

ROUGHHOUSE TAR GRAPPLES WOLFE ON COMING CARD

If Lee Wolfe, wiry grappler from Texas, can put on one of the best matches of the year against a clean wrestler, as was the case last week at the armory when he defeated Joe Hubka, he should be able to furnish plenty of fireworks when pitted against Sailor Franz, former champion wrestler of the navy and one of the roughest, meanest individuals in the game. Promoter Mack Lillard announced today that Wolfe will tangle with the sailor man in the main event of this week's card at the Armory.

What science can do against roughness will be the question that Wolfe and Franz will thrust out, and there should be action galore in the thrashing. Last time Franz was seen here he gave Bobby Meyers so much maltreatment that the latter was forced to cancel all matches for several weeks to recuperate from a badly battered ear.

Al Stecher, clever Canadian grappler, and former middleweight champion of Canada, will tangle in the 45-minute semi-final with Herman Olson, Swedish entrant in the recent international mat tournament at Los Angeles.

Stecher impressed fans favorably here last week when he appeared for the first time, defeating Babe Smolinski in a five-round, five-minute fight. The veteran Canadian, who claims 15 years of experience in the professional ring, has mastered many scientific holds, but is also not afraid to employ unorthodox matwork when necessary, as will probably be the case in his tussle with the aggressive Swede.

Johnny Ross, Indiana grappler, is scheduled to meet Babe Smolinski in the 30-minute opener. This is another bout with potential explosives.

The main event was arranged after considerable work on the part of the promoter, as Franz had been expelled from the local arena following his rough match with Meyers. The Belcastro was unavailable as an opponent for Wolfe, as the Italian was contracted in Portland and the promoter said that Hubka did not want to meet the supple southerner in a finish match.

LOCAL GOLFERS DEFEAT G. PASS

Golfers of Rogue Valley club played host yesterday to 27 machine players from Grants Pass in an inter-city tournament that ended with the score standing Medford, 51, Grants Pass 30 points. It was a friendly tournament, held primarily to promote a friendly relationship between the two clubs, but was the second in a row that came out in favor of the local players.

Luncheon was served at the club house with Jimmy Valentine doing the honors, and was a big factor in what the Grants Pass players termed an enjoyable day. A nine-ball eighteenth hole during the afternoon with every pair for itself was one of the features.

Scotty Fourstone tournaments have been discontinued until fall. Pro Houston announced today, the one for the month of June having ended with Mrs. F. G. Bunch and Bud Stinson in possession of the trophy donated by E. Raymond Driver.

TINY TENNIS STAR WINS THIRD TITLE

CHICAGO, June 24.—(AP)—That mighty little man from Atlanta, Ga., Bryan (Bitty) Grant, today had achieved his third national clay courts singles tennis championship—a record surpassed only by big Bill Tilden himself.

The featherweight Georgian conquered young Frankie Parker of Milwaukee, for the second consecutive year, in yesterday's final to take permanent possession of the title trophy. Grant had to come from behind twice yesterday in downing the clever Milwaukeean, 4-6, 3-6, 6-3, 6-0, but finished with the most decisive display of tennis in the history of the tournament.

Tough Tar to Meet Wolfe

Last time Sailor Franz, the tattooed terror (above) appeared here he put his wrestling opponent on the shelf for several months via unorthodox grappling, but he will have science and speed to contend with when he meets Lee Wolfe, sly Texan, in the main event of next Thursday's card at the Armory.

PITTS PERFORMS WELL IN BASEBALL DEBUT IS CRITICS' DECLARATION

ALBANY, N. Y., June 24.—(AP)—Seasoned baseball critics today predicted a bright future for Alabama Pitts in the sport he played behind the home plate.

The opinion was almost unanimous that the smiling southerner, performing like a veteran both at bat and in centerfield, demonstrated "no uncertain terms yesterday in his organized baseball debut that he has the makings of a first class minor, if not major league, player."

Appearing in the lineup of the Albany International league club for the first time since he was ruled eligible, Alabama in a doubleheader with Syracuse banged out two singles in eight times at bat, drove in a run, scored another himself and accounted for five putouts. The team, however, lost both games, 8 to 6, and 3 to 2.

"He played marvellous ball," said General Manager Johnny Evers, who with Warden Lewis E. Lawes was responsible for giving the broad-shouldered Pitts a chance in the sport.

"With a little more training, and polishing up here and there, I firmly believe the boy will go to the top."

COOPER CAPTURES OPEN AT MEDINAH

ROCKFORD, Ill., June 24.—(AP)—In possession of his first major triumph of the season—the Medinah Country Club open championship—"Lightning" Harry Cooper of Chicago today started defense of his Illinois state open title over the Rockford Country Club's par 71 course.

After a brilliant victory yesterday at Madinah where he posted a 72-hole total of 280 to beat out Johnny Revolta of Milwaukee in the first annual Medinah Country club $3,500 men, Cooper checked in today certain that he was finally "on" in his game after having faltered in his attempts to win the national and western open crowns.

The Chicago pro came from behind in yesterday's final 36 holes to pass Revolta, the early leader, with a pair of 72's. Cooper posted successive rounds of 73-73-72 for his winning total.

TRAPSHOOT PICTURES RECEIVE DBY COPCO

Moving pictures of the championship Oregon State Trap shoot held here last week-end were received here Friday and will be soon be available for showing by the Copco news-reel. The pictures, which were taken by Horace Bromley, publicity director of the California Oregon Power company cover the outstanding events of the four-day meet including the finals on Sunday. Close-ups of Ted Renfro world's champion live-bird titleholder and his $1350 gun, Frank Toeb, winner of the all-around championship and Sid Newson, local crack-shot who won the Oregon handicap championship as well as other prize-winners are included in the film. Some interesting footage of the local and visiting trappers in action was recorded by the Copco camera in addition to numerous shots of the colorful crowds in attendance at the record-breaking meet.

ROGUES HUMBLIED 20-3 AS LITHIANS BLAST PITCHERS

The short left-field fence at Ashland again proved the nemesis of the Medford Rogues yesterday, when Swanson, playing for the Lithians whinnied one over the fence in the first with the bases full, to give Ashland a 6-1 lead before the inning was over, the Lithians going on from that vantage point to dynamite out a 20-3 win, knocking three Rogue pitchers out of the box in the process.

Pritchett was removed from the mound early in the game, in an effort to hal the avalanche of hits, and Manager Hoffard took over the duties, with no better luck. Arnie was later called in from second base, and did little better.

Hoffard announced today that he will ask the league president, A. C. Nintner, to suspend both Calvert, Medford catcher and outfielder, and "Chief" McLean, Ashland hurler, for flagrant violation of the league rules. Hoffard will charge that a few minutes before the game was called, McLean offered Calvert $250 to catch for the Ashland club, an offer which Calvert accepted. Rule 1 of the league laws issued by Nintner when Hoffard attempted to get McLean to pitch for Medford early in the season, reads as follows:

"No playing member of any one Southern Oregon League baseball team may voluntarily leave the team he was a member of in the opening Southern Oregon League game, played May 5, 1935, or any future game, to play for any other Southern Oregon League team except in the following exceptions: 1. He have a written outright release, signed by the manager of the team he played with in the first Southern Oregon League game. 2. He take up residence in another Southern Oregon league city, after which he must wait seven (7) days before playing with the new team; residence being construed as meaning his permanent living quarters."

Hoffard stated today that he had not given Calvert a release, and did not intend doing so. He will bench Calvert for an indefinite period for insubordination, he said today.

The Medford club will not ask for a forfeiture of yesterday's game, although they say they are clearly entitled to do so under the penalty rules issued by Nintner, the specific clause being: "See 2. Penalties; to the team he (the offending player) plays with: It will be sufficient grounds for a protest by any Southern Oregon league team, with the ultimate forfeiture of the game to the team's opponent by the score of 9-0."

The Rogues will meet the Grants Pass Merchants at the "climate city" next Sunday.

EGAN ENTERED IN WESTERN CLASSIC

H. Chandler Egan, southern Oregon's internationally famous golf star and a member of the Walker Cup team last year, will be an entrant in the Northwest Amateur which opens at the Seattle golf club today for six days of competition.

"Chan," who left the latter part of the week for Seattle, has appeared in scores of large tournaments, and is still one of the most threatening contenders. As he was in the east at the time, he did not participate in last year's Northwest Amateur.

KLAMATH WINS 11-10, OVER GRANTS PASS

The Klamath Falls Red Sox yesterday eked out a 11-10 win over the Grants Pass Merchants at Klamath Falls. Carstrom twirled for the winners, while Hogan took over the Merchant mound duties. Frankie Eshart, regular Caveman twirler, is injured a few weeks ago, and has been unable to play. He may start against Medford next week, however.

FULL CONFESSION BY HUSBAND MAIN HOPE OF DEFENSE

Attorney John F. Dore's statement that Waley will be sure, oned from McNeil Island to make a full confession exonerating his 19-year old wife pressed the first courtroom battle in the kidnap trial.

Dore, who was appointed to represent Mrs. Waley after she pleaded guilty and was sentenced for the kidnaping, was here today to hear Judge Cushman set Mrs. Waley's trial date.

Confession Concealed
Waley already has confessed to department of justice agents who arrested him and his wife in Salt Lake City for passing part of the $200,000 ransom money, but the "G-men" are determined to conceal his admissions, apparently until after William Dainard, aka Mahan, the third person indicted in the kidnap plot, is caught.

It was forecast today that the defense will oppose the government's efforts to get an immediate trial, on the ground that Mrs. Waley is too nervous following her husband's guilty plea to stand up in court.

Dore said he would have his first interview with her today.

"As an attorney appointed by the court, I cannot and will not accept any fee, directly or indirectly, for my services," Dore said. "This girl is friendly and penniless but she is entitled to the best defense that can be prepared for her, and that is exactly what she will receive."

Fortunate in Judge
"She is fortunate that her case will come before Judge Cushman, who is the greatest master of evidence on the bench today."

Mrs. Waley made three attempts to plead guilty and receive immediate sentence, but was forestalled by Judge Cushman because of her husband's desperate plea that she know nothing about the kidnaping until two days after George was "united," and because of her counsel's contention that she is not guilty to plotting the ease and could not be convicted if sent to trial. She wept when the court procedure prevented her guilty plea.

It was through her spending spree with ransom money that she and Waley were apprehended.
