

NEW STALEMATE ENCOUNTERED IN LUMBER STRIKE

PORTLAND, Ore., June 20.—(AP)

Recent developments in the Pacific northwest's lumber strike which apparently had portended an early settlement had led to another stalemate today. Two thousand members of the Portland Sawmill and Timber Workers' union last night voiced their approval of union leaders' advice to stand pat for union recognition and wage increases and another 2000 men in Bellingham, Wash., who had voted overwhelmingly to return to work, refused today to break through the picket lines of a minority group still holding out for 75 cents an hour and a 30-hour week. At the meeting in Portland, workers apparently were encouraged by yesterday's passage in the house of the Wagner labor bill, which already had been approved by the senate. D. E. McKerson, chairman of the strategy committee of organized labor, declared that "passage of the bill has given the men new courage and they plan to continue the strike until the bill becomes a law and they can feel its benefits."

Ben Osborne, secretary of the Oregon Federation of Labor, said approval of the bill would have a favorable effect on the strike. "If the Wagner labor bill becomes a law it will go far toward repairing the damage done by the supreme court decision nullifying the NRA, for section 7A was the heart of the recovery act," Osborne declared.

SOUTHERN OREGON GAINS PUBLICITY

More favorable publicity for southern Oregon is contained in a recent booklet issued by the Evergreen Playground Association of Oregon, Washington and British Columbia. Southern Oregon is an integral part of this area, which extends from the resorts of Vancouver in British Columbia to the Oregon-California boundary line and from the Cascade mountains west to the Pacific ocean.

The back cover of the 8x11 booklet reveals a large green rotogravure picture of Crater Lake, showing Wizard Island and Lion Rock in a framework of trees. In addition to this, a double page Evergreen playground map shows Crater Lake prominently and the Medford entrance highway.

Pictures of the Oregon Caves are also shown, showing the entrance from Grants Pass. The Evergreen association regards southern Oregon as the logical gateway to the extensive Evergreen playground.

Miss Billie Hammett And John Robertson Wed In Lovely Rites

Summer flowers formed the setting for a lovely wedding at the Catholic parish when Miss Billie Hammett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hammett of 1420 East Main street, was married to John E. Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Yoran of 5643 S. E. Belmont avenue, Portland, this morning. The ceremony was at 9 o'clock with Father Francis W. Black officiating. Wearing a blue and gray traveling suit, the charming bride carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and gardenias. She was attended by Mrs. Allen White of Weed, Cal., aunt of the bride, who wore a blue crepe gown and carried a bouquet of gardenias. Donald Von der Hellen was best man.

The ceremony was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Hammett, Mrs. Yoran and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Daniels. Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at Hotel Medford, where American Pillar roses, blue delphinium and baby roses were arranged in the same setting that had been formed for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Robertson planned to leave immediately for the coast, motoring along the Coast highway to Portland, where they will make their home at 2335 N. E. Olsen avenue. The bride is a graduate of Medford high school and a popular member of the younger set of Medford, attended University of Oregon, where she was affiliated with Pi Beta Phi. The romance began at the university, where Mr. Robertson was affiliated with Sigma Phi Epsilon, and, known as "Spook" Robertson on the basketball floor, was a star player of the University of Oregon basketball team. Affiliated with Union Oil company at Portland, he is now a member of the Union Oil team.

He is known to many in Medford through friendships at the university, and will be remembered as having played with Union Oil against the Southern Oregon Normal school here last winter.

Hoger Kayser, violinist, will appear here Tuesday. Friends and well-wishers of Roger Kayser, of Grants Pass, are greatly interested in his violin concert next Tuesday evening at the Baldwin recital hall.

According to critical information at hand, the eighteen year old boy, once the protégé of Louis Parsinger, teacher of Yehudi Menuhin, has added much to the promise of his earlier years. In the last years of study with Kathleen Parlow of San Francisco, and Leon Sametini and Louis Zander of Chicago, he has developed a firm rich tone, a finished legato, and great brilliance of attack. The program, to be announced in detail later, will be made up from the master-works of the following composers: Bach, Handel, Brahms, Czibeg and Wieniawski.

Former Resident Wed In New York, Is Word. Word was received here today that Miss Grace Jo Burnet, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. T. Burnet of Eugene, who formerly taught voice in this city and is a niece of Senator and Mrs. George W. Dunn of Ashland, was married June 8 in New York to Victor Bryant of Eugene, also a former resident of Medford.

The former Miss Burnet spent the past winter in Medford and conducted a studio, appearing herself in several voice recitals. She has many friends in the valley who have known her through her musical appearances, and is a member of one of the oldest and most prominent families of Oregon. Mr. Bryant was in Medford recently and is also a musician, having taught here last year.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Bryant are graduates of the music department of University of Oregon, where Mrs. Bryant was affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega.

Tucker Summer Lodge Scene of Entertainment. The attractive Nion Tucker summer lodge on Rogue river, "Rogue's Root," has been the scene of much entertainment during the past week, with six young guests from Burlington enjoying a vacation there. The party consisted of a group of boys from the country school at Burlington, who were brought to Rogue's Root by Mr. Taylor, principal of the school.

The group, who will leave tonight for their homes in the south, besides Mr. Taylor, is made up of Master Buddy Tucker, Parker Toms, Bob Miller, Barnaby Conrad, Michael Tobin and Peter Thierot. The latter two are nephews of Mrs. Nion Tucker. Besides Mrs. Tucker, her daughter, Miss Nan Tucker, is now staying at the lodge, and plans next week to have a group of guests. Mr. Tucker is expected to arrive Saturday.

Rotarians Entertained At Town Club Dinner Dance. Members of Medford Rotary club and their wives enjoyed a dinner dance last night at the Town club, about 75 being present. After dinner cards were in play and an enjoyable evening spent in form of a ladies' night party.

Degree of Honor Will Meet Tonight. Regular monthly business meeting of Degree of Honor Protective association will convene tonight in the Eagles hall at 8 o'clock, according to an announcement released today. It is urged that all members attend.

Business and Professional Women Entertained Wednesday. Miss Lottie Watkins and Miss Edna Mae White entertained members of the Business and Professional Women's club at the latter's home at Crystal Springs Orchard yesterday. It was the last meeting of the year.

Glensier Class Gives Entertainment for Group. Glensier class of the First Baptist church entertained the Cradle Roll and their mothers Tuesday afternoon. They were greeted at the door by Margaret Culy and Maxine Stinson, who gave the Glensiers and mothers badges to help them get acquainted. The following program, in charge of Mrs. J. L. Ely, was given in the church parlors: Song; devotional, Mrs. R. L. Hague; prayer; Tribute to Mothers, Mrs. M. L. Daily; duet, Mrs. Ely and Mrs. Neff; piano solo, Mrs. W. H. Eaton; reading, Kathryn Mead; vocal solo, Betty Jean Myers; song; closing prayer.

During the program the older children were entertained in the beginning room of the primary department. After a social hour, refreshments were served in the recreation hall by Mrs. R. L. Hague and Mrs. Remington.

Mrs. Young Attends State P. E. O. Convention. Mrs. Lois Young returned Saturday afternoon from the state convention of P. E. O. in Salem where she had a place for the third successive year on the program in song and reading. She also assisted in leading the convention singing. Sessions were held in the chapel of Walter Hall on the Willamette campus.

The standard yard originally varied with the girth of succeeding chieftains. Later it was fixed as the distance from the point of Henry's nose to the end of his thumb.

DR. SWEENEY TO MEDICAL MEETS

Dr. Charles T. Sweeney leaves today to attend three medical meetings in the northwest within the next month, one of which will bring his installation as president of the Pacific Northwest Medical Association. The itinerary calls for attendance at the National Association for the study of gonorrhea, at Salt Lake City, June 24 and 25; Pacific Northwest Medical association meet at Spokane, June 27-29; and Montana State Medical association meeting at Helena, Mont., July 2 and 3.

Dr. Sweeney will be installed as president-elect, on the final day of the Spokane meeting. He will preside over the 1935 sessions of the Pacific Northwest Medical association meeting which will probably be held in Portland.

At the Helena meeting, Dr. Sweeney will be a guest of the session. He is a former resident and physician of Montana.

Following the round of medical meetings, Dr. Sweeney, with his wife and daughter and nurse, will visit old scenes and friends in Montana, and spend a vacation in Glacier National park.

HIGH COMPLAINT AWAITS DECISION

No decision has been reached by the district attorney relative to the dismissal of the fraud complaint, filed the first of the week by Frank Haab, against George A. High, Ashland resident, under a four year sentence in state prison on conviction of burning the Balfour Guthrie barn in January 1933, to collect insurance. Haab, in a telegram to the district attorney sought to withdraw his complaint, which involved alleged transfer of mortgaged property.

Robert N. (Babe) High, convicted of the same crime, and under the same state sentence, is detained in the county jail, since his bondsman withdrew.

The High brothers have been at liberty on bonds pending an appeal to the state supreme court. Final date for filing the appeal is July 1, the court denying this week the motion of High counsel, for a continuance till September 1.

REPAIR, ENLARGE JACKSON CO. FARM

Repairs to the county poor farm near Talent with SERRA labor have been started by the county court, to provide more space for care of the indigent sick, provide women's quarters, remove fire hazards, and improve sanitation. The cost to the county will approximate $2000. The improvements are expected to reduce hospitalization costs, now one of the major items of county relief expenditures.

Room for 12 more patients will be provided by the change, also space for women patients. Excavations will be made to enlarge the basement.

County Judge Earl B. Day said the improvements were decided upon after an inspection of upstate poor farms by the county court.

Poor Inheritance. LIMA, O. (UP)—The expenses in coming here to claim his share in a $500 estate cost more than Samuel

C. McMillen, Toledo, received in the division. McMillen was an heir under the will of a cousin, Walter Rydman, together with approximately 30 others. McMillen received 80 cents.

Cat Likes Holidays. PORTLAND, Me. (UP)—Peggy Ann, 10-year-old mottled-colored cat, is strictly a holiday mother. Her last four litters of kittens have been born on holidays. Last year, the kittens were born to Peggy Ann on Patriot's day, Fourth of July and Labor day. Her latest litter came St. Patrick's day and now her family totals 108.
