SCATTER GUNNERS IN LAST PRACTICE BEFORE BIG SHOOT

Shooters for the Oregon trapshoot, generally anticipated as the biggest and best on the Pacific coast in years, are already beginning to arrive here. It was learned today. Local hotels and campgrounds report so many advance reservations that the housing problem may be a serious one by the time the shoot gets well under way. Overflow reservations are already going to Jacksonville and Phoenix, and one large auto camp reports that every cabin with shower on the grounds had been signed for two weeks ago.

There will be over 200 out of town shooters, and it has been estimated that each will spend at least $50. Many will spend more, and a large number have indicated that they will remain after the events to fish the Rogue river.

Forty local shooters faced the traps at the Gun club yesterday for their final unlimbering before the shoot, which opens on Thursday of this week. Two extra traps have been installed to accommodate the crowd, and improvements on the grounds and buildings are nearing completion. Everything will be in readiness for the shooters by Wednesday night.

The scores made in yesterday's practice shoots are:

HOFFARD PITCHES MEDFORD TO 8-6 WIN OVER K. FALLS

The Medford Rogues have finally done it! They surprised themselves and the Klamath Red Sox at Klamath Falls yesterday by pounding out an 8-6 win, with "Grandpa" Hoffard, foxy manager of the Rogues on the mound. Pritchett, who was slated to chuck, found himself unable to work because of a sore arm, and the old war-horse went to the hill and pitched with his head as well as his hands. He kept the Klamath hits well scattered, and great support in the field gave Medford their second game of the league season.

ROSEBURG SHOOTERS DELAY SALMON BAKE FOR BIG EVENT HERE

The Roseburg Rod and Gun club will hold its annual salmon bake at Idylwild Park on the North Umpqua river, 20 miles above Roseburg, on Sunday, June 23. The event originally scheduled for June 18, has been postponed until the 23rd, in order to give the Roseburg trapshooters an opportunity to attend the state championship events at the Oregon state shoot in Medford next Sunday, and to enable Jackson county sportsmen to attend the Roseburg celebration and picnic.

FOURSOME FINALS COME WEDNESDAY

Finals of the mixed Scotch foursome golf tournament at Rogue Valley links, which were definitely scheduled this morning for Wednesday of this week, will find Mrs. Anne Fuson and Bud Simmons playing Mr. and Mrs. Leland Clark for possession of the silver cup donated by E. Raymond Driver.

Mrs. Fuson and Simmons won the right to enter the finals by virtue of a 100-hole victory over Mrs. Aletha Vanter and H. B. Bentley. Mrs. Vanter pluckily made the rounds with the aid of a cane, having been slightly injured in an accident at home.

The Clark team has exhibited excellent golf on their steady climb through the ranks, but should be up against stiff competition when Mrs. Fuson and Simmons, who yesterday won the spring handicap, take the field.

Preparations are underway at the local club to receive a delegation of Granite Pass shotmakers next Sunday.

Drink clean iced water when thirsty. Read or write as you ride. And there's always a convenient rest room.

BUD SIMMONS IS WINNER OF PERL GOLFING TROPHY

Shining brightly as though glad to be a member of the Simmons family, which it could hardly have helped being, the beautiful spring handicap golf trophy donated by John and Frank Perl rests in the possession of Bud Simmons today, as the result of a smart 2 and 1 victory over his brother Ed yesterday in the 36-hole finals at Rogue Valley course.

With his putter doing everything but putt, Ed, who last year won the southern Oregon championship tourney, failed to show his usual form, which may have been partly due to the novel situation of playing 36 holes of crucial golf against an older brother. Bud, who, incidentally, started golfing again this spring after a four-year layoff while being reinstated in the ranks of amateur golfer, whipped the pellet around the 36 holes in 77-79-154, compared to Ed's card of 74-77-151. Ed gave his brother four strokes on each 18.

The younger of Mrs. Simmons' boys shot his best golf during the last nine of the first 18, to nearly overhaul a three-down margin. He recaptured two holes, starting the second 18 after lunch one down.

They were all even on the 31st, but thereafter the older shotmaker, Bud, put on the pressure and remained in the lead until the finish. The winner got off several lucky approach shots that possibly took some of the spunk out of Ed during the latter part of the tournament. On No. 11, in the afternoon round, Bud found himself stymied behind a tree, but with a lucky shot he booted the oval through the limbs, rolled well onto the green, and they halted the hole. On No. 14, in the morning, he had made a similar good recovery when he halved the hole on a lucky chip shot made from a trap and a downhill lie.

Dr. G. C. Campbell, president of the Oklahoma Croquet association, has sent 1,000 rule books to prospective entries in the state tournament to be held in August.

and dancing in a new pavilion, archery contest and a horse show event. President George Smith of the Roseburg club states there will be 40 large Umpqua river chinook salmon barbecued for the noon day picnic basket lunch as an entree.

Fifteen Roseburg shooters are expected to attend the Medford state shoot.

CARLOAD OF CLAY PIGEONS WILL BE 'KILLED' AT SHOOT

More than a carload of clay pigeon targets—120,000—will be consumed at the Oregon state trapshoot at the Medford Gun club, commencing Thursday and ending with the final events next Sunday. Seventy-six hundred pounds, nearly four tons, of shot will be fired in the four-day contest. The targets will be destroyed but the shot will be reclaimed after the shoot. Including other shot not yet reclaimed, its value will be approximately $1,000.

In order to accommodate the record-breaking attendance now assured, the local club has installed two additional traps and trained two extra trap crews. Shooting will be continued on all seven traps as well as the skeet traps from 8:30 each morning, and relief trap crews will relieve the regular crews for periods of rest and lunch, in order that the shooting will not stop during necessary rest periods or for lunch. It is hoped that four eight-hour days of uninterrupted shooting will accommodate all the contestants.

Without doubt the Oregon shoot will be the largest state shoot in the United States in many years, and the Medford club is making preparations to handle the large crowd of shooters who will contest for nearly $4,000 in cash and prizes and thousands of spectators expected to attend.

Such world-renowned shooters as Frank Troen of Portland, Guy Chairman of Spokane, George Young of Port Angeles, Ted Renfro of Del. Mont., Carl Vining of Sacramento, Prindle of Stockton, and scores of others have already made their hotel reservations.

The Medford Gun club is anxious for the public to know that the public is welcome to witness all the events, and that there will be no admission charge.
