SCHMELING SIGNS TO BATTLE LOUIS NEXT SEPTEMBER

Winner Of Polo Grounds Bout Meets Braddock Next June—Baer's Tactics Eliminates Him For Present.

Associated Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, July 13.—(AP)—Disclosing a shift in heavy-weight fight plans, which apparently eliminates Max Baer from the picture, promoter Mike Jacobs today closed negotiations for a 15-round match between Joe Louis and Max Schmeling, to be held September 18 at the Polo Grounds.

The winner, according to Jacobs, will likely be matched with James J. Braddock for the world's championship in 1936. Braddock is now under contract to make his first title defense for the Madison Square Garden corporation, but Jacobs, head of the 20th Century Sporting club, does not consider this a barrier to his projected plans to promote a championship fight next year.

Originally, Jacobs contemplated matching the Louis-Schmeling winner with Max Baer this October, but the promoter now doubts whether the former heavy-weight champion will attempt a comeback.

"I am not figuring on a fight for Baer," said Jacobs. "I don't think he wants to fight again but he may change his mind. We can reconsider the prospects if, and when, Max decides what he wants to do. He does not know himself."

CAMP CHAMPIONS TO STAKE TITLES IN FRIDAY BOUTS

Two Medford district boxing championships will be at stake Friday evening, July 19, when the American Legion and Elks lodge sponsor a big outdoor CCG fight card at the Senior high school grounds.

The card will raise funds to send Robert Gale, of Troop 7, Medford Boy Scouts, to the national encampment in Washington, D. C. in August.

Billy Lezar, 158, newly crowned Medford district middleweight champion, will defend his title in a rematch with Bill Shupeck, 157, of Coos Head. Lezar and Shupeck fought the main event on the Ashland card July 4 and so many fans have demanded a rematch Lezar has consented to give his opponent another crack at the title.

Jack Savickey, 132, the "Frankenstein" who fights like a robot in the ring, will meet Stanley "Shik" Stockina, 133, of China Plains in the semi-final match with the district's light-weight title at stake. Savickey, Lezar's running mate from South Park, has been undefeated in his several matches here, while Stockina has won every bout. The winner of the Savickey-Stockina go will be named champion in the light-weight division.

The Elks lodge will cooperate with the Legion in sponsoring the show, which will be staged in an outdoor ring, using the high school's new bleachers for seating the crowd.

Tickets went on sale Saturday with Boy Scouts handling the advance sale. There will be no ringside seats reserved, it being a case of first come, first served. Ladies as well as men are invited to attend the card, which promises to bring together some of the best fighting talent seen here to date.

The card will start at 8 o'clock Friday evening.

Limber 'Les' Returns

A capacity crowd is expected to attend Promoter Mack Lillard's wrestling card at the Armory next Thursday night, due to the fact that both Pete Belcastro, Italian grappler, and tall Lee Wolfe of Texas, are scheduled for appearance, as separate features of a double main event.

Wolfe will range in what should be a fast and clean session of mat-work with Al Stecher, big-time, Canadian grappler who promises to give the supple southerner a busy evening.

Belcastro is pitted against Johnny Soos, stocky muscle man from Indiana, who proved himself no slouch in a recent Medford appearance. Belcastro will probably continue his clean type of matwork that surprised fans in his last appearance here.

Floyd Wolfgang, speedy middleweight, will meet Johnny Goodman of Cincinnati in the 20-minute opener.

ACE PASS CATCHER OF DIXIE HOWELL TOP VOTE GETTER

CHICAGO, July 13.—(AP)—Don Huston, Alabama's all-American end, was the top vote-getter during the first week of the poll to select a team of college all-stars to battle the Chicago Bears at Soldier field August 29, piling up a 38,878 total.

More than 200,000 votes have already been cast, more than were recorded in the complete ballot last year.

The Alabama ace, who caught the passes from Dixie Howell which wrecked Stanford in the Rose Bowl last year, gained 21,470 votes overnight to slip past Frank Larson, Minnesota's all-America flanker, into first place again. Larson had 37,938.

Phil Bengtson, another Minnesota star, regained first place among the tackles with a 35,947 total, to 33,528 for Bill Lee of Alabama, yesterday's wrecked Stanford in the Rose Bowl.

Billy Lezar, 158, newly crowned Medford district middleweight champion, will defend his title in a rematch with Bill Shupeck, 157, of Coos Head.

The Elks lodge will cooperate with the Legion in sponsoring the show, which will be staged in an outdoor ring, using the high school's new bleachers for seating the crowd.

PORTLAND BEATS SACS WITH EASE

SACRAMENTO, July 13.—(AP)—Portland clinched the series with Sacramento here today by defeating the Solons 12 to 1 in a drab game under a scorching sun.

The Beavers scored nine earned runs in the first inning off Salvo and Harwig and after that, it was just putting in time. Doubles by Bongioranni and Cronin and Wilburn's homer featured the big inning.

At Sacramento: R. H. E. Portland 12 1 3 Sacramento 1 5 2 Posedel and Cronin; Salvo, Harwig and Walkhead.

At Oakland: R. H. E. Seattle 3 12 2 Oakland 9 14 0 Pickrell, Lucas, Vinci and Bottarini; Ludolph and Raimondi.

At Los Angeles: R. H. E. Miselona 10 15 2 Los Angeles 7 13 3 Nicholais, Johnson, W. Beck and Outen; Campbell, Buxton, Harris and Lahti.

SEATTLE, July 13.—(AP)—Firing all his shots, and using all his strength in a first-set drive, Wayne Sabin, Portland youngster, put up a sparkling battle against Berkeley Bell, New York, in their semi-finals match of the Washington State tennis tournament today, but he finally was beaten, 11-9.

The victory sent Bell, one of the leading amateurs of the country, into tomorrow's finals against Dick Bennett, Oakland "giant killer."

Bell lost more games in the first set than he has dropped all week, and came near losing the set when Sabin climbed to an 8-7 lead.

The New Yorker started off with a rush when he won the first four games, but Sabin came back to even the count at 5-5. In the 15th game, the Portland boy broke through Bell's service to gain the upper hand for the first time at 6-7, but he had used up all his strength under the hot sun, and was an easy victim in the rest of the match.

FIG LEAF, BUT NO LESS, SAYS CHIEF

LACONIA, N. H., July 13.—(AP)—A fig leaf will do, but it must be at least that, is the swimming apparel ruling of Police Chief George N. Hubbard.

The chief cracked down today on nude bathing, his ire aroused by a complaint that a woman and two men had sauntered unclothed not far from the main street in yesterday's intense heat.

"It's up to the Laconia police department to stop this sort of thing," said Chief Hubbard. "We cannot permit anybody to go around nude. The least they can do is to wear a fig leaf."

M'LARNIN SAILS ON HONEYMOON

VICTORIA, B. C., July 13.—(AP)—Jimmy McLarnin, former welterweight champion, flashed his Irish grin from beneath a rakish sea-going cap on the decks of the Empress of Canada today as he and his bride of two days sailed for a honeymoon in Honolulu.

The two had intimated before their marriage they were going to California. "I don't feel like an old man at 27, nor plan to settle down for keeps," he said, referring to his ring career. "I'd like another shot at Barney Ross."
