"LIE" PASSED IN UTILITY INQUIRY

News Behind The News
By PAUL MALLON
(Copyright, 1935, by Paul Mallon)
WASHINGTON, July 9.—What State Secretary Hull would like to find out is who wrote that note to "Hull" re: the emperors did it himself he is a smarter Ethiopian than anyone thought and worthy of haunting any international woodpile.
Apparently Mr. Hull was stunned at first by the embarrassing appeal to us to enforce the Kellogg pact. As he stalled for time by asking the American charge at Addis Ababa for "a full report."
Impatient and annoyed, he summoned his desk and searched the ceiling of his office for an answer. Eventually he found out before the "full report" came from Addis Ababa. He dashed it off, took it with him to the Friday cabinet meeting, and President Roosevelt signed it immediately.
There is nothing in the story that Mr. Hull was unable to think of any answer at all and that Mr. Roosevelt wrote the response.
The response was that President Roosevelt was gratified that the League of Nations was trying to settle the dispute; that the pact of Paris was important too, and with further "loath to ponder" Italy and Ethiopia would fight about such things.
How much Mr. Hull believed his own words is evidenced by the fact that he immediately slipped the word to his legation at Addis Ababa to get all Americans out of Ethiopia before the war started.
Mr. Hull may have found better answers on his ceiling in the past but at least this one let everyone know he is not going to get mixed up in the Ethiopian mess, even if he never finds a particularly good reason why.
A reorganization of housing agencies is being planned by Mr. Roosevelt to take effect right after Congress adjourns. The big shot in the new scheme will probably be John H. Fawcett, chairman of the home owners' loan corporation.
The crowd at the federal housing administration will be renovated and remodeled. Control probably will be in a co-ordinating committee headed by Mr. Fawcett. Functions will be more clearly defined to eliminate overlapping and prevent confusion.
President Roosevelt is bent on stimulating this phase of the new deal. He rates the job because his H.O.L.C. is the best run of the housing groups. He is a former president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce and a New England insurance man.
The AAA dealers are preparing for a shock. They expect it from the Massachusetts circuit court of appeals in the Hoac Mills case involving the processing tax.
This is the first case to reach the appellate court. The government won in the lower court, but the three appellate judges have delayed a decision until April 23, when arguments were closed. This delay, coupled with some other aspects of the case, has led government attorneys to mope among

BREWSTER RILED BY TESTIMONY OF R.F.C. ATTORNEY

First Session of House Investigating Committee Ends in Disorder — Cost of Bill Hit by Broker
WASHINGTON, July 9.—(AP)—The first session of the house rules committee's investigation of lobbying for and against the utilities bill ended in disorder today after Representative Brewster (R., Maine) shouted "You're a liar" at Thomas Corcoran, R.F.C. attorney, who was on the stand.
Corcoran had just testified that Brewster asked him if he thought it would be all right "if I just ducked back to the hotel and not vote" on the provision for abolishing "unnecessary" holding companies.
Earlier, Brewster told the committee that Corcoran had threatened to stop construction of the Passamaquoddy, Maine, tide-harvesting project unless the representative voted with President Roosevelt on the utilities. Corcoran said that assertion was "baseless."
Cost Seen High
Meanwhile, a declaration that the burden of administration of the utility bill as it passed the house would be "simply staggering" was made in a letter from Chairman Joseph P. Kennedy of the securities and exchange commission read to the senate.
It was offered during debate on whether to agree with the house action in eliminating the provision desired by President Roosevelt for mandatory elimination of holding companies. The Kennedy "letter" was read by

MUSSOLINI PLANS RAILROAD IN MOVE UPON ETHIOPIANS

Military Program to Start As Soon As Men and Supplies Ready—French Approval Taken for Granted
By HAROLD P. BRAMAN
(Associated Press Foreign Staff)
LONDON, July 9.—(AP)—An authoritative premier diplomatic source said today Mussolini's plans for the invasion of Ethiopia included the construction of a railroad and highway linking Italian Somaliland and Italian East Africa as the first major step in the Italian action.
The source's official was saying the Italian government would be started as soon as sufficient men and supplies arrive in the Italian colonies.
The military program calls for troops accompanying the construction and taking over the control areas as the railway and highway links proceed.
This program would indicate the intention to carve a big new Italian colony out of the Ethiopian territory bordering on French and British Somaliland. The transportation links would go around both but would, at the same time, bring the new Italian territory tight up against the French and British Somaliland borders.
The authority quoted gave the impression that all Italians seem to feel they have full approval of the French in this undertaking, which would include crossing over the railroad from Djibouti to Addis Ababa in some manner.
PLAN TO DEFEAT CANCER RACKET URGED BY MEDIC
NEW YORK, July 9.—(AP)—Existence of a "great American cancer racket" is reported by Albert Solland, M. D. of Los Angeles, to the Pan American Medical Association.
"Institutions governed by profit seeking," he says, "and which mercenary individuals are advertising throughout the land cures for cancer by methods which belong to the Dark Ages."
"There are in use fearsome caustic pastes and other devilish contraptions, with which to destroy warts, moles, and other surface growths of more or less serious nature, and even advanced cancer of the breast."
"These efforts produce of course a painful destruction of a great many perfectly innocent lesions, but usually fall in a cure of real malignant lesions."
As a plan to beat the "cancer racket" Dr. Solland proposes a central bureau of cancer study and research, with branches widely distributed, and restriction of treatment to persons qualified by specified authorities.
PORTLAND, Ore., July 9.—(AP)—Delegates were said to be in agreement today that the Rev. Andrew Carrick, for 26 years pastor of Tuamatin Plains Presbyterian church near Hillsboro, is to be elected tonight as moderator of the Oregon Presbyterian synod.
The session will continue through Friday afternoon. Ministers and elders from about 130 churches in the state will attend, as will a large group of denominational leaders.
Among important items on the business program is the suggestion to combine the Pendleton and Grande Ronde presbyteries in eastern Oregon into one presbytery. The synod now has five presbyteries—Portland, Willamette, Southwest Oregon, Pendleton and Grande Ronde. Such a move probably would approximate transfer of some central Oregon churches into the Willamette presbytery.

Long's blast against the chief executive came during a discussion of old age pensions and was followed by sharp attacks at Mr. Roosevelt on his tax-the-rich and relief programs.

Parole Practice National Scandal Says F. B. I. Head

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 9.—(AP)—J. Edgar Hoover, director of the federal bureau of investigation said today that parole practice in America "approaches a national scandal."
Speaking before the International Association of Chiefs of Police, Hoover called the millions of dollars spent for crime detection "a mockery" because of "easy paroles."
"It seems impossible that in an enlightened nation, brave officers should be asked to face desperate criminals, to endure danger, injury, and even loss of life that those criminals be captured only to see them turned loose to again resume their predatory careers."

SISTER OF BRUND CLAIMS COUNSEL NEGLECTED CASE

Reveals Basis on Which Will Seek Review of Accused Kidnapers Case — New Evidence Is Claimed
By THEON WRIGHT
(Copyright, 1935, by United Press)
LOS ANGELES, July 9.—(UP)—Evidence in the Lindbergh kidnap case which "would have saved Bruno Richard Hauptmann from conviction" was blocked in court due to "neglect and failure of his lawyers," Mrs. Emma Gloeckner, Hauptmann's sister, told the United Press today.
Carrying on a long distance fight to save her brother, to which he is the electric chair, from death he found much to grieve about since her arrest was a stolid and glibless speaker as the first witnesses were examined in her Tacoma trial today.
She has retained Vincent A. Marco, Hollywood attorney, to present "new evidence" which she claims will save her brother from the chair.
"There must be some law," she said, "that says before a man dies, all the facts must be known."
Her charges in brief are:
That evidence proving Hauptmann was not in Hopewell, N. J., the night of the kidnaping, and evidence indicating the body found on Sourland mountain was not the body of the Lindbergh child, was known to Bruno's lawyers.
That this evidence, although agreed

Giggles Subside

Mrs. Margaret Thulin Waley, 19, plump wife of the confessed kidnaper of George Weyerhaeuser, who has found much to grieve about since her arrest was a stolid and glibless speaker as the first witnesses were examined in her Tacoma trial today.
Defense counsel, John F. Dore, Seattle, cross examined none of the witnesses whose testimony marked the government's preliminary steps to prove that Mrs. Waley was not an innocent party to the kidnaping, but an active conspirator with her husband Harmon Waley and William Thainard, alias Mahan, a fugitive. Throughout the opening address to the jury by Assistant District Attorney Gordon P. Hughes and the testimony of the witnesses, Mrs. Waley, plump but pallid, no longer giggling, sat stolidly twisting a handkerchief and her wedding ring.
She wore the same blue jumper dress, with white underbo, figured with blue and red dots. Her wavy bobbed hair, badly needing a trim, straggled over her face.
She scarcely glanced at the jury or at the attorneys. Most of the time her eyes were downcast and she studied the carpet.
Mrs. Waley was kept in the marshal's office during the noon recess, and was fed in the barred office "cage" instead of being taken back to the city jail.
TANKER CATCHES FIRE FOLLOWING COLLISION
NEW YORK, July 9.—(AP)—The oil tanker J. A. Martin caught fire in New York bay today after it was in collision with the tugboat Scenicmoak.
The collision occurred at the Esplanade, both owned by the Esplanade Oil Company, were attempting to pass through the New Jersey Central railroad drawbridge connecting Bayonne and Elizabeth, N. J.
Captain August Wiant of the tanker and two other members of the crew, Engineer Lewis and Seaman Peter Pearson, escaped into the water and swam to the drawbridge as the vessel caught fire.

MOSCOW Subway Diggers Find Torture Chamber
By JOHN LLOYD

MOSCOW, July 9.—(AP)—Moscow's subway excavators announced today they had discovered the underground chamber where Ivan the Terrible was said to have tortured his victims nearly four centuries ago.
Definite proof was declared to have been obtained that a chamber and passage found beneath the center of the city bear the spot where the Lenin library is under construction was Ivan's dreaded "Henchmen's court."
There, according to the stories told in Russia, Ivan had his victims torn to pieces by bears and, sometimes, hurled alive.

WEYERHAEUSER IS AMONG FIRST FIVE CALLED TO STAND

Accused Woman, Plump and Pallid, Is Stolid Observer—No Cross-Examination of Govt. Witnesses
FEDERAL COURTROOM, Tacoma, Wash., July 9.—(AP)—Five government witnesses, including the father of George Weyerhaeuser, testified in rapid succession today in the first two hours of the trial of Mrs. Margaret Thulin Waley, 19, charged under the Lindbergh law with kidnaping the nine-year-old Tacoma boy May 24.
Defense counsel, John F. Dore, Seattle, cross examined none of the witnesses whose testimony marked the government's preliminary steps to prove that Mrs. Waley was not an innocent party to the kidnaping, but an active conspirator with her husband Harmon Waley and William Thainard, alias Mahan, a fugitive. BATTLESHIP OREGON COMMISSION ACCUSED OF EXCEEDING BUDGET

SALEM, July 9.—(AP)—In a letter today to Mrs. Cora A. Thompson, secretary of the battleship Oregon commission, Governor Martin set July 13 as the date for the hearing on charges by Budget Director D. O. Hood that the commission was expending approximately $250,000 more than authorized for 1935.
Hood charged that the added expenditure was a "flagrant attempt" at cheating and "wholly unjustified" and that the commission had attempted to take advantage of a possible loophole in the appropriation act for the 1935-36 biennium, in order to spend more money than appropriated.
Hood enclosed a statement showing the commission had expended $64,045.90 up to June 1 of this year and had estimated proposed expenditures for the remainder of 1935 at $5,886.83, bringing the estimated total for the year to $69,932.73. This figure exceeded the legislative appropriation of $7,500 annually by $2,432.73.
The budget director declared that from his observations two caretakers were sufficient on the ship and that now five men were employed. He stated that from the few people visiting the ship, a plain absence of public interest in "this museum relic" was indicated.
ROOSEVELT CALLS FOR LEGISLATION ON FAP
WASHINGTON, July 9.—(AP)—President Roosevelt invited House Democratic leaders to the White House tonight for a discussion of the legislative program looking toward adjournment of congress.
Roosevelt Liar, Faker, Shouts Huey in Tirade
NEW ORLEANS, July 9.—(AP)—A frenzied blast against the new deal administration by Senator Huey P. Long was centered today on his accusation that President Roosevelt is a "liar and a faker."
Riding the crest of another surge of legislation which gives him unprecedented control over the state of Louisiana, Long assailed the President last night with a personal denunciation transmitted in his previous attacks on the administration.
His accusation came during a radio speech in which he launched the recently enacted old age pension bill. "Let me tell you about this Roosevelt pension plan," the senator said. "Under it there are 280,000 persons in Louisiana who would qualify, and Louisiana would get about $1,000,000, which would mean that the state old age pensioners would get about

CLOUDBURSTS ADD TO DEVASTATION EAST'S SEABOARD

By the Associated Press
As the state of New York rushed relief to upstate areas devastated by floods, cloudbursts elsewhere down the Atlantic seaboard increased the menace from high waters.
In New York state, with the death toll at 37, eight persons were still missing. Property damage was estimated at ten million dollars.
Although the heavy rains continued the Susquehanna river was receding. But down the Chesapeake, tributaries of the river were running over their banks. Cloudbursts in northeast Maryland washed out a section of the Pennsylvania railroad tracks near Havre de Grace, delaying traffic more than an hour. A highway bridge was carried away and more than 300 houses were flooded.
The high waters spread into north-east Philadelphia when Frankford creek swept over its banks.
Elsewhere over the world, storm and water brought havoc.
In far-off China the Yangtze river swelled to the proportions of a sea, threatening 25,000,000 persons. The 326 miles of land that lay between Hankow and Wuhu was reported submerged. Another 60,000 square miles of China's richest land would be under water.
Montevideo was struck by a three-minute hail and wind storm of disastrous proportions.

ARM BROKEN IN CITY HALL FALL

CENTRAL A. F. McFarland of 619 South Central avenue was treated at the Sacred Heart hospital yesterday afternoon for a fractured arm sustained about 4:30 p. m. when she fell on the stairway in the city hall. Dr. L. D. Inakep, attending physician, reported today that she was resting in a private room to await payment of Governor Martin's salary; Leslie M. Scott, former chairman of the state highway commission, and Frederick H. Schmalz of Portland.
It was reported at the city hall that the accident occurred while Mrs. McFarland was mounting the stairway inside the building between the second and third floors, when her heel caught on one of the steps.

BREAK IN STRIKE SITUATION LOOMS

PORTLAND, Ore., July 9.—(AP)—There were rumors of impending developments along the lumber strike front here today.
One spokesman for a group of employers said "we probably are going to see something happen here very soon." Frank T. Johnson, secretary of the Sawmill and Timber Workers' union, asked whether new negotiations were under way for return of strikers to their jobs, said his day might bring some developments.
All statements and all rumors were indefinite but there appeared to be a general, if vague, feeling that a movement was afoot to bring about an end to the prolonged strike with a little delay as possible.

PORTLAND, July 9.—(AP)—Two additional suits attacking the constitutional validity of the federal processing tax on wheat, on which the farm relief program is based, were filed in federal court here today by the Western Milling company of Pendleton, and the Prescott Mills, Freewater.

WILL ROGERS SAYS:

SANTA MONICA, Cal., July 8.—How are some of these sporting writers going to ever get through apologizing for the things they said about Helen Wills' gameness. They didn't think she could have been hurt that day in '33, for she never died on the court. Two long years of hearing jibes at her spottishness, and nursing herself back to health, just to show 'em, is a long time.
And don't forget that other Helen. She put up a great fight and it was tough for her to lose. We can sure swell up and be mighty proud of both of 'em. And they are even. They both met the king and queen.
And, say, I bet if the truth was known those two girls don't hate each other any worse than any other two star rival athletes in any line.
Will Rogers.
