

GEORGE HIGH IN NEW DIFFICULTY PENDING APPEAL

George A. High and Robert N. (Babe) High, brothers, of Ashland, under a four year sentence in state prison on conviction of setting fire to the Balfour, Guthrie barn near Ashland in January 1933, to defraud an insurance company, are again in conflict with the law. The High brothers, well known in the south end of this county, were found guilty of setting fire to the Balfour, Guthrie barn last March, and sentenced to four year prison terms. Joe Holland and Theron (Red) Martin, alleged accomplices, pleaded guilty. Holland was granted a parole. Martin was sentenced to the penitentiary. The Highs have since been at liberty on bonds, pending appeal. A motion seeking a continuance until September 1, for filing the appeal is now pending in circuit court, and is set for consideration tomorrow morning. The present time for filing the appeal expires July 1.

Valley peach and apricot crops now in the "greening stage," will also be light according to Fowler, "with good crops in some sections, but as a rule light."

watched by the entire assemblage. When he finished his 50 shots without a miss the Medford shooter was given an ovation.

Mrs. Steiner Wins. The state woman's championship was won by Mrs. Frieda Steiner of Portland with a score of 165 out of 200. Her victory was a foregone conclusion, as she was the only Oregon woman entered in the match.

The three Oregon men were highest in the entire field entered in the Handicap match, including all of the out-of-state entrants who were not eligible for the title. They led by two targets their nearest contestants, O. G. Hilderbrand of Wasco, O. G. Hilderbrand of Independence and Dr. George Blom of Calgary, Alberta, each of whom broke 95.

The five-man team of the Klamath Pals Gun club won a second leg on the Oregonian trophy in the final shoot-off of the telegraphic tournament yesterday. In finishing on top in the Oregonian rare Klamath won the hottest contest in the 10 years' history of the wire shoot, being just one target ahead of the Medford Gun club squad. The first leg on the trophy was won by Klamath a few years ago.

The final standing in the Oregonian trophy was: Klamath Pals, 453; Medford, 442; Salem, 461; Portland, 450; Heppner-Pilot Rock, 456; Corvallis, 455; Coos county, 447.

In the first half Saturday after making a perfect tally in the first round, he finished the first half of the event by running out 50 straight for a tally of 99 for the day. He continued the straight run yesterday by not missing a single target out of the 100 thrown from the traps. CHAUFFEUR CLEARED IN MYSTERY DEATH OF HOLLYWOOD GIRL

LOS ANGELES, June 17.—(AP)—The veil of mystery over the death of Maybelle Fenner, attractive 21-year-old girl, was lifted today.

Police said that doctors at the general hospital reported death followed a diabetic coma, and that David Mansell, Hollywood chauffeur, who has been held as a material witness, would be released from custody.

His story was that he met the girl through a flirtation Saturday on a boulevard in Hollywood, invited her to dinner, and after the meal she became faint, he took her to the Hollywood emergency hospital.

Her father, Arthur J. Fenner, was located by police after the girl died in the general hospital. He said his daughter had been afflicted with diabetes for six years and had no hope for recovery.

COPCO HEAVIEST IN TAX PAYMENT AS QUARTER ENDS

The second quarterly payment of taxes, closed Saturday, with light receipts due to most of the taxpayers making half or full year payment previously, according to the tax collection department of the sheriff's office. Heaviest payment was a check for $30,659 from the California Oregon Power company.

Delinquent tax payments continue "trick," according to tax collection department aides. Under the liberal provisions of a new law, which went into effect June 12, property owners are given until July 15 to make a 10 per cent payment to the sheriff, and secure a six month's extension of time, to save property from foreclosure, now listed as delinquent. Many are taking advantage of the new law.

Reports indicate that a large number of property holders do not understand the provisions of the new law, and in easy payment privileges. All such whose land is now being foreclosed, are urged to confer with the district attorney or sheriff, so the law can be fully explained to them.

Final decree could have been taken April 4, last but action has been deferred to permit property owners to make the 10 per cent payment, and save their property from foreclosure. "No redemption is possible, under the new law, after the decree is entered," District Attorney George A. Codding said today. "It is planned to have the decrees entered July 15. Anyone desiring to stop the foreclosure, insofar as it affects their property, should consult the sheriff or district attorney before that date."

BARTLESVILLE, Okla., June 17.—(AP)—Wiley Post, convinced after four attempts his world girdling ship, the Winnie Mae, cannot carry him to a transcontinental speed mark via the subarctic route, will coifer here today to determine his future course.

Post arrived late yesterday from Wichita, Kas., leaving behind the purple and white high winged monoplane in which he was forced down Saturday by a broken piston.

Whether the Winnie Mae will be placed in a private museum here beside the "Woolaroo," now obsolete ship in which Art Goebel won the Dole flight to Hawaii in 1931, or be sent to a larger, nationally known museum, probably will be determined late today.

ANGLER MISSING IN NESTUCCA AREA

McMINNVILLE, Ore., June 17.—(AP)—Search for Elbert E. Hollister, 52, was being conducted today in the wild canyon country drained by the West Nestucca river west of this city. SISTER GREET'S SLAYER AT PENITENTIARY GATE; TO MAKE HOME IN EAST

(Continued from Page One.) road July 12, 1932 and then walked her to the fatal boating and death. There were tears in her eyes as she entered the car today with her sister, Mrs. Etta Mae Jackson. Her smile was a nervous smile.

Her sister said they would drive to Los Angeles, the city of her crime. But she did not intend to remain there long, saying that she planned to go east.

It was more like a going away party, from outward appearances, than her step to liberty on parole. Five pieces of baggage were stowed away in the car, three of them musical instruments, a banjo, saxophone with violin, for she had organized an orchestra in the woman's prison.

There were two automobiles in the going away party. The woman in the second car did not disclose her identity, saying she was merely a friend.
