Music Spotlight Centers on Emanuel Day Concert Tonight

The music spotlight emanating from this city, Grants Pass, Central Point, Jacksonville and Ashland is being focused on the concert to be presented tonight at 8:30 o'clock at the Baldwin Rectal hall by Emanuel Bay, world-renowned pianist, who has included Medford on a concert tour of the country.

Masterpieces of all times and all nations will be included in the program that Mr. Bay has prepared and reports from various parts of the valley indicate that many are planning to attend, anticipating an evening of superb music.

Mr. Bay arrived last night from Seattle, and will continue south after appearing here, on a tour that is being acclaimed as one of the outstanding events of the season.

Qualities that are seldom found combined in one artist will find expression in the varied program of the masters' works that will comprise tonight's concert—his beautiful soft touch, the remarkable precision of his rhythm and tone.

Critics throughout the United States and Europe have commented favorably on his performances and the acclaim of tonight's audience is assured. A Russian artist, Mr. Bay is a graduate of the Petersburg Conservatory.

Mrs. Huntress Home From Vacation in South

A motor trip from Medford to San Diego, a visit there at the Exposition, also in Los Angeles and San Francisco, a motor trip into Mexico and the return to this city by air was the delightful vacation trip from which Mrs. D. D. Huntress returned to this city Monday afternoon.

After attending the fair and spending several days with friends at San Diego, Mrs. Huntress continued by train to Los Angeles. After visiting there she took the boat to San Francisco.

She accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Huntress of South Pasadena on a motor trip into Mexico as an interesting feature of the three weeks' sojourn.

Mrs. Paul Reddy Guest At William Swartz Home

Mrs. Paul Reddy of Hollywood is being welcomed by her many friends in Medford following her arrival yesterday from the south to spend two weeks in Medford visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Swartz of Berkeley Way. Mrs. Reddy is the former Miss Constance Finley.

Enroute north she spent two days visiting at San Francisco with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Walter Bowne, who, with Mr. Bowne, was a recent visitor in the valley, having spent several weeks at their summer home on Rogue river.

Mrs. E. B. Palmer Noted Valley Guest

A noted guest in the valley this week is Mrs. E. B. Palmer of Cleveland, O., who is visiting at the home of Mrs. Susan D. Nason of the Old Stage road. She arrived yesterday, and is expected to remain in the valley for three weeks.

Mrs. Palmer is executive secretary of the society for the blind at Cleveland, and has gained national recognition for her lecture work and other phases of the society's program that she has helped carry on throughout the country.

Medford Guests Joined By Motorists From Burns

Dolph Byrd and his sister, Miss Mary Byrd, of Burns, Ore., will arrive in Medford tomorrow evening to join Mrs. Byrd and small daughter, Joan, who have been guests in this city for the past two weeks. From here they will motor up the coast highway to Portland to visit Mrs. Byrd's father, Richard Hensley, before returning to eastern Oregon.

Juanita Thornton Will Entertain Club

Juanita Thornton will be hostess to the Wenonah club Thursday afternoon at her home, 2233 Aloha avenue, for the regular social card party.

Women's Bible Class Will Meet On Thursday

ADDED PWA FUNDS GRANTED CITY FOR DISPOSAL PROJECT

called for the primary purpose of conducting a sale of $22,800 in improvement refunding bonds, testimony of which was authorized by an ordinance recently passed by the council.

C. C. Purras occupied the chair at the meeting in the absence of Mayor George Foster, who is attending a trap shoot in Canada. Several routine matters and committee reports occupied the remainder of the session.

The streets and roads committee's report was read, listing among other items several applications that have been filed with the Works Progress Administration for consideration. The projects applied for include the following:

Widening the Prescott Memorial Park road from Hillcrest to the park boundary; continuation of Bear creek flood control work from Cottage street bridge to south city limits; continuation of the planing project; widening the airport runways; resurfacing several city streets.

The report also included 52 orders to clean up refuse, and 112 orders to remove overhanging limbs from streets and sidewalks.

The council authorized a Package store class "A" license for George's Cash Grocery, managed by George H. Witters, at 608 East Main.

Penney's Defies Summer Heat To Offer Blankets

"You may think we are crazy with the heat" said W. S. Bolger, manager of the local J. C. Penney Co. store as he announced Penney's 8th annual mid-summer blanket event which starts Thursday. "The fact remains," he continued "that by taking advantage of early conditions in the market we can afford to offer blankets at greater saving than we can later in the season. We allow people to select now and make a small deposit and by the time cold weather is here they have good blankets and have not had to pay out a huge sum all at one time."

"We find people buy better blankets as a result of this plan. A big percentage of Penney's blanket stock is now made in Oregon."

"Just tell the people that we are issuing a 'blanket' invitation to come to this event," wisecracked Bolger as the reporter ducked out of the door.

Edwin L. Knapp Weds In Seattle

Word has reached Medford of the marriage of Edwin L. Knapp, formerly of this city and now of Roseburg, to Mrs. Jeanette Kelly Johnson of Seattle, the wedding being in Seattle on July 9.

Mr. Knapp, formerly associated with the Mail Tribune, is now auditor for the Roseburg News-Review. Mr. and Mrs. Knapp are now on a wedding trip in the Puget Sound country and will make their home in Roseburg. Use Mail Tribune want ads.

MEET the WIFE

MRS. JOSEPH W. BYRNS

When Speaker Joseph W. Byrns first met Julia Woodard Byrns, she was a 12-year-old girl at her sister's wedding, and he was beginning his law career. Now she "bosses" him when he overworks, and his black eyes twinkle. She had ancestors in both the Revolution and the Civil war... went to Ward-Belmont... and then married Byrns. They have one son. She gets little chance for cooking and sewing in their Washington apartment... but she is good at both... on the speaker's word. She has thick, white, bobbed hair... the state department has quietly agreed she is Washington's most stunning matron when she does evening clothes.

SALEM, July 17.—(AP)—A city passenger bus was tipped over in a collision with a car driven by Eugene Miltonberger of Independence here late yesterday, resulting in injuries to two persons. The injured, both occupants of Miss Miltonberger's car were Mrs. W. T. Miltonberger of Salem, and Jean Straight a visitor from Iowa.

'Twas the Night Before Christmas And all thru our flat Not a creature was stirring— No—we don't have a cat. When out of the night Which was fifty below There stumbled a miner— He gasped to me, "JOE!" "I been caught in the blizzard And I'm pretty nigh froze, My fingers are numb And I can't feel my toes." We thawed the guy out And we put him to bed, When finally tucked in, Here's what he said. "These are wonderful blankets, You've no cause for alarm Since I left Plumtree Down in Tennessee It's the first time I've been warm!" The missus she says "Well, we best say good-night." As we entered the parlor Ma's eyes sparkled bright. She says, "I'm so happy We could help that poor man I bought blankets at PENNEY'S On their LAY-AWAY-PLAN!"
