All Medford Churches Extend to Everyone A Cordial Invitation To

Today Is Dedicated To "DAD".....

... It is fitting that one day in each year be set aside as a time when we may pause and reflect the part "Dads" have played in the lives of individuals and in the destinies of nations... It has been the fathers who have labored so that mothers might bear children in the security of a home... Their efforts have been directed toward the bringing up of these children in happy atmosphere of home life; of educating them for lives of usefulness... Fathers have fought and died on battlefields so that the security of these homes might be maintained... They have been heroic figures in the past year of depression—battling for a livelihood for their families against adverse conditions... So it is fitting that we dedicate today—Sunday, June 16th, to "Dad". Upon this occasion, let us reflect upon his devotion to his home and family, his inspiration and guidance that are vital factors in the lives of every member of his family... Father's Day should be YOUR day to attend services in your church.
