

VOLIVA PREDICTS ETHIOPIA'S FALL BEFORE IL DUCE

Exponents of Flat World Says Mussolini Is Superman Slated by Bible to Revive Holy Roman Empire

CHICAGO, July 18—(AP)—Wilbur Glen Voliva, overseer of the religious colony of Zion, Ill., came out today with some bad news for Emperor Haile Selassie I and all the Ethiopian fans.

"The old exponent of a flat world, now dieting on nuts and butter milk on the hope of living to be 100 charted the conflict today out of the book of Daniel.

He thinks Mussolini is "the superman," the "man of iron" whose rise is predicted there, and thinks this is the "time of the end." If that is so, then:

"Mussolini will take over Ethiopia, and add the inhabitants to his armies," said the overseer.

"He will then proceed to carry out his program, with designs upon the Red Sea, the Suez Canal, the Mediterranean Sea, Egypt and Palestine."

And those designs will go through, too, said Voliva, for he sees in the eleventh chapter of Daniel a flat prediction that the holy Roman empire will rise again, with the "superman" as its boss.

This, in turn, leads up to the battle of Armageddon and the consequent end of the world. Voliva says that is just around the corner, "about 1942 or '43."

"The superman will 'rule the world' said Voliva, but he comes to no good in the end.

"He will be energized by Satan," the overseer explained, citing Daniel 8:23,24 and 25. "And finally, he will become the incarnation of his satanic majesty."

William Russell Irish Poet, Dies
 BOURNEMOUTH, England, July 18. (AP)—The world of letters mourned today the passing of George William Russell, Irish journalist, poet and painter.

 Already ill on his return from a trip to the United States a few months ago, Russell suffered a setback during the summer's first heat wave and died last night at a nursing hospital. He was 68 years old.

 In 1921, a 4,000-acre tract near Cambridge, Ky., was surveyed by the government, with a view to locating the national capitol there
