

Wins 4th Title

Mrs. John M. Williams of Phoenix, Ariz., won her fourth consecutive championship at the annual golf tournament in Nogales, Sonora, Mexico. (Associated Press Photo)

Mrs. Francis L. Robbins, Jr., distant cousin of President Roosevelt by marriage, planned making her debut as a New York night club singer. (Associated Press Photo)

MARGARET WALEY PLANS KIDNAPING TRIAL DEFENSE

Persuaded to fight kidnap charges against her in connection with the $200,000 abduction of George Weyerhaeuser, 9, in Tacoma, Wash., the 19-year-old Margaret Waley, wife of Harmon Waley, who is already serving a 45-year sentence for the crime, conferred with her attorneys, Stephen J. O'Brien (left) and John Dore, former Seattle mayor, in the Olympia jail. (Associated Press Photo)

SUNTAN IN TWO MINUTES BY SPRAY

A new painless suntan acquired in slightly more than two minutes with a high-powered cosmetic spray was demonstrated at a Los Angeles beauty show. The cosmetic is soluble in water. Le Theda Kramer seems to enjoy Harry Siegelman's work in giving her a coat of tan. (Associated Press Photo)

DOCTOR MAKES CALLS ON HORSE

Because automobiles were banned during the Golden Jubilee celebration of Yakima, Wash., Dr. D. F. Bice made his rounds on a brown pony, but he stuck to his silk topper and his frock coat. (Associated Press Photo)

'HUCK FINN' SALUTES WINNER

Jackie Hill, who bears a resemblance to Mark Twain's immortal huckleberry Finn, likes a champion. The titlist in this case is "Zip," veteran croaker from Stockton, Calif., who sits contentedly in Jackie's hands with that I-told-you-so look. Zip won the annual Angels Camp Jubilee Jumping contest at 12 feet, 3 1/2 inches. (Associated Press Photo)

Helen Wills Moody didn't lose any time in settling down to practice upon her arrival in England in hopes of doing a comeback at Wimbledon this season. The former tennis champion flashed some of her old form in the first tournament she entered in Old Albion. She is shown practicing at the All-England club. (Associated Press Photo)

Dr. Ralph Willard, Hollywood biochemist, after five years experimenting, has perfected a process for restoring to life guinea pigs that have been frozen for two to 22 days. Body temperatures are restored with an electric current, while blood transfusions and injections of adrenalin-ephedrine coupled with mechanical processes start heart action. He believes by freezing certain portions of the human body impaired tissues may be restored to a normal state. Dr. Willard is shown above with a guinea pig that has been revived, and another animal that has been frozen for several days. (Associated Press Photo)

FORMER INVESTIGATOR ARRAIGNED

William H. Rabell, with face partly covered, until June 20 an investigator for the federal securities and exchange commission, as he was arraigned in federal court in New York after his arrest in the home of a wealthy oil royalties dealer. (Associated Press Photo)

Who Could Resist?

Pretty Mildred Gutierrez applauds 'the world of the forthcoming Spanish fiesta in Santa Barbara, Calif., by wearing a sticker on her face in the manner of an enlarged beauty spot. (Associated Press Photo)

Held By Japan

William Shinn Gates (above), graduate of the naval academy at Annapolis in 1929, was one of three men held by Japanese authorities on suspicion of espionage. The three were sailing a ketch, ostensibly in search of treasure, off the coast of Formosa. (Associated Press Photo)

BANKER FETED IN HOLLYWOOD

The House of Rothschild and the navy were represented at a Hollywood luncheon given by heads of the film industry. Some of those present were, seated, left to right: Baroness Phillips de Rothschild, Assistant Navy Secretary Henry Roosevelt, Marion Davies and (standing) Publisher William Randolph Hearst, Irving Thalberg and Hal Wallis. (Associated Press Photo)

AT EXPOSITION INDIAN VILLAGE

Little Sunshine, eight-year-old granddaughter of Tat-Sum Ba of the Plutes pictured at the Indian village of the California International Exposition at San Diego where 25 tribes will be represented. Her costume contains more than 1000 beads and was made by her grandmother. (Associated Press Photo)

PASADENA WINS PORTLAND PRIZE

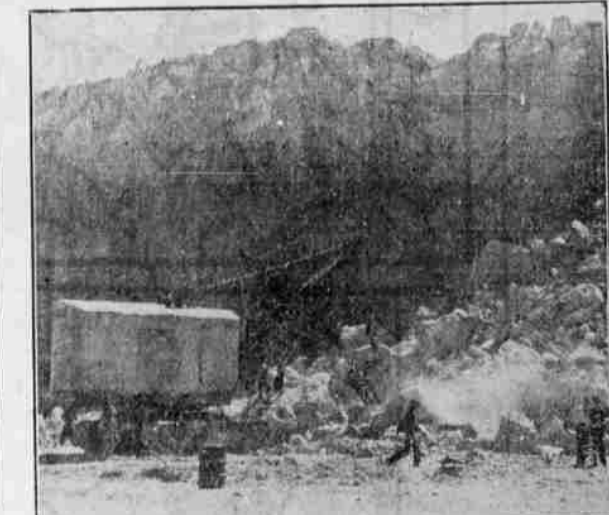

These floral and feminine beauties of Pasadena, Calif., won the out of town parade sweepstakes at the Portland, Ore., rose festival. (Associated Press Photo)

GIVES LIFE TO SAVE CHILDREN

Santa Monica, Calif., life guards are shown working over the body of Ernest Richter, 58, who lost his life saving his three children when 31 persons were thrown into the sea as a fishing barge platform collapsed. (Associated Press Photo)

PREMATURE BLAST KILLS YOUTH

Seventeen-year-old Stephen Parks, son of the plant superintendent, was killed and three workmen injured in a premature blast of 20,000 pounds of dynamite in an El Paso, Tex., quarry. This Associated Press Photo shows the tons of rocks under which young Parks was buried. (Associated Press Photo)