NEW BONUS DRIVE FORECAST IF F. R. ASKS NEW TAXES

he declared bonus legislation would require new taxes. Asked what he would suggest, the treasury head replied in a letter to Chairman Harrison (D., Mass.) that "from the standpoint of feasibility no less than that of our fundamental objectives, the best source of additional revenue at this juncture would be a system of taxes on the receipt of inheritance and gifts."

Rep. Vinson (D., Ky.), who sponsored the American Legion bonus bill, rejected the Patman measure, his included right along that the issue was not dead, and said that he was "waiting for a break."

Spread Wealth Plan. Many observers believed that the tax bill, if it should materialize, might be the "break."

Congressional leaders said privately that the President has been considering the tax bill for two purposes — to provide $300,000,000 to $500,000,000 in new revenue in 1936, and to replace the NRA as a means of spreading wealth.

In the face of considerable speculation that the taxes might be requested in a special message to congress, the White House was silent.

Secretary Morgenthau at his press conference yesterday, would say only that the treasury is "just sitting tight" until congress requests tax suggestions.

RUTHLESS KILLERS MARCH TO CHAIR

BOSTON, June 7. (AP)—New England's most ruthless gang of killers, the Miller-Faber machine gun trio, paid for four wanton killings early today in the electric chair at state prison.

Murton Millen, 25, his brother, Irving, 21 and their college graduate pal, Abraham Fisher, died within a space of 30 minutes, for their brief, but bloody career of crime. They were sentenced for the machine gun slaying of Patrolman Fiches killed during a $14,500 robbery and holdup of the Needham Trust company on Feb. 2, 1934.

While they died, Murton's 20-year-old bride, Norma, was sleeping in her cell in Dedham jail, where she has been confined since last September as an accessory. Now a widow, the pretty daughter of a former mintster may be freed immediately.

WILLOW SPRINGS VOTE ON STOCK SET JUNE 18

A special election has been set by the county court for the Willow Springs district for Tuesday, June 18, to vote upon the question, whether or not stock shall be permitted to run at large in the district. The poll books for the election have been made up by the county clerk.

The question has been more or less on an issue in the district for several months. Two complaints have been filed in justice court, arising out of a resident allegedly permitting stock to run at large. In one case, the defendant was acquitted; the other, filed this week is pending.

DRYNESS BRINGS EARLY FIRES IN ROGUE FORESTS

includes both Jackson and Josephine counties, the latter having been added to the local patrol when A. L. McCarty was transferred to the state forester's office. State protection is administered this year from the new headquarters at the Midway road.

The forest service reported several fires, most serious being a three-acre blaze in the Little Applegate section which destroyed a small, unoccupied cedar mill on Yale creek, owned by William Sproat. The fire, starting from an undetermined source, was brought under quick control by the CCC crew at Star ranger station, and a relief crew from South Fork camp, which is still on duty.

Another fire burned over a quarter acre of land on Truty's ranch on Elk creek, caused by old brush burnings. This fire was controlled by men from Upper Rogue CCC camp.

Humidity and temperature running at a mid-season average have created a serious forest fire season much earlier than normal, according to Forester McReynolds.

Conditions except in the high country, where there is still snow, are extremely serious and the same caution should be exercised with cigarettes and camp fires as in the middle of the summer. McReynolds stated, "Because of the extreme unseasonal fire hazard, the Little Applegate fire might have been serious but for the quick work of the CCC boys. They got away from Star in one minute, and if that kind of cooperation continues we'll give the fire a close race this season."

The forest service will be well equipped for fire fighting during the summer, and the CCC men staying within the district have been intensively trained. Forest service crews and equipment from Medford are capable of reaching the heart of the Applegate district within 45 minutes after a call.

REDUCTION OF O-O AND GAS FIRM TAX CONFERENCE AIM

Charles E. Galloway, chairman of the state tax commission, N. S. Rogers, deputy state assessor, and K. M. Murdock of the state tax commission, conferred with the county court today, to consider possible steps for a reduction of tax assessments for the Owen-Oregon Timber company to the extent that this industry and payroll be retained for Jackson county. At the same time request will be given to a similar reduction of the Southern Oregon Gas company.

The Owen-Oregon company, operator of a sawmill in this city, owners of timber tracts in eastern Jackson county, and the Medford Logging railroad, (P & E) have reported they will close down their operations completely by August. They normally employ from 200 to 300 men, residing in this city and the Butte Falls.

It is felt if the tax burden could be reduced, it could be arranged for future operations, and forestal closing and dismantling of the plant. No rebate is sought for past taxes paid.

The county court has no power to cut tax assessments. The Butte Falls school district, with a 25 mill school levy, and a high bonded indebtedness has power to reduce the school levy.

A number of Medford and county business men, and civic leaders, were scheduled to appear at the hearing.
