Three-Ply Wrestling Card Pits Stars of Mat at Armory Tonight

HUBKA WILL FACE HOODED MEANIE IN PRINCIPAL MATCH

Catalino Pitted With Johnnie McWood of UCLA Grid Fame—Wolfgang Meets Roland Warren in Opener

Opposite extremes in wrestlers, one the unscrupulous, roughneck kind, and the other smooth and scientific, are scheduled to clash in the main event of a triple-deck card tonight at the armory, when Masked Marvel meets Joe Hubka of Nebraska.

Masked Marvel, whose unorthodox matwork was responsible for a riot one evening at the armory, is said to be meaner than ever, and boasts that if no flying chairs interfere he will break the "Iron Man" into bits. The mysterious meanie has learned to keep one eye open for flying chairs and other missiles, for besides nearly being mobbed during the local riot, he was konked on the scalp by a chair in a recent fracas up north, and has just recovered from a month's layoff.

Count on Hubka

One of the best-liked wrestlers ever brought to Medford, and also one of the fastest and trickiest, Joe Hubka is being counted on by scores of followers to whip the mystery man. It will be a case of science versus brute tactics and, for one, the former football star is confident that science will do the trick. The Cornhusker uses his legs to great advantage, specializing in a flying body sciasors that seldom fails to account for a fall.

Johnnie McWood, for two years running guard on the U. C. L. A. football varsity, and now a versatile matman, will appear for the first time in Medford when he tangles with Tony Catalino of Itly in the 45-minute or two-out-of-three fall semi-windup.

For the last two weeks McWood has been a visitor at his cousin's ranch on the Crater Lake highway north of Eagle Point, and announces that the rest, coupled with fishing trips along the Rogue and light outdoor workots, has put him in the best shape of his profesional wrestling career. The handsome Californian, who has an Adonic stature, has no fear of the roughneck Italian, although Catalino is rated as one of the toughest smear and sneer artists in the game. McWood is figuring on using science and clean wrestling to take the fight out of the big foreigner.

Wolfgang Returns to Mat

For the past three months Floyd Wolfgang, who is "tops" in middleweight wrestling circles around Olympia, Wash., has been slinging grease for the Rogue River Chevrolt Co., but the call of the canvas urged him back into the game, and, in better shape than ever before, he will tangle tonight with Roland Warren of Klamath Falls in the 30-minute opening bout.

Fast and scientific, both these wrestlers use no monkey business, promising a whirlwind match. Fans are eager to see the big-time Olympia boy in action, and agree that Promoter Mack Lillard could have selected no better opponent than the speedy Copco engineer from the Pelican City.

Fireman Ray Friable is slated to do the refereeing. Because of the three-bout program, the promoter announced that there will be a slight raise in admission prices.

QUEEN OF TENNIS HAS HARD MATCH

WEYBRIDGE, Eng., June 6.—(AP)—Helen Wills Moody defeated Miss R. M. Hardwick of England, 4-6, 7-5, 6-3, today to reach the semi-final round of the St. George's Hill tennis tournament.

Miss Hardwick, one of the best of the younger crop of English stars, gave the former world's champion a terrific fight before bowing in a match played in a drizzling rain and on a slippery grass court.

Mrs. Moody, playing in the tournament as the first step in a comeback campaign, won the match with three strong games after the last set was even at 3-all. She bombarded her young opponent with booming drives down the sidelines that the English girl could not handle.

ASHLANDER PROTESTS BUILDING NORMAL GYM

ASHLAND, June 6.—(Spl.)—Arthur L. Coggins appeared before the city council Tuesday, registering a protest against the construction of the new Normal school gymnasium, claiming the noise of construction and ensuing athletic activity would disturb patients at the nearby Community hospital.

The council already had in its possession a statement signed by the majority of Ashland physicians, disclaiming any such disturbance, and President Walter Redford spoke convincingly in defense of the new building. No action was taken by the council, and plans will go on unimpeded.

Favorite Faces Mean One

Joe Hubka (above) favorite of Medford mat fans for his clean and skillful wrestling, will meet one of the most detested performers ever appearing here, when he faces the Masked Marvel (right) exponent of foul tactics, in the main event at the Armory tonight.

SING SING OUTFIELDER TO JOIN ALBANY CLUB DESPITE LEAGUE EDICT

ALBANY, N. Y., June 6.—(AP)—Edwin C. "Alabama" Pitts, 24-year-old Sing Sing prison athlete, leaves his "alma mater" today to join the Albany Senators of the International league despite a ruling barring him from professional baseball.

"Johnny" Evers, famous one-time big leaguer and now general manager of the Albany club, said he expected young Pitts to join the club either today or tomorrow even though he might not be allowed to play.

An appeal is pending on the ruling by Judge W. G. Bramham, president of the National Association of Minor professional baseball leagues, that Pitts' presence in the Albany outfield would be "detrimental to the game."

The controversy over Pitts' eligibility started as Albany club officials on the eve of the young man's "graduation," announced he would join the Senators. Judge Bramham immediately put his foot down on the proposition and the Albany club appealed.

Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing who recommended Pitts because he had a "bright future" in baseball, said he believed Judge Bramham's decision is "narrow and shows a reactionary attitude."

GOLD HILL TOWNIES HURL CHALLENGE AT GILMORE LION NINE

The Gilmore Lions, with a record of six wins and only one loss, have placed themselves in a position on the pedestal of southern Oregon independent baseball. The Gold Hill Townies, who have been cleaning up their own section of the district regularly, conceive it to be their duty to kick the pedestal out from under the Lions, and have offered to do so at any date convenient to Bob Lewis and his charges.

They would like to do so on June 16 or 30, according to their manager, Marvin Emery, who suggests a winner-take-all game in Gold Hill on either of those dates. He plaintively wails that his offers, and even threats of a game with the Lions have been complacently ignored so far, and intimates that this wounds the Gold Hill pride. Their record, he states, speaks for itself, but he does not state what the record is.

Manager Lewis stated today that if the record is at all impressive, he would be glad to accommodate them, but is not yet sure as to what date would be satisfactory. There are a good many Lion fans who think the Gold Hill challenge presumptive, not to say foolhardy, but would like to see such a game "just for the fun of it."

WOMEN PAIRED IN MURRAY TOURNEY

Women's match play in the Murray tournament, with the beautiful cup donated by Murray's Beauty Parlors as the prize, will get under way at Rogue Valley golf course this week and the first bracket is scheduled to be completed before next Wednesday. Keen competition is expected for the trophy, which last year was won by Mrs. J. C. Thompson.

Pro Jack Hueston today announced the pairings, with handicaps, as follows: Mrs. George Codding, 17, vs. Mrs. J. H. Fletcher, 32; Fred Johnson, 36, vs. Mrs. Thompson, 8; Mrs. E. C. Jerome, 19, vs. Mrs. F. G. Bunch, 19. Five who drew byes are Mrs. Leland Clark, 30; Mrs. Anne Fuson, 17; Mrs. Homer Marx, 40; Mrs. Dave Wilcox, 24, and Mrs. Aletha Vawter, 19.

Results of the qualifying rounds yesterday with net scores: Mrs. Codding, 75; Mrs. Bunch, 79; Mrs. Thompson, 87; Mrs. Marx, 87; Mrs. Clark, 87; Mrs. Wilcox, 89; Mrs. Fuson, 89; Mrs. Vawter, 90; Mrs. Fletcher, 90; Mrs. Jerome, 98, and Mrs. Johnson, 99.

COL. ROOSEVELT STARTS ON HUNT FOR JAGUARS

MIAMI, Fla., June 6.—(AP)—Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., set out today on a big game hunt, but unlike his late father he chose to travel in a 16 passenger plane.

He is headed for the Mattagrossa country on the Brazilian-Paraguayan border to hunt jaguars, described as the largest in South America.

DIZZY UNSQUELCHED BY FRISCH'S BAWLING OUT

PITTSBURGH, June 6.—(AP)—It may have been a "closed incident" last night, but today Dizzy Dean's squabble with Manager Frank Frisch and his St. Louis Cardinal teammates was a wide-open affair.

Far from contrite, after receiving a verbal whip-lashing from the manager after Tuesday's game with the Pittsburgh Pirates, Dean was a blustering peacock.

"Can you imagine anybody telling you he's going to fine you $10,000?" Dean asked. "Yeah, it wasn't $5,000 but ten, that he threatened to fine me. Yeah, ten grand.

"You know what I think? They're trying to get me in bad so they can take away a big chunk of the money my contract calls for. That's what they're trying to do."

Dissension, disorder and a near fight broke out on the Cardinal bench in the fifth inning of the game. Irritated at the pounding he was taking, Dean charged his teammates with "quitting" and was himself accused of "laying down."

The angry words were climaxed with Dizzy and Left-fielder Joe Medwick "squaring off" in full view of the cash customers. They were separated before any blows were struck.

Here's the way Dean tells it:

"When I got back to the bench after the fourth inning, I was yelling at Umpire Rigler. Medwick says to me, 'Lay offa Rigler and bear down in there.' I looked at Medwick and said: 'Whatta you mean, bear down? I'll punch you on your Hungarian beezer.'

"Then Medwick grabs a bat. I was ready for him, when the other players rushed in. Then Frisch gets on me, bawls me out about bearing down and says he'll fine me $10,000. I told him to go ahead and fine me.

"After the game, in clubhouse, Frisch gave me another bawling out. I waited until he was all through, then I told him something.

"I said, 'Listen, Frank, you can say what you want, but if you can thank anybody for the job you have as manager you can thank me, and you know it.'

Regardless of whom he has to thank for his job, Frisch showed his authority in no uncertain terms in a statement he issued after the clubhouse talk.

Asserting he will fine the pitcher $5,000 and suspend him if the "display of temper" is repeated he said Dean "made slurring remarks about the team, describing it as a lousy ball club. Naturally, the fellows who have been hustling their heads off resented this and they challenged him."

EBERHART, NEW COACH AT ASHLAND NORMAL, PAYS PRE-DUTY VISIT

ASHLAND, June 6.—(Spl.)—Jean F. Eberhart, newly appointed coach at Southern Oregon Normal school, was in Ashland Tuesday and Wednesday, getting acquainted with athletes and school officials, and conferring with Dr. Walter Redford, president of the school, regarding his new duties.

"My appointment came as a very pleasant surprise," Eberhart said after his arrival. "Although I had been interested in the position since the resignation of Howard Hobson, I was aware that many other well-qualified individuals would be considered.

"I have a deep respect for Hobson and appreciate the high caliber work he has done here during the last three years. I hope to begin where he left off and will endeavor to give sports fans as high quality teams as possible.

"I'm glad to see the Normal school get a new gymnasium, for it offers an excellent opportunity for the development of a broad physical education program, which I consider to be of major importance.

"I've visited Ashland several times in the past and look forward to permanent residence here among people whom I know to be both enthusiastic and friendly."

The new coach, with his wife, returned to Eugene last evening. They will begin their residence here in about two weeks. Eberhart goes to work at the Normal school July 1, handling physical education and coaching classes in the summer session.

HUBKA AND PETE WRESTLE DRAW

PORTLAND, June 6.—(AP)—Baron Benny Ginsberg, New York heavyweight grappler, was defeated in two straight falls here last night by Howard Cantonwine, 230-pound Iowa giant. Body slams were too much for the New Yorker. The victory for Cantonwine marked his return to the ring after a year's layoff.

Other results: Andre Adoree won the semi-final from Tony Catalino; Harry Kent tossed Jules Strongbow; Joe Hubka and Pete Belcastro went to a draw.
