Leslie-Lennox Wedding Event At Valley View

VALLEY VIEW, June 22.—(Spl.)—The J. R. Leslie home was the scene of a lovely wedding last Sunday at 4:30 when their daughter, Dorothy, became the bride of Keith Lennox. The wedding took place in the yard under an archway covered with honeysuckle and spring blooms.

Before the wedding Harold Fish sang "Burdock"; Marilyn Young sang "I Love You Truly"; then they sang a duet, the Bridal Song. Miss Carol Clark played the wedding march when the little flower girl, Jacqueline Nelson sang. The bride was lovely in a floor-length silk organdie dress over satin. Her wedding veil was held in place by orange blossoms.

She was the sixth bride to wear the veil. It was made especially for Dr. and Mrs. Sidney J. Gullich's very fine handmade battenberg lace on net. The bride carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Miss Jean McKee, aunt of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore pink satin and her bouquet was sweet peas and snapdragons. Miss Alice Johnson, of the other bridesmaid, wore pale blue organdie and carried a pastel colored bouquet of sweet peas and snapdragons.

Others were Jack Leslie, Robert Nelson, Vernon Clark and Merle Quinter. A reception was held after the wedding, refreshments being served from a prettily decorated table on the lawn. For her going away gown the bride wore a dark blue suit with white accessories.

Guests from away were Mr. and Mrs. Fish and Harold Fish, of Gold Hill; Miss Alice Johnson, of Hornbrook; Mrs. Kenneth Lansing and daughter, Peggy, of Portland, sister of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. L. Stewart and Miss Sarah Lennox, of Marysville, Cal.; aunts of the bridegroom; Mrs. C. C. McKee, Miss Jean McKee and Charles McKee, grandnephew, aunt and uncle of the bride, from San Diego, Cal.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Lennox will be at home to their friends in Ashland. These fine young people have been reared in this community, both graduates from Ashland high school. Mr. Lennox also was graduated from the Adcock Diesel engineering school in Portland. Best wishes of their friends are extended to them.

Mrs. F. W. Watt Will Be Hostess to P. E. O. Chapter. A special meeting of Chapter AA of P. E. O. will be held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. F. W. Watt, 320 Vancouver, at eight o'clock, for the purpose of hearings reports of the state convention held last week at Salem.

Mrs. T. W. Miles and Miss Katherine Stewart represented Chapter AA as delegates at the convention; Mrs. Lois Young of Chapter AA was assistant song leader of the convention and gave several musical and reading numbers on the program, while Mrs. E. A. Moore of the local chapter was re-elected treasurer of the state chapter. The convention will be held at Ashland next year.

Outstanding event of the recent convention was an address by Dr. Florence Boehmer, president of Cotter college, a junior college for women, owned and operated by the P. E. O. Sisterhood. The Sisterhood also administers a large educational loan fund, for loaning to young women.

Election results were: President, Delma Jean Jones of Grants Pass; 3rd vice-president, Ruby Slinger of Grants Pass; 4th vice-president, Ronald Jones of Ashland; secretary, Janice Trill of Medford; treasurer, James Welch of Grants Pass; first and second vice presidents of the district cabinet are in the sub-district and will hold the same offices on the sub-district cabinet. They are respectively, Joyce Banish and Marvin Burk.
