Love at first, or even twenty-first sight is the ordinary recipe for romance, whether fictional or cinematic.

Love at first crash—two speed cars—is something else again. It is the impetus that starts a merry mixup of romance and comedy in "It's a Small World," at the Rialto theatre, tomorrow and Thursday.

A crash up at eighty miles starts a 16-cylinder love match in a one-horse town. A stream-line motor-car wreck results in streamline comedy. Spencer Tracy plays the fresh young lawyer and Raymond Walburn heads the supporting cast.

Home Again

With a happy smile and a wave of his hand, 9-year old George Weyerhaeuser expressed his greetings to the world again at his home in Tacoma after his father, J. P. Weyerhaeuser, wealthy lumberman, bought him back by paying $200,000 in ransom money to kidnapers.

Little George was kept in a trunk during most of the seven days he was held. He was released about 4 p. m. in a drizzling rain June 1, and walked four miles to the farm home of Louis Bonifas near Issaquah, Wash. John Breder, a Seattle reporter, met Bonifas on the highway and took George home in a taxi. The lad remarked that it was a lot of "fun" and said the kidnapers didn't hurt him because he was "worth too much."

W. A. Gates, president-elect of the Medford Rotary club, and Joe Marshall, secretary, gave their reports of the Bellingham Rotary session before the members of the local club at a luncheon meeting today at the Hotel Medford.

Outstanding accomplishment of the international session, which was presided over by Mr. Gates, was the passage of a resolution, which will be placed before the meeting of Rotary International at Mexico City this summer, urging the throttling of a few sensational newspapers and periodicals whose columns are given over to arousing of antagonism between countries and furtherance of war propaganda.

Mr. Gates explained that this resolution would tend to promote international peace, as all Rotarians would lend their influence to the discouragement of news which has in the past furthered unfriendly relations between various countries.

Mr. Gates also discussed the programs, community service, and plan for exchange of teachers between countries as other phases of discussion at the northwest Rotary convulse.

Joe Marshall's remarks were directed to the methods used by clubs in handling their finances, increasing membership and promoting closer social contacts.

Mr. Hull, a Rotarian from London, Eng., was a guest at today's meeting and spoke briefly of the cordial friendship existing between the United States and his country. He praised the sincere hospitality which has been accorded him on two visits to this country.

State Commander Bryan H. Conley, of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of Oregon, will visit Crater Lake Post, No. 1833, here June 7. Commander Conley will attend the Disabled American Veterans encampment in Grants Pass next Friday, and will be in Medford for a meeting Friday night. The local post will meet in the Armory Friday night. Before the meeting the Ladies' Auxiliary is having a covered dish supper at seven o'clock for the local post and the distinguished visitor.

Commander Conley will go from Medford to Klamath Falls to meet with the post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

IDAHO GAS THEFT EYED AS POSSIBLE JOB OF KIDNAPERS

Meanwhile state patrolmen, mobilized last week by Governor Clarence D. Martin for the kidnap hunt, continued their statewide highway blockades and were reported to have resumed the search they started yesterday for the latr in which nine year old George Weyerhaeuser was kept until bought by J. P. Weyerhaeuser, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Weyerhaeuser, Jr.

The patrol search was believed to center around Issaquah, about 12 miles east of Seattle, near where the kidnaped lad reappeared Saturday after his parents had bought him back.

Authorities here refused to acknowledge that there was such a search. The authorities hope to complete the case this week. Otherwise they face a long wait until the excitement subsides and the extortionists attempt to pass some of the ransom money or try to make a getaway.

Hot Money Described Although shrouding most of their movements in secrecy, the authorities yesterday publicly distributed circulars listing serial numbers of the 20,000 Weyerhaeuser ransom bills. It kept "G-men" and Tacoma police busy answering an average of a telephone call a minute from persons who believed they had received some of the "hot" money.

The investigators refused to say whether any of the ransom money was had been reported. All but nine of the $5, $10, and $20 ransom bills are 12th federal reserve notes issued at San Francisco. Their serial numbers all started with an "1" and ended with an "A" or a similar digit. The odd nine were U. S. bank notes, all of $5 denomination, and were included in the ransom money, it was stated by government men, because they ran out of federal reserve notes in making up the huge ransom.
