorney-general failed to complete and deliver a new set of regulations asked by the commission and in the last two months has failed to deliver approximately 10 requested opinions.
