VICTIMS OF BANDIT BURIED AS SEARCH FOR KILLER WIDENS

TACOMA, Wash., July 18.—(AP)—Puyallup today prepared to bury its dead—Chief of Police Frank Chadwick and Patrolman Harry Storem—while the search for their slayer spread throughout the Pacific Northwest.

In the ranks of the mourners were possemen and peace officers who had joined in the manhunt after Chadwick and Storem were shot to death Monday by a man suspected of robbing the Orting bank of $500 shortly before they stopped him in an automobile.

A posse of 50 early today was in the field following a trail they feared was cooling rapidly. Some of the men were among those who stood guard throughout Tuesday night and yesterday morning around a field in the Stuck river bottom where they believed the killer was hiding. Two shots were fired then at a man who, flushed from the bushes, leaped a fence and disappeared.

Mrs. J. Geer, 516 West Jackson street in Medford, is a sister-in-law of Patrolman Harry Storem, Puyallup officer shot to death Monday during the robbery of the Orting State bank in Washington. She, with her daughter Phyllis, left Medford Tuesday for Puyallup for the funeral.

Mrs. Geer, with her husband "Josh" Geer, who is an employee of the Becks bakery here, have lived with their family in Medford for several years. Storem himself was in this city in March, visiting here for about a week while on vacation.

BAD CHECK ARTIST HEADED THIS WAY

The Better Business bureau of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce is anticipating the informal visit of a phoney check artist, it was made known today. The forger, whose name is Eugene Oren, but who is just as likely to call himself Eugene Stevens or Albert Williams, put his hooks into the Hood River fruit growers a short time ago, and it is believed he will try to play the same game here.

His game goes like this: He gets work in an orchard, picking or thinning. He stays with the job long enough to get at least one good check, to establish a good reputation from the check writer to the cashiers. In about a week he opens a small account in a bank, then makes a clean-up by issuing phoney checks of his own.

A warrant is out for his arrest, issued at Hood River. It describes him as about 25 years of age, 5 feet, 9 inches tall, and of dark complexion. He is usually accompanied by his wife, who is about 22 years old and also dark complected. He has several peculiar Chinese tatoo designs on his arm, and a sample of his handwriting is on file at the chamber. Local people are urged to be on the lookout for him.

BANKS LACKING IN UPSTATE SUPPORT

E. E. Kelly, recently appointed commissioner for the World War Veterans State Aid commission, returned this morning by train from Salem, where he attended a meeting of the commission, with the opinion that there is little upstate support for the pardon of L. A. Banks, serving a life term in state prison for murder.

Attorney Kelly stated that the general feeling around the state capital is that the move for executive clemency be repelled, and that "Banks will not get a pardon when he goes to Governor Martin."

Attorney Kelly said this morning that in a conversation at Salem with H. Ven Schmals, the latter charged the people of Jackson county with the responsibility of illegally "holding" former county judge Earl Pehl in prison.

SALEM, July 18.—(AP)—Funds sought by the state to investigate the desireability and location of proposed storage tanks for four irrigation districts cannot be obtained from the Reconstruction Finance corporation, Governor Martin was informed today by Frank J. Kennan of that organization.

KALISPELL, Mont., July 18.—(AP)—William P. Emery, 40, of Salem, Ore., was drowned yesterday in the Flathead river while he was swimming his team across the stream.

EGG PRICES UP; BUTTER STEADY

PORTLAND, July 18.—(AP)—Advance of 1 to 2 cents in the price on eggs, with the exception of pullets, during the late session of the produce exchange was not a surprise following the recent liberal withdrawals from storage. This together with decreasing supplies of current lay and the deteriorating quality of the latter, created a rather firm tone.

Market for butter was showing a fairly steady tone locally, but the butterfat situation was firm with premiums again showing in spots throughout the Pacific northwest.

Strong demand was showing for live chickens all through the local trade, but at late general values. Demand for both live and dressed turkeys was more than seasonably steady.

Oregon apricot deal is now in full swing as are Yakima and Wenatchee. Marketa were strong and active and prices firm to higher in spots.
