

22 FROM COUNTY WILL ATTEND 4-H SUMMER CLASSES

Twenty-two 4-H club boys and girls will leave on the Shasta Sunday morning to attend the annual 4-H club summer school at Oregon State college June 10 to 22. They will be accompanied by a chaperone from the Jackson County 4-H Leaders' association. Mrs. Mabel C. Mack, county home demonstration agent, will also accompany them to Corvallis and teach classes in menu planning and table service during the first week.

R. G. Fowler, county agent, will also assist the last few days of the summer session and accompany the delegation on the return trip.

This will be the largest delegation sent from Jackson county for several years and it was made possible through the splendid work of the scholarship committee of the 4-H Leaders' association with co-operation of the business men of Medford and Ashland and the local community organizations, including home extension units, Parent-Teacher associations, Granges, Medford Garden club, and community clubs.

The 4-H delegates are: Helen Richards, Jack Williams and Melvin Hantley from Bellview Livestock club; Margaret Broili, Virginia Taylor, and Dorothy Thomas, Ashland Cooking club; Rogeno Dusenberry, Etna Davis, Olive Davis and Roger Trisham, Sams Valley Cooking and Livestock clubs; David Luman and Bob Daily, Hoxly Ann Camp Cooking; Lorraine Wright and Wana Conrad, Central Point Cooking club; Muriel Kilburn, Central Point Cooking club; Esther Lathrop, Central Point Home Improvement club; Ernest Lathrop and Everett Atkins, Central Point Livestock club; Muriel Morse, Valleyview Livestock club, and Mary Milestone and Nancy Durham from the Clifton Creek Clothing club.

Those who have donated toward the scholarships are: Medford National Bank, Gates Auto Co., First National Bank, Snider Dairy, Medford Mail Tribune, Gates and Lydard, Merriman's Dairy, J. C. Penny company, Copco, Safeway Store, Mounarch Seed and Feed, Hubbard Brothers, Ashland Elks club and various other firms in Ashland, Medford Garden club, Bellview Grange and Parent-Teacher association, Griffin Creek Home Extension unit and the Central Point Home Extension unit and Grange.

The first Christian church announces its two weeks' Daily Vacation Bible school will begin Monday, June 10, at 9 o'clock. A special time is being planned for all children age five and above in their own age group.

Dramatization, Bible study, stories, games, handwork, singing and special treats are among the things being planned to make the two weeks profitable as well as highly enjoyable to all. A cordial invitation is extended to all children to join in a fine time.

The comptroller of Florida reports the volume of gasoline sold within the state during March was the greatest since March, 1926.

Society and Clubs

Mrs. Holloway Hostess Combined Missionary Meet

Mrs. Wm. Holloway was hostess on Tuesday afternoon to the combined session of the missionary societies of the First M. E. church. Mrs. C. Darby presided during the first half, opening with the devotional period conducted by Mrs. C. Mesker.

"Wonderful Words of Life" was sung in concert, followed with scripture lesson, topic "Workmanship." This period was concluded with several sentences prayers.

Election of officers for the year was in order, with Mrs. Koppen as chairman. Mrs. Willy took the chair for the second period, with reports given from the various secretaries and treasurers.

The study program was continued by Mrs. Mesker, subject "Contemplation in Nature." The first number, "Summer Days," was rendered by Shirley Pankey; (2) "The Symbol," a reading by Mrs. Arnsperger; (3) "Gardens," Mrs. Mesker; (4) "God of the Garden," a poem prayer, Mrs. Bridges; (5) vocal duet, "In the Garden," Mesdames Mesker and Holloway.

Report from the assistant editor of the "Mission Magazine," a story of thanksgiving in service as well as funds by Mrs. Chirwin.

Members are asked to bring thanksgiving offerings to the July meeting.

The hostess, with her assistants, Mrs. Chas. Holloway and Mrs. Arnsperger, served delicious shortcake and coffee during the social half hour.

MAY POSTAL RECEIPTS SHOW GAIN OF $2792 OVER MONTH IN 1934

year, Postmaster DeSouza stated. Postoffice business is considered an excellent barometer for business in general, and with promises for continuation of the rise, the outlook is bright.

The $2600 increase during the month of May is only partly due to the brief chain-letter rush, the postmaster said, as increased business for that reason was only apparent for three days. The chain letter had subsided quickly, and left only a slight swell in the general upward trend of postal receipts.

NO WAGE MINIMUM ON SEWAGE PLANT

The Public Works administration has advised the city superintendent's office here that form number 61 of the PWA specifications on the Medford sewage disposal plant, placing a minimum wage that may be paid to employees on the project, is no longer in force, and advising them to make this fact known to contractors who have already secured copies of the specifications.

The action was taken following the collapse of the NRA. An addenda to the printed forms has been sent out to the known contractors, and all of those with the original forms will be notified as soon as possible.

Bids will be called on June 12.
