UTILITY MEASURE BOYLE'S TOPIC AT ROTARY MEETING

The much discussed Wheeler-Reynolds bill affecting public utility holding companies was impartially discussed by J. C. Boyle before the luncheon meeting of the Medford Rotary club today at the Hotel Medford. Mr. Boyle told the Rotarians of the progress of this legislation before congress and presented arguments in favor and against the bill, quoting from congressional records and from statements by prominent proponents and opponents of the legislation.

The tremendous revenue for the government from public utilities, the millions of people affected by this great industry and the billions of dollars invested were outlined by the speaker. It is estimated that 65 million people are directly and indirectly affected by the activities of public utilities. In view of the fact that scores of large insurance companies and many thousand individual investors have substantial investments in the industry. In concluding his interesting talk, Mr. Boyle told the effect that passage of legislation of this nature might have on scores of other industries.

President W. A. Gates of the Medford Rotary club announced today that the club would act as a better business bureau in conjunction with the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce, cooperating in an effort to prevent trade abuses in this city. Chet Leonard, supervised the organization of a group of Rotarians to participate in a donkey baseball game at the senior high school grounds tonight in a contest sponsored by the 20-30 club of this city. Leonard's aggregation of staid business men, astride jackasses, promises to be an interesting feature tonight although Captain Leonard said that a number of substitutions from the ranks of other clubs might be necessary.

LIMIT ON LEVIES IN NEW TAX BILL AGREED IN HOUSE

WASHINGTON, July 9.—(AP)—Unanimous decision to limit the tax bill to levies only on individual and corporate incomes, inheritances and gifts was reached today by the house ways and means committee.

Proposals for broadening President Roosevelt's tax program to include sales taxes, other "excise" levies as well as other revenue problems were discussed before the decision was reached to confine the legislation to the points outlined originally by the president.

After a brief committee session today, Chairman Doughton (D., N. C.) told newspapermen:

"We agreed unanimously to limit the hearings to the proposals outlined in the president's message. Everybody knows we cannot go over the whole tax field without indefinitely prolonging the hearings and the session of congress."

Members interpreted the decision to limit hearings as a tacit agreement to limit the finally approved bill.

WHEAT PAYMENTS MEAN $370,000 FOR OREGONIANS

CORVALLIS, Ore., July 9.—(AP)—More than $370,000 will be poured into the pockets of Oregon ranchers as a result of the increase in benefit payments to wheat growers cooperating with the agricultural adjustment administration in wheat acreage adjustment. The increase was announced in Washington, D. C., yesterday.

Payments will be at least 33 cents a bushel on allotments, less local costs, according to word received by college extension officials here. For the past two years the rate has been 29 cents.

The base production in Oregon under the wheat allotment contracts is about 17,250,000 bushels. The 4-cent increase will apply to about 54 per cent of this, covering the domestic allotment. Local costs, it was said, will be less than 1.3 cents a bushel.

College extension directors explained that the payments are not made on the total production of cooperating farmers, but only on five per cent which is the proportion of the normal of their established base production, crop used in this country.

Bette Davis in Craterian Film

"The Girl from 10th Avenue," starring Bette Davis, will be the attraction at the Craterian theater for tomorrow night, with the same program also to be shown tomorrow night at the Holly theater.

Miss Davis' part is far more sympathetic than the one she played in "Of Human Bondage," but it is anything but a sweet girly-girl role. She portrays a 10th avenue shop girl who marries a drunken society man, following a champagne party. He had gone to the dogs when filled by a gold digger. Bette makes a man of him, and is smart enough to separate him from the woman he formerly loved, and who had married a rich relic for his money, thinking that she could continue to flirt with the man of her choice.

The picture is a tense drama with some rare touches of humor.

FLYCASTERS CALL THURSDAY MEET

A call was made today to everyone interested to meet at the Chamber of Commerce building Thursday night at 7:45 o'clock for the purpose of organizing a bait and flycasters' club.

At a meeting held early in June there were not enough present to go ahead with plans, so forming of the organization was postponed until this week, when it is hoped that the turnout will make possible a club which will do much for the promotion of fishing in southern Oregon.

The meeting is being sponsored by a group of interested fishermen whose purpose is to not only sharpen the interest in fly and bait fishing but also to enable many novices to learn the art of proper casting.

"Everyone, whether or not he can cast, is urged to be present," it was pointed out today, "so that scores of anglers who have never had the thrill of landing a steelhead, in most cases due to their inability to cast enough line, will be able to learn how."
