Members Mistletoe Camp Attend Bend Twelfth Convention

Royal Neighbors of America in Southern Oregon hold their twelfth annual Ida Hamblin district convention at Bend, Ore., June 1 with State Supervising Deputy Irma M. Kibler of Nampa, Idaho and district deputies present.

Another chapter was thereby added to the history of district convention activities, which are important to the order. A large number of delegates from the camps in the district, including 21 from Mistletoe camp, Medford, were in attendance.

Grants Pass was selected for the next meeting place, where the following officers were elected to preside: district orator, Betty Bruce, Grants Pass; vice orator, Alice Turner, Ashland; secretary and treasurer, Eva Webb, Grants Pass; chancery, Mildred Sanders, Bend.

A large class of candidates were initiated, seven of whom belong to Medford. Medford camp exemplified the formal entry march for which they scored 100 per cent. The local camp also put on the memorial service for departed members. This feature was highly credited as well.

Liberty camp of Bend, presented all past orators present with lovely floral corsages. Bend camp also presented four of their members with veteran jewelry, awarded for 25 or more years of continuous membership. In the competitive drill work Bend camp won first prize, Klamath Falls, second, while Ashland and Medford tied for third.

At the close of the session, Liberty camp of Bend served the visitors refreshments at midnight, which were enjoyed by all present.

Medford camp plans to present its drill at the next open meeting and social, Thursday evening, June 20, at the K. of P. hall.

Mistletoe Officers Compliment Deputies

Complimenting their state deputy supervisor, Irma B. Kibler, of Nampa, Idaho, and District Deputy Leonora Broil of Ashland, officers of Mistletoe camp, Royal Neighbors of America, were joint hostesses with the orator, Margaritha Garrett, Tuesday at a lovely covered dish luncheon. The luncheon was at the pleasant home of Mrs. Garrett's mother, Mrs. O. A. Dailley, with whom she resides at 704 South Oakdale avenue, and who assisted in entertaining the guests. The affair was very hastily arranged owing to the unexpected arrival of the guests of honor, and those in charge regret that it was impossible to inform some of the officers, who were unable to be present.

Following luncheon, Mrs. Kibler gave those present some valuable and highly interesting facts and advice. Her talk was very entertaining and much appreciated.

"It is always a treat to the camp and officers to have her with us and all look forward to her visit next fall," was the expression of the camp. Miss Margaret Broil was also guest.
