Several guest clergymen will occupy the pulpit, including Rev. Leonard Brown, son of Walter Fraser Brown, who will take charge of the services August 4.

HUGE ONION CROP LOOMS IN STATE

PORTLAND, June 26.—(AP)—A bumper 1935 crop of onions appears probable for Oregon, especially in the Willamette valley, in the opinion of W. L. Swank, sales representative for the Confederated Onion Growers' association. Little trouble with cutworms was experienced and mildew is now the only danger to the crop. Swank said the total Willamette valley planting of around 1,000 acres under normal conditions would mean at least 1,000 carloads of onions, compared to an estimated 900 carloads last year.

Here Thursday

Already being hailed everywhere as one of the GREAT contributions of the screen, "The Informer," starring Victor McLaglen, comes to the Character theater tomorrow for a three-day engagement. Accounted one of the greatest character studies and most absorbing stories, "The Informer" affords McLaglen what he considers the greatest role of his career. John Piper, drama critic of the Oregonian, goes even further, and expresses his belief that Victor McLaglen's characterization of Gypo Nolan is one of the greatest contributions to screen history. While the drama centers closely about one character, roles of extraordinary power and human qualities are carried by Margaret Graham, Preston Foster, Heather Angel, Wallace Ford, Una O'Connor, J. M. Kerrigan, Donald Meek, and other members of the large supporting cast. Miss Graham, blonde English beauty, makes her American screen debut in the feminine lead opposite McLaglen. Having Dublin, Ireland, as its locale, and the troubled years following the World war as its period, the story centers around the dramatic theme of betrayal. Gypo Nolan, a giant in stature and a pigmy in intellect, "informs" on a pal for a price. His weakness for a beautiful blonde woman motivates the act. With 20 pounds in his pocket, and the worst crime known to his compatriots on his conscience, Gypo becomes relentlessly pursued by fate. Alternately lifted to drunken heights of grandeur delusions, tortured by mad fear, torn by remorse, and harried by superstition, he is carried from one dramatic situation to another. All of the action of the picture takes place in one eventful night, into which is crowded the drama of life and death, love and hate, hope and despair. Comedy relief highlights the stark drama of the story, and a softer romance between Preston Foster and Heather Angel provides contrast to the attraction between McLaglen and Miss Graham.

Sparkling New Star at Rialto

Jessie Matthews, radiant new personality, is starred in "Evergreen" at the Rialto theater today and tomorrow, only, a lavishly mounted musical romance with several new songs, including "Over My Shoulder," and sparkling dance innovations, new and original.

SCOTS CONTINUE RELIGIOUS RIOTS

EDINBURGH, Scotland, June 25.—(AP)—Five more anti-Catholics who participated in disturbances last night in connection with Roman Catholic eucharistic celebrations here, were fined 10 pounds ($50) each today in sheriff's court. Hundreds of mounted policemen patrolled the city's streets after the anti-Catholic demonstrations. The area in which the outbreaks occurred widened, but police succeeded in dispersing a crowd of 15-200 Protestant extremists after 7 1/2 hours of turmoil in which one of the mounted officers was injured. The rioting broke out anew last night when Protestants attempted to break up an organized procession of the blessed sacrament by members of the Catholic community, being held in connection with a eucharistic congress.

KLAMATH AUTOIST SUED FOR $5132

OLYMPIA, June 26.—(AP)—A civil suit for $5,132 damages against R. H. Hovey, Klamath Falls, driver of the auto which killed five-year old Jesse Ann Polachek here Thursday, was filed in Thurston county superior court today by Charles P. Polachek, father of the girl. Polachek charged Hovey with exceeding the speed limit and with negligence. The little girl was crossing the Pacific highway near the Olympia airport, four miles south of Olympia, when she was struck by the car. Her four-year old brother, Phillip, with whom she was walking, is believed to be the only witness to the fatal accident.

ENDURERS' HAPPY AS RECORD NEARS

MERIDIAN, Miss., June 26.—(AP)—Fred and Al Key, tired, sleepy and aching, after almost a month in the air, grew boyishly playful today as only a few hours separated them from a new world's endurance flying record. They must remain aloft until 3:13 1/2 p. m. (E. S. T.) tomorrow to equal the present record of 553 hours, 41 minutes and 30 seconds, set in 1930 by the Hunter brothers at Chicago. Ben Woodruff, chief radio engineer, said that in a flight over the "Ole Miss" he saw Fred sitting astride the exposed motor mount, cleaning the windshield with one hand and holding a cold drink in the other, apparently in gay spirits.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Parton of route 4 are the parents of an eight-pound baby girl, born last night at the Community hospital. Lenley for Father of 13. ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O.—(UP)—Having 13 children, an artificial leg and chronic asthma, John Partey of Barton, O., was released after pleading guilty to violating post-prohibition laws. He was given 90 days in which to pay $100 fine. The court showed leniency because of his unique combination of circumstances.
