Lovely Shower In Honor of Lucille Lowry, Betrothed

One of the loveliest events of the week was the shower Friday evening honoring Miss Lucille Lowry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burt B. Lowry, whose marriage to William Miller will be an event of June 26. The shower was given by Mrs. J. E. Edmiston and Mrs. James Carr Halver, at their home.

The honoree was presented with many beautiful gifts that had been arranged on a prettily appointed table under a parasol of ribbons. After the gifts were received, squares of ice cream bearing decorations in form of dainty bridal bouquets, were the refreshments served.

Miss Margaret Warner received first prize and Miss Barbara Houk second at the four tables of contract bridge that were in play during the evening. Guests were Misses Warner, Gertrude Boyle, Dorothy Paley, Susette Stennett, Hazel Moffet, Adra Edwards, Barbara Wall, Helen Edmiston, Dorothy Head, Carol Dodge, Margaret Boyle, Janet Ray Smith and the honor guest, and Mesdames Lowry, Emil Mohr and Gordon Warner.

Miss Viola Clever leaves for vacation. Miss Viola Clever left Medford last night on the Shasta en route to San Francisco, Cal., where she will spend a month visiting her uncle, Iver Clever, and family. The trip will be particularly exciting for Miss Clever because it will be the first time she has ever traveled by train.

- (b) Sonata—No. 4 — Haendel
- Adagio
- Allegro
- Larghetto
- Allegro
- II.
- Sonata—in G, Op. 78 — Brahms
- Vivace ma non troppo
- Adagio
- Allegro molto moderato
- III.
- Sonata—Op. 13 — Grieg
- Lento doloroso
- Allegro vivace
- Allegretto tranquillo
- Allegro animato
- IV.
- Concerto—D. Min. Op. 22, Wieniawski
- Allegro moderato
- Romance (Andante)
- Allegro moderato alla Zingara (Gypsy)

Dorothy Gore And Marcia Van Dyke In Portland Recital

Dorothy Gore of this city and Marcia Van Dyke of Grants Pass, talented pupils of John R. Knight, appeared in violin recital at Portland on June 14, at the invitation of John Knight's former teacher, Frank Eichenlaub, prominent violinist and instructor.

The recital, attended by a large audience of widely-known interested musicians who expressed delight at the work of the two Southern Oregon pupils.

Miss Gore and Beatrice Hadden Eichenlaub in Eastmoreland, Beatrice Eichenlaub, who studied five years in Europe with Xavier Scharwenka, was the accompanist.

The invitation resulted from the close friendship that Frank Eichenlaub has continued with Mr. Knight following the former's return from abroad, where he was a pupil for many years of music and Serick.

Miss Gore and Miss Van Dyke were selected for the opportunity of playing before the Portland audience through their exceptional talent, which has gained for each a large group of admirers among music lovers of Medford and Grants Pass. Both have appeared in recital in Medford many times before large audiences.

Besides the recital at the Eichenlaub residence, they played informally at the studios of Alicia McElroy, Portland piano instructor. The program at the Eichenlaub studio was:

- Concerto No. 7 (1st movement) — De Beriot
- Miss Van Dyke
- Concerto in E Minor (1st movement) — Mendelssohn
- Miss Gore
- Allegro — Plocco
- Canonetta — d'Ambrosio
- Lebestreu — Kreisler
- From the Canebrake — Gardner
- Miss Van Dyke
- Prayer for "Te Deum" — Handel-Flesch
- Sierra-Morena — de Monasterio
- Miss Gore
- Beatrice Eichenlaub at the Piano

Willett Students In Miscellaneous Recital On July 1

What will prove a most enjoyable musical event is the miscellaneous concert to be put on by five of the most advanced piano students studying under Rosa Blackmore Willett at the Baldwin Piano Shoppe, Monday evening, July 1, at 8:15.

The pianists will be assisted by the talented young violinist, Marcia Van Dyke, pupil of John R. Knight, and Fritz Guetzlaff, baritone, studying vocal with James Stevens.

The piano students are all well known in southern Oregon, having played in Medford, Grants Pass and at the Normal school in Ashland.

Kathleen Bratton will make her farewell appearance in this concert before leaving for San Francisco. Fritz Guetzlaff will also play a fine group as well as sing.

Norma Nell, a very young girl, is holding a high position in Mrs. Willett's brilliant class and Jim Linn, Jr., is showing very fine progress. Mrs. Lydia Guetzlaff is always interesting and in a brilliant group will demonstrate her versatility. The full program will be announced later. A cordial invitation is extended to the music loving public.

There will be no admission charges.
