

LEADERS DECIDE ON MODIFIED "BLUE EAGLE"

A decision to work for a codeless "skeleton organization" as a substitute for the NRA was reached at a White House conference by President Roosevelt and party leaders. Some of the conferees leaving the White House were (left to right) Senator Harrison, Solicitor General Reed, Chairman O'Connor of the house rules committee, Speaker Byrns and Chairman Doughton of the house ways and means committee. (Associated Press Photo)

IT'S JUST AN OLD ARIZONA COED CUSTOM

A traditional ceremony at the University of Arizona is the ducking of graduating coeds by the underclass women. Here's one of the girls going into the fish pond during the annual splash. (Associated Press Photo)

DOG'S LOVE WINS FREEDOM

The devotion of "Hobo," mongrel pet of Joe Abruzzo, won the release of Abruzzo from the San Francisco jail where he was being held for trial on an attempted robbery charge. The dog trailed his master to the jail and kept vigil outside his cell. "Hobo" is shown trying to get into Abruzzo's cell before his release pending trial. (Associated Press Photo)

WITNESS IN MOTHER'S TRIAL

Mrs. Gladys Carter, her husband, Archie Carter, and their eight-year-old daughter, Virginia, in a Los Angeles courtroom at the trial of Mrs. Carter on a charge of murdering Miss Frances Walker. Virginia, investigators said, was the only witness to the shooting and will be asked to testify against her mother. (Associated Press Photo)

ONE KILLED, 32 HURT IN YAKIMA

When a cornice of a two story building in Yakima, Wash., collapsed one person was killed and 32 injured. Several of the injured fell from the roof or top of others watching a parade. The wreckage which tumbled to the street is shown. (Associated Press Photo)

WORKER KEPT SAFE WITH ROPES

With the crest of the Kaw river flood sweeping toward Kansas City, workers strove to keep debris away from bridge supports. One of the workmen is shown at his task with ropes attached for rescuing if he should slip into the river. (Associated Press Photo)

SEATTLE HAS ANOTHER DERBY

As in its recent Spavin derby, Seattle's "Put-out-the-cat Derby" had "no sense," according to Mayor Charles Smith, but Dr. O. D. Jones won the honors by running 50 yards in 1 minute, 3 seconds, with a lit candle. Here is part of the field. (Associated Press Photo)

WHERE GIRL'S BODY WAS FOUND

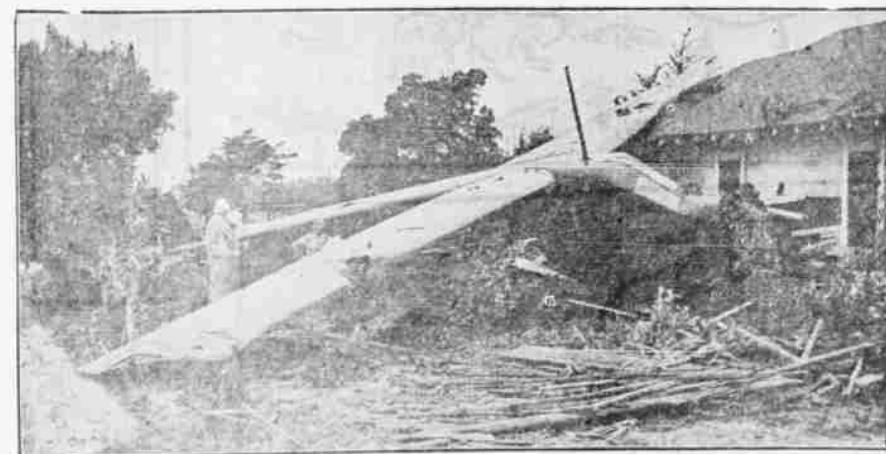

Underneath a ton of dirt in this ditch 250 yards from her Long Island, N. Y., home lay the body of Lirley Evans, 8, who was found after a day's search. Authorities attempted to determine if the death was accidental or the aftermath of a kidnapping. No marks of violence were found on her body. (Associated Press Photo)

SCREEN PLAYER AT HAVANA RACES

Elaine Barrie (right), constant companion of John Barrymore, screen actor, was with him again in Havana, Cuba, as they watched the races at Oriental park. (Associated Press Photo)

FOUR ESCAPE AS PLANE CRASHES INTO HOUSE

Three passengers and the pilot walked away uninjured from this wreckage when the tri-motored plane was forced down at Costa Mesa, Calif., with motor trouble. The plane left a badly damaged house and an unroofed garage in its wake. (Associated Press Photo)

AMPHIBIAN FOR HAWAIIAN SERVICE TESTED

The S-43, new Sikorsky amphibian, speeding along the surface of the Housatonic river at Stratford Point, Conn., during her first test flight. The ship, with a speed of 200 miles an hour, is said to be the fastest amphibian and is destined for service in Hawaii. (Associated Press Photo)

Presbyterian Head Sixty Years After

Dr. Joseph A. Vance (above), De Witt pastor, was elected moderator of the Presbyterian church in the United States by commission at the 147th general assembly in Cincinnati. (Associated Press Photo)

Mrs. Lillian G. Gist, 80-year-old great-grandmother, will receive a master of arts degree from Claremont college in Los Angeles June 8. She received her bachelor's degree 60 years ago. (Associated Press Photo)

HIS BILL TURNED DOWN BY FDR

Representative Patman (left) Democrat from Texas, chatting with a colleague in the house just a few minutes before President Roosevelt appeared before a joint session of the congress to read his veto message of Patman's two billion dollar cash bonus bill. (Associated Press Photo)