

SEATTLE GIRLS BETTER OWN WORLD RECORD

The Washington Athletic Club team from Seattle lowered its own record of 14:22 for the 400 yard relay while defeating the Carnegie Library Club of Homestead, Pa., at the National A. A. U. women's swim meet in Chicago. Their time was 4:15.3. The winners were, (left to right) Betty Lea, Olive McKean, Doris Buckley and Mary Lou Petty. The smiling mermaids are proudly displaying their medals. (Associated Press Photo)

MAYOR READS RIOT ACT TO RELIEF STRIKERS

Mayor G. G. McGerr (indicated by arrow) is shown reading the riot act to striking British Columbia relief camp demonstrators in Vancouver after 2000 of them paraded through the streets, smashing windows and battling police, in a complaint against conditions at the camps. It was the first time since 1912 the act had been read in Vancouver. The wording is: "Our sovereign lord and king charges and commands all persons assembled immediately to disperse and peaceably depart to their habitations or to their lawful business upon pain of being guilty of an offense on conviction of which they may be sentenced to imprisonment for life." Sixteen were arrested. (Associated Press Photo)

TAKES FIRST AIRPLANE RIDE

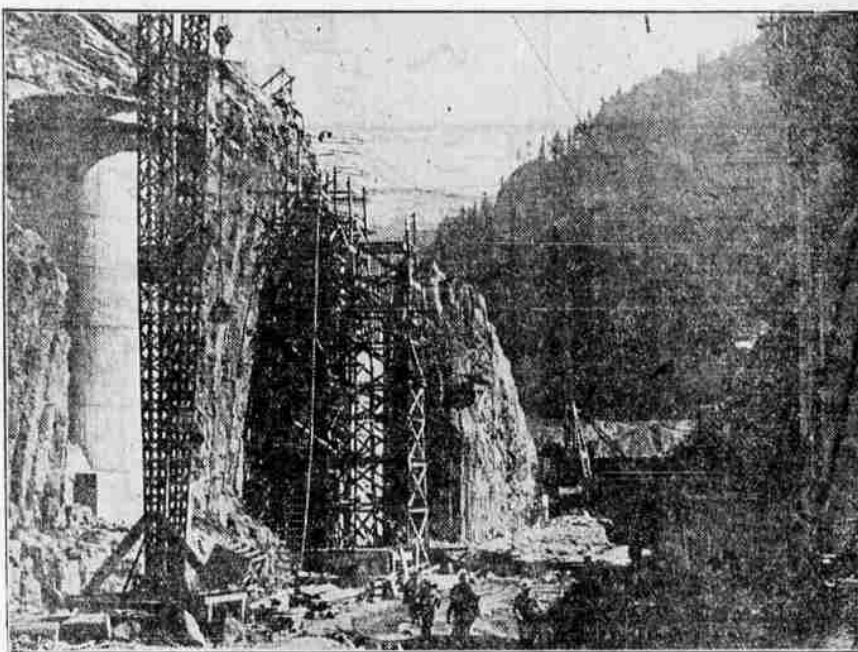

Mme. Ernestine Schumann-Heink, well known concert singer, is shown as she boarded a plane in Chicago, Ill., for Newark, N. J. It was the singer's first airplane ride. (Associated Press Photo)

Takes Final Count

Firer Jim Flynn, 55, died in a receiving hospital in Los Angeles where he was taken suffering from a heart attack. The old time heavy-weight who once knocked out Jack Dempsey died 10 minutes after posing for this picture. (Associated Press Photo)

OCEAN-GOING VESSELS WILL PASS THROUGH HERE

This view shows how construction is progressing on the $3,000,000 navigation locks at the $34,000,000 Bonneville dam on the Columbia river near Portland, Ore. Sea-going freighters will pass through here to the wharves that will line the wide lake formed by the dam. (Associated Press Photo)

ARMS PLANT FOUNDER DIES

Stricken suddenly at his estate near Jacksonville, Fla., Alfred I. DuPont (above) organizer and former head of the DuPont de Nemours and Co., huge Delaware munitions concern, died at the age of 72. (Associated Press Photo)

WINDSTORM KILLS THREE PERSONS

Part of the damage done to the house in which three persons were killed when a windstorm struck Louisville, Ky. More than 100 homes and 50 business buildings were damaged. (Associated Press Photo)

PLANE CARRIES TWO TO DEATH

A nose dive from 200 feet caused by a stalled motor cost the lives of Dr. Charles E. Rice, 44, Detroit, Mich., dentist, and Nelson M. Clark, 28. Picture shows remains of the wreckage swept by fire at the Detroit airport. (Associated Press Photo)

YANKEE OFF FOR ENGLAND

The sloop Yankee (above), with the Atlantic as an escort, started for England from Boston to meet Europe's fastest racing boats in 40 odd sailing contests this summer. There was a crew of 25 aboard the America's Cup contender of last year. (Associated Press Photo)

MOTHER CONVICTED AS SPY

Head bowed over her prison born baby, Mrs. Chana Salzman is shown in a French court in Paris as she was convicted of espionage. She was sentenced to three years imprisonment.

WANTS ROOM FOR SELF AND BURRO

Pat Gallagher, a deputy U. S. marshal, rides his burro into a Las Vegas, Nev., hotel lobby to register for Hellsdorado, a four day celebration when Las Vegas and Boulder City turned the clock back to the time the townsite of Las Vegas was laid out. (Associated Press Photo)

SECRETARY SPEAKER AT ASSOCIATED PRESS LUNCHEON

Harold Ickes, secretary of the interior, was the speaker at the annual Associated Press luncheon in New York. Left to right: Secretary Ickes, Frank B. Noyes, president of The Associated Press and publisher of The Washington Star, and Josephus Daniels, ambassador to Mexico and publisher of The Raleigh, N. C., News and Observer. (Associated Press Photo)

OUSTED DEAN GIVES TESTIMONY

Chester D. Snell, ousted dean of the University of Wisconsin extension center at Milwaukee, is shown testifying before a state senate committee in Madison. The committee is investigating charges of immorality of persons connected with the school. (Associated Press Photo)

DISPENSER OF BILLIONS TAKES OVER OFFICE

Frank C. Walker, heading the projects application division of the four billion dollar relief fund, is shown in a series of poses in his office at Washington, D. C., as he assumed his job at the appointment of the President. (Associated Press Photos)