

DOUG FAIRBANKS IS AIR VISITOR

"The public is tired of me," was the astonishing admission made Wednesday by Douglas Fairbanks, Sr., who stopped for a few minutes at the Medford airport, enroute from Victoria, B. C., to his home in Hollywood by United Airliner.

The famous portrayer of such dashing screen characters as Don Juan, Robin Hood, D'Artagnan and the Black Pirate hardly looked dashing, as pudgy and slightly bald he admitted that his days of screen dashing are over. Short, he is not at all the type one would pick for such roles, and his low voice gives rise to wonder at the Hollywood ballyhoo which had his stentorian bellows shattering the delicate membranes of the microphone in the early days of the talking picture.

Fairbanks landed at the Canadian port Wednesday morning from Honolulu, and claimed he was happy to be home again after a trip which took him around the world. He spent some time in England, and traveled extensively on the continent and in Africa. He also visited Australia, the Galapagos Islands, the Cook and Marquesa Islands, and other spots in the south sea. While in that part of the world he visited on a real cannibal island.

W. C. T. U. GIVES RECIPE FOR TEA-FRUIT DRINK

POITSTOWN, Pa. (UP)—Women attending the group institute at Kenilworth, near here, were unanimous in their vote that the W. C. T. U. drink is the real thing to quench one's thirst.

The institute was given a practical demonstration and this is the way the drink was made:

Take a dozen lemons, a dozen oranges, jar of cherries, box of strawberries, one small pineapple and three pints of brewed tea.

And add five pounds of sugar. The drink was designed to combat alcoholic beverages and the women who attended drank it with relish.
