

HUNTING, FISHING LAW CHANGES IN EFFECT JUNE 12

New laws relative to hunting and fishing in the state of Oregon, passed by the last legislative assembly, go into effect tomorrow. The most important of the new laws is the closing of Rogue river to commercial fishing. Although some action was taken in an effort to bring the matter to a state vote in referendum, the movement failed, partly through lack of interest, and partly by the arbitrary ruling by the state game commission, closing the river.

The only commercial fishing now possible in the Rogue is the selling of not more than three steelhead taken on a hook and line in Curry county. Tags must first be procured for this purpose.

Two new hunting and fishing licenses will also become effective tomorrow. They are the juvenile hunter's and juvenile angler's license, costing $1, and the special vacation angling license for either residents or non-residents, also costing $1. This is the first time that such a license has been obtainable in Oregon.

With the Oregon state trap shoot bringing many out of state sportsmen to Medford in the next week, the new vacation angler's license will make it particularly convenient for them to fish the famous Rogue river and other southern Oregon streams. The license is good for two consecutive days only, and it is made imperative by law that the particular days on which it is to be used be specified on the license and the stub at the time of purchase.

The new juvenile licenses are to be issued to children between the ages of 14 and 18 years, good throughout the state. There is no deer tag with the juvenile hunter's license, and if persons under 18 wish to hunt deer they must procure a regular adult hunting license at the regular fee of $5.

Casey Is Coming

Wrestling fans in Medford have for many months heard of the prowess of Casey Kaszjian, former Stanford football star and now a speedy, scientific muscle-mangler, and this week promoter Ithard has given them a chance to see him in action at the Army arena in a 15-minute semifinal tussle with Johnnie McWood, big, bronze footballer from U. C. L. A. McWood, who lost here last week to Tony Catalano, is anxious to show his wares against a grappler as clean as himself.

CANZONERI WINS CLOSE DECISION IN GO WITH KLICK

WASHINGTON, June 11.—(AP)—Tony Canzoneri was still lightweight champion in fact as well as in name today, but he had behind him an interesting 12-round tussle with Frankie Klick that stamped the little San Francisco Pole as a likely challenger for Canzoneri's crown.

Canzoneri staved off Klick's early round attack last night, then went on to win through hectic punching. His crown was not at stake, but the fact that he was facing a top-notch junior lightweight title, gave the fight a championship aspect. Ten thousand fans saw the bout in Griffith stadium.

Jack Dempsey, the referee, decided the fight after the two ring-side judges split. The decision met with boos from the fans.

Canzoneri showed willingness to mix it most of the way and took many light jabs on his face without damage, returning blows that kept Klick from initiating a steady offensive.

A hard right to the face in the sixth opened a cut over Klick's right eye that slowed down the Californian until the ninth when he made a spirited rally. Canzoneri, coasting through the round, opened a counter-attack in the final stanza.

BRADDOCK'S CHIN OPEN FOR BAER'S RIGHT HAND

NEW YORK, June 11.—(AP)—Jim Braddock, the Cinderella Kid, will be heavily backed by sentiment, if not ring else, when he steps into the Long Island ring with Max Baer on Thursday night.

The hard-bitten boys came in from the sidewalks of New York yesterday to watch the Irish challenger wind up his training in two rounds of boxing with Jack McCarthy of Boston, the slinger who seemed to be going places until Charlie Retzief cut him down.

Hopefully, they shook their heads as McCarthy shot his right to the Braddock chin. If McCarthy could land his right, they mused, what would Baer do with his crushing right-hand punch?

Those wise in the business of evaluating fighters gave Braddock a small chance to win. Some said the former longshoreman was a 100 to 1 shot.

Others, however, having in mind his durability through a career of twice as many fights as Baer, said they would not be surprised if he upset the dope.

He licked Art Laskey when Laskey was considered good, they argued. He's got a good left hand and fear is no part of his mental makeup. Besides, he is no longer the thin man. He weighed 194 yesterday.

Meanwhile, Baer, winding up his training at Asbury Park, N. J., took time out from his callisthenics to direct some verbal shots at Arthur Donovan, the referee.

He said he would refuse to fight if Donovan, who handled his fights with Schmeling and Carnera, was chosen as referee.

"I don't stand for Donovan in the ring," he said. "He was ridiculous in the Carnera fight. Why, he stopped in front of my right hand no less than five times in the first round. If he hadn't done it I might have flattened Primo then."

Baer said he didn't question Donovan's honesty, but that he thought he lost his head in the excitement.

PITCHER ROY JOINER ACQUIRED BY SEALS; MAY BOOST STANDING

(By the Associated Press.)

Roy Joiner, former Los Angeles southpaw, who was turned back to the Chicago Cubs because the Angels had such a good mound staff, joins "Lefty" O'Doul's San Francisco Seals at San Francisco today as the Mission return from a northern invasion to renew the local civil war.

The Seals' acquisition of Joiner may make considerable difference in the Pacific Coast league's race. They have been searching for a good pitcher, and if Joiner produces the goods the Seals may start cutting down the margins held by Los Angeles, Oakland and Hollywood.

Los Angeles continues to lead the parade by a safe margin, with Oakland, handicapped by Leroy Anton's injury, holding second position. It's still a dog fight between Hollywood and the Seals for third place, and the canines also are battling for fifth and seventh spots—Seattle and Portland in the former and Missions and Sacramento in the latter circuit.

The menu calls for sm. portions of hot, steaming roast pork and roast beef, scalloped potatoes, bread and butter, cheese, relishes and all the coffee and beer the brothers can drink. In case the weather is cool, a big bonfire is planned.

Tickets continue to sell rapidly, the secretary announced and an additional call for 30 has been received from Grants Pass. Tickets are on sale at Fredette's, Roxy Ann Confectionary, The Toggery, Valentine's, Jensen and Daley's, Southern Oregon Gas Corporation and the Hiway Barber Shop.

KIWANIS BRIDGE TEAM WINS FROM ROTARIANS IN TOURNAMENT PLAY

Medford Kiwanis club came out on top in a three-tournament series with Medford Rotarians last night by virtue of a close win over the Rotarians in a bridge fest at the Hotel Medford. Kiwanians aggregated 34,200 points and Rotarians totaled 28,510, which is rather a close margin considering that seven tables were in play.

Kiwanians Charles Butterworth and C. C. Lemmon were the combination that registered high score for the evening, both sides included, and for the Rotarians, Dr. Charles Lemery and Dr. C. I. Drummond were high. Buffet supper was served by Pete Denson, and the tournament, the second won by the Kiwanians in the two out of three series, was considered such a success that even the defeated Rotarians expressed a desire to continue the tournaments in the fall.

Kiwanians who played were: Flavius West, Frank Perl, Dr. C. H. Paake, Jack Reynolds, J. C. Mann, Ted Granger, J. C. Thompson, J. H. Fletcher, Lemmon, Max Preece, Butterworth, Frank Dillard, C. M. Kidd, Everett Faber, and H. J. Merkle. Portland Kiwanian, who was a visitor in the Medford club yesterday.

Rotarians were: W. H. Reichstein, C. W. Ellis, Dr. Lemery, Dr. Drummond, I. E. Schuler, Kazi Janouch, Fred Heath, Pete Denson, Dr. Bert Lagerson, Ben Harder, Mark Goldy, George Henselman, Ed Shockley, and C. J. Semon.

NEW LEGISLATION TAKES EFFECT IN STATE TOMORROW

"No member of the department of state police shall, in any labor trouble, or dispute between an employer and employee, assist either party, and they shall not have authority or power to execute any writ or order of injunction in any civil action, suit or proceeding, involving labor disputes of any nature, nor shall they be used for patrol purposes in such disputes."

Claim No Violation

It has been stated by the governor, however, the police in its activities to date has not violated the old statute, since they were called upon to quiet "mobs of thugs" and not peaceful picketing. They were ordered to Washington county last month to disperse a mob of 300 men and yesterday were sent to Tillamook and dispersed a group of 250 men. Two squads were still held at the coast city today.

Under new acts, as well as upon order of the state game commission, the Rogue river will be closed to commercial fishing beginning tomorrow. The battle between commercial interests and the upper river sportsmen to close the stream has continued for years, but the vote at the last session was overwhelmingly favorable to closing, indicating a waning of the fight.

Another important measure effective tomorrow is the act which prohibits the paying or receiving of money for circulating or securing signatures on petitions for initiatives, referendums and recall. The act will make the obtaining of signatures more difficult and will have a tendency to reduce the number of measures appearing on the ballot.

Change Judge Election.

The change in the election of circuit judges in the second district, to eliminate future controversies as was experienced at the past election when Judge B. L. Edy of Roseburg contested the election of Carl Winberry, is listed in the new acts. The courts sustained the latter's election. The new act sets the various sections of the district into three positions.

More than 80 of the new laws make minor changes in the workmen's

BOY TRAP CHAMPION TO DEFEND LAURELS IN BIG SHOOT HERE

Trapshooters continue to pour into Medford and George Bradley of Pendleton, who arrived early this week, brings word that 15 or 20 skeet and trap artists from Pendleton as well as large contingents from La Grande and other northeastern Oregon cities have packed their shotguns and are on their way.

Arriving with Bradley was his son, Glenn, 14-year-old noted shooter and junior state skeet champion, who is here to defend his title. Glenn has won many trophies during the past year throughout the northwest in skeet and is also a remarkable trap shooter. He will enter both the junior and senior events.

Mr. Bradley is one of the many trigger-pulling enthusiasts from out of town who will attend the meet, and he also plans to do some fishing in southern Oregon, which is his old stamping ground. He lived for many years at Central Point, and grew up with the late Jim Grive of Prospect.

Recently he was in business in Klamath Falls.

Spectator Kayos Bulldog Jackson

PORTLAND, June 11.—(AP)—Bulldog Jackson might or might not have taken the third and deciding fall over Dickie Trout last night if a spectator hadn't intervened. Regardless of possibilities, however, the Bulldog went down in a heap in the final frame when a minor riot on the part of irate fans ended the match. Jackson folded up when his chin took the brunt of an unknown assailant's attack. Before that, the falls were even.

COMMITTEE BANS 'ALABAMA' PITTS

CHICAGO, June 11.—(AP)—Kenesaw Mountain Landis, baseball's court of last resort, today had another big problem to settle—the case of Edwin C. "Alabama" Pitts.

The executive committee of the National Association of Minor Professional Baseball leagues yesterday declared void Pitts' contract with the Albany club of the International league, because he is an ex-convict. Immediately, Johnny Evers, manager of the Albany club, owner Joseph Cambria, and Pitts, himself, wired Landis asking a hearing in an effort to have the committee's decision overruled.

MEDFORD SCOUTS WIN OVER PALMER CREEK

In an exciting baseball game at Palmer Creek the Medford Scouts came home with a 10 to 0 win. The Scouts scored four runs in the first inning, after D. Praley had cracked the first ball for a long triple. The game finally turned into a pitching duel between A. Praley of Medford and Burns of Palmer Creek. Praley walked four but struck out 11, while Burns fanned four while walking four.

Dick Praley turned in a perfect game, both in the field and at bat. He handled a dozen chances nicely at first and then switched to catcher after Shafer was hurt. At bat he batted out five hits in five times at bat, including a triple and two doubles.

PIRATES BARRAGE DEMOLISHES REDS

(By the Associated Press.)

The Pittsburgh Pirates, favored by some to wind up in second place, dragged out the Big Bertha against the Reds yesterday to demolish them, 14 to 1. It was the only game played in the major leagues.

The Giants were back in New York today to treat the home folk to some high-speed baseball in the Polo grounds where, they feel sure, the National league flag will fly in harvest time.

With almost a third of the season gone, they came back for their second stand against the western clubs with a record of which Bill Terry and his men feel proud.

The Polo grounds has been a lush and green pasture this year. Only three times have the Terrymen left its greenward in defeat, and not once at the hands of an eastern team.

No team in the league has won more than two games from them.

MUCHA SIGNS CONTRACT FOR SEASON WITH BEARS

CHICAGO, June 11.—(AP)—Charles "Chuck" Mucha, 202-pound guard from the University of Washington, has signed a contract with the Chicago Bears of the National Professional Football league.

compensation act, while others affect courts procedure, regulation of motor vehicle, operations of savings and loan associations, and numerous school district provisions.

Creation of the State Bar association, participated in by all attorneys, may be advanced tomorrow, as well as the law licensing and regulating nurserymen and dealers in nursery stock. Circuit judges pro tem may be appointed from the bench in cases of emergencies, under another law.

HOME OF CLEAN, WHOLESOME FUN!

"Somebody to see you!"

IF EVERYBODY with something to interest you should come and ring your bell, what a nuisance it would be! Think of the swarming, jostling crowd, the stamping of feet on your porch and carpets!

Every day we know of many callers who come to see you. They never jangle the bell—they don't take up your whole day trying to get your attention. Instead, they do it in a way that is most considerate of your privacy and your convenience. They advertise in your newspaper!

In this way you have only to listen to those you know at a glance have something that interests you. They make it short, too, so you can gather quickly just what you want to know. You can receive and hear them all without noise or confusion in a very few minutes.

In fairness to yourself look over all the advertisements. The smallest and the largest—you never can be sure which one will tell you something you really want to know.
