SHOTGUN EXPERTS WILL EAT SALMON

The regular weekly shoot at the Medford Gun club is being postponed today to give the club members a chance to attend the big annual salmon bake sponsored by Douglas county sportsmen at Roseburg this afternoon. The salmon bake has become so important an affair in state sporting circles that enthusiasts from all over the state are registered.

In conjunction with the bake each year a trap shoot is held, as well as a rifle shoot. This year the date of the bake fell upon June 15, the closing day of the state trap shoot being held here, so the Roseburg men postponed their affair so that sportsmen could attend both.

Several carloads of Medford people are planning on making the trip. The public is invited.

Musical Review at Craterian Today

Departing from the ordinary, "In Galena" which has a musical story for a background and Dolores Del Rio as its star, opens a three-day run at the Craterian theatre today. Filmed at Mexico's famous playground, the picture does not depend on its musical merits to carry the show but has hilarious comedy situations to entertain the story.

Miss Del Rio is seen as a famous dancer with whom Pat O'Brien, a sophisticated magazine editor, whose main aim in life seems to be getting into scrapes while under the influence of liquor, falls in love. All

Roxy Stars

Warner Baxter and Janet Gaynor are starred at the Roxy theatre for today and Monday in "One More Spring."

It is a dramatic modern story, of high adventure and gallant courage, adapted from the widely acclaimed novel of Robert Nathan which proved a best-seller.

Others in the cast include Walter King, Jane Darwell and Stepin Fetchit.

More CCC Camps
VANCOUVER, Wash., June 22.—(AP)—Lieut. Irvin Alexander, adjutant in charge of building operations of the CCC in this district, announced today that work on 26 new camps in the Vancouver area was being started immediately. Nearly 30 camps already are in operation in this sector.

It will until a blonde menace (Glenda Farrell) discovers her real ticket is about to fly from her clutches and starts raising a rumpus in an effort to win back the affections of the editor. The resulting action, interspersed with dance spectacles staged by Busby Berkeley, is said to make the film full of delightful entertainment.

Edward Everett Horton as O'Brien's employer, Phil Regan, Wini Shaw and Leo Carrillo are a few of the many featured players in the supporting cast.

Rialto Offers Musical Romance

"One Night of Love," starring Grace Moore in what is undoubtedly the finest musical romance ever brought to the screen, comes back to Medford today for an exclusive return showing at the Rialto theatre starting today.

One of the few pictures to receive praise from critics everywhere it has played, winner of the Motion Picture Academy Award for meritorious achievement, "One Night of Love" successfully combines romance, comedy and drama with singing such as is seldom heard anywhere but on a concert stage.
