SLATTERY GAINS CLOSE WIN OVER OAK KNOLL STAR

Ed Slattery, 166 pound batter from South Fork, defeated Willie De Shields, 169, Oak Knoll, in a spectacular main event on the CCG card at the Elks picnic grounds on Friday evening.

The colored scrapper from Oak Knoll gave a good account of himself and the decision in favor of Slattery was close. The fight climaxed a brilliant card that included five knockouts, four decisions and one draw.

Tiger Cusano, 164, Oak Knoll, knocked out Harold Davis, 162, Kerby, in a special event that ended in the first round. Don Gasper, 152, Upper Rogue, decision Nathaniel Sanchez, 149, Gasquet, in another flashy fight that saw Gasper outclass the grinning Sanchez but unable to put him away.

Bob Chapman, 138, Gasquet, knocked out Dick Espinor, 141, Oak Knoll, in a bout that promised to be a slugfest until Chapman landed a right that put the dark-skinned lad to the canvas.

Raymond Wooley, 134, Wimer, and Al Castellano, 136, Oak Knoll, hit each other with both hands for three rounds and finally were given a draw. The two game youngsters showed little science but plenty of fortitude.

Bill Padgett, 132, Wimer, knocked out John Popo, 135, Upper Rogue, in the second round of the evening's best fight. The blonde Padgett was on the short end of the struggle and was taking plenty of punishment until he unleashed a solar plexus blow that dropped Popo. The Upper Rogue boy showed plenty of stuff and will undoubtedly go far in future cards.

Bill Burkham, 133, Diamond Lake, decision Don Litcher, 130, Oregon Caves, in a thrilling bout that kept the crowd on its feet. Stanley Stockings, 132, China Flats, knocked out Jim Wharton, 135, Oak Knoll, in the second round of their heated set-to.

Harvey Snyder, 131, Evans Creek, unleashed a terrific left that put Leo Rusetos, 128, Oregon Caves, down for the count in the first round.

Two plucky battlers, "Man Mountain" Farmer, 105, Upper Rogue, and "Terrible Turk" Alves, 100, Oak Knoll, went three fast rounds to open the card, the "Turk" winning the decision. The boys are anxious to get back together and may be given a return engagement on the Fourth of July card in Ashland.

Many Styles for Hair Dressing

With the aid of a wave here and a curl there, deftly placed by skilled beauty operators, the plainest face generally blossoms out with new interest for those who look upon it in the daylight or moonlight. Today, perhaps more than ever before, women appreciate the fact that practically every one of them requires a distinctive hairdress to bring out her most attractive features. Murray's Beauty Salon makes a specialty of designing styles to express various personalities.

ASHLAND PICKED FOR '36 P.E.O. MEET

SALEM, June 15.—(AP)—Ashland was selected as the 1936 convention city of the P. E. O. Sisterhood at the three-day state session which closed here last night. Installation of new officers featured the final program.

The new officials for the group now are: president, Mrs. Constance E. Caswell of Eugene; vice presidents, Mrs. Emily Wells of Portland and Mrs. Ella H. Braly of McMinnville; organizer, Mrs. Katherine S. Alsworth of Hood River; recording secretary, Mrs. Mary McFadden of Portland; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ivy Hughes of Salem.

PHOTOGRAPHIC REUNION FOR FAR-FLUNG FAMILY

CAMBRIDGE, O.—(UP)—With children in five countries—United States, Peru, Ecuador, Italy and Chile—Michaela Chiesi, of St. Lorenzo, Italy, and eight sons and four daughters have effected a photographic reunion.

Pictures of each have been sent to Italy, made in a composite picture. Five sons, Ben, Victor, John, Frank and Lawrence, are in the fruit and vegetable business here. John, Victor and Lawrence were in the U. S. forces in the World War. Francis is a druggist in Valparaiso, Chile; George, a contractor in Ecuador, and Joseph, a vinticulturist in Peru. The daughters live in Italy.

STATE TRAPSHOOT WILL END TODAY FOR 200 GUNNERS

Troeh was down only one bird out of 100, while Mr. Shiffer lost two of his targets.

Troeh slipped a little in the Medford handicap and lost by one bird to Charles C. Follette of Forest Grove who turned in a card of 95 out of 100. The Portland ace was tied for second place with George Young, Washington state singles champion, both of whom shattered 94 discs.

In the final Oregon doubles championship event, however, Mr. Troeh forged to the front again and retained his title by turning in a card of 48 out of 50. He nosed out M. G. Henkel, also of Portland, by two targets.

A 12-year-old boy of Corvallis, Clair Miller, won the state junior championship with a score of 89 out of a possible 100. Glenn Bradley, the 14-year-old Oregon skeet champion of Pendleton, did not compete, having left for home before the contest.

Mrs. Frieda Steiner of Portland was the only Oregon entry in the state singles championship match for women. She scored 83 out of 100 in the first half of the contest, the second half to be on today's program. Two other women were on the firing line, but they are not eligible for the Oregon title, as they come from California. They were Mrs. Fannie Bergschicker, woman champion of California, and Mrs. M. Rianda, both of Salinas. Mrs. Bergschicker was off form yesterday, turning in a card of 45 out of 100. Mrs. Rianda scored 54.

It was expected that the list of contestants in the tournament would exceed 200 today as several gunners from near-by cities sent word they would be here for the last day of the meet.

Interest is expected to center today upon Frank Troeh in his attempt to retain the state singles

GETTYSBURG HERO MAY QUIT CIGARS

LINCOLN, Neb., June 15.—(AP)—Jerry Wilhelm, Lincoln's last survivor of the battle of Gettysburg, today celebrated his 91st birthday by musing over the possibility of giving up smoking.

"I wish I lived a thousand miles from a cigar store, I'd give up smoking," he said.

FINLAND REMITS ON WAR DEBT, BUT OTHERS DEFAULT

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(AP)—While all but one European nation defaulted on war debt payment, as usual, the treasury—like most any debt-burdened individual—renewed its maturing notes today and took a look at the financial future.

HARDER TO TALK STATE BANK MEET

SALEM, June 15.—(AP)—Preparations were completed here for the opening of the 30th annual convention of the Bankers' association here tomorrow night. It was expected about 200 bankers would be in attendance at the session.

Among the speakers during the session Monday will be Albert C. Agnew and Russel C. Smith of San Francisco; Frederick Greenwood of Portland, president of the association; Dr. Bruce R. Baxter of Salem, and B. E. Warner of Medford.

Curb for Gandhi. SIMLA, India, June 15.—(AP)—Government officials refused permission to Mahatma Gandhi today to join rescue workers in the Quetta area devastated by earthquakes, on the ground that the presence of unofficial persons would be useless.

FINLAND REMITS ON WAR DEBT, BUT OTHERS DEFAULT

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(AP)—While all but one European nation defaulted on war debt payment, as usual, the treasury—like most any debt-burdened individual—renewed its maturing notes today and took a look at the financial future.

It cut down interest charges through an exchange offer of notes yielding only 1 1/2 per cent for a block of $770,467,800 on which it had been paying higher interest: $416,602,800 in 3 per cent notes maturing today and $353,865,000 in 1 1/2 per cent notes maturing August 1.

The annual saving in interest charges was estimated at more than $2,000,000. At the same time, the treasury watched June income tax installment payments rise toward an estimated total of $272,000,000. This was less, of course, than March collections which ran up $330,000,000, because many pay the full year's tax in a lump, but still well above the total for June, 1934.

Of the European nations which owed war debt payments today, all defaulted except Finland, which as usual paid on the dot. Its payment of $165,453 was insignificant when compared with the total of $180,000,000 due today and the cumulative total of today's defaulted payments and past arrears which rose to some $812,000,000. Tractor Kicks Back—Charles Hood of Prospect suffered a painful jaw injury late yesterday when a tractor he was cranking kicked back. He was taken to the Community hospital for treatment. Use Mail Tribune want ads.

China Envoy Approved. NANKING, June 15.—(AP)—Sir Alexander Cadogan presented his credentials today as the first British ambassador to China. ROSEVILLE, O. (UP)—F. W. Hanson, Sr., 75, who died here recently, leaves 77 descendants. This includes 10 children, 48 grandchildren, and 19 great grandchildren.
