Double Wedding of Misses Edwards Is Planned in Medford

Announcement of what promises to be the most interesting wedding of the summer was made in Medford this week when it was told of plans for a double ceremony to be held August 25 at the Presbyterian church, at which the Misses Icel and Adra Edwards, daughters of George Edwards of Pitt View Acres, will become the brides of Edward Schack of Seattle, and Jack Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Walker of this city.

The betrothals, both announced some time ago, have been incentive of much entertaining for Miss Icel in Seattle and Miss Adra in Medford. The wedding plans are of interest to many social groups both here and in the Washington city.

Miss Icel Edwards, who has made her home in Seattle for the past several years, has returned frequently to the valley to be guest of her father and her sisters, Mrs. Chester Hubbard and the Misses Adra and Georgia Edwards. She has hosts of friends in and near Medford and her fiancé is also known here through visits in this city since announcement of the engagement.

The younger of the two popular brides-elect, Miss Adra, was complimented recently with a charming bride party and shower, 14 members of the younger set being entertained by the Misses Margaret Warner and Barbara Hauk at the A. J. Hauk home.

Lovely gifts were presented the honoree in a novel manner employing a treasure hunt. Names of the donors were concealed for the search as well as the gifts.

Miss Marjorie Ringdon and Mrs. James Halliver were awarded prizes at bride.

Present besides the hostesses were Misses Adra Edwards, Marjorie and Marian Ringdon, Clarita McCormick, Gertrude Boyle, Carol Dodge, Janet Wray Smith, Sybil Jean Young and Dorothy Paley, and Mesdames Lynn Cordale, James Halliver and Emil Mohr.

'COTTON' SCORES AGAIN!

This time it was Dan Cupid who was the victim of Irvine "Cotton" Warburton, University of Southern California's famed little footballer. He dashed down the matrimonial path with Miss Nellie K. Mayson, 20, of Long Beach, Calif. Warburton is 23. He is an assistant film cutter in a motion picture studio. (Associated Press Photo)

Voorhies Home Is Setting for Lovely Mid-Summer Event

Mid-summer social events of the valley center around the lovely dancing party for 60 guests given Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Voorhies and Mr. and Mrs. Sprague Riegel at the Charles Voorhies home.

The week's entertainment among the socially prominent from one end of the valley to the other revolved about plans for the event and its success was commented upon by all those present. There were several dinner parties including members of the younger set preceding the dance.

Japanese lanterns hanging through the garden and about the swimming pool lit the scene in pleasant fashion outside the house, where the guests gathered for buffet supper.

Summer flowers were arranged inside, where the guests danced to music furnished by Al Stewart and his orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Voorhies were among the guests at a pre-dance dinner given at the A. S. V. Carpenter home by Miss Mary Louise Carpenter and Dunbar Carpenter. The guest list also included the Misses Frances and Harriet Sparrow, Miss Barbara Cowles, Farwell Kenly, Edward Reames and James Pirth.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter were host and hostess at their home to Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Burgess, Miss Margaret Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Salade and E. W. Carlton.

Dinner for seven was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tully, who had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Slater Johnston and Gail Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Luther were host and hostess at their home preceding the dance at an informal get-together. Present were their house guest, Miss Helen Studer of Hollister, Cal., who arrived Thursday morning for a short visit at the Luther home, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maenta, Miss Dorothy Roberts, Robert Emmens, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spaulding.

Guest From Hawaii At Williamson Home

An interesting Medford guest who arrived in this city yesterday by motor is Miss Harriet Slater of Hawaii, who is visiting over the week-end at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Lloyd Williamson. She plans to leave today, continuing a motor trip along the coast.

Other guests at the Lloyd Williamson home this week have been Mrs. Williamson's sister, Mrs. William McKibbin and sons, David and Bruce, who arrived last Monday from Portland for a three week's stay. At the close of the visit they will be joined by Mr. McKibbin, a former well-known resident of Medford, whom they will accompany back to the Rose City.

Mrs. McKibbin is being greeted by many friends while in Medford.

Surprise Dinner Is Event Friday Eve

Mrs. Ivan Harrington and Mrs. Herbert Brown were hostesses at a surprise dinner party Friday evening at the Harrington home honoring Mr. Brown, the occasion being his birthday. He was the recipient of many appropriate gifts.

Besides Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Harrington, the guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Grim, Mr. and Mrs. Del Cox, Leo Laurin, Aubrey Sanders, Jack Hughes, George Harrington and Charles Gosha.

Wedding In Peru Will Unite Local Man, Illinois Girl

Word of a wedding in Croys, Peru, which will be of great interest to many in Medford and vicinity was received here yesterday when it was told that Miss Aitha Mitchell of Hillsboro, Ill., daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Mitchell of Panama, called for the South American city July 12 to become the bride of Adrian M. Lofland, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Lofland of 225 South Oakdale avenue, this city.

Mr. Lofland formerly made his home in Medford, having been here until the first of the year, when he returned to South America to accept a position as engineer for the Cerro de Pasco Copper corporation at Croys.

The romance began in Chitt, while Miss Mitchell, a graduate of the University of Illinois, was for three years on the teaching staff of San Diego college. Miss Mitchell is a niece of Mrs. Orenda Savage of Panama, and her late father was president of the State Bank of Panama.

She resigned her position in Hillsboro as case work supervisor for Montgomery county branch of the National Emergency Relief commission.

Further news of the marriage is being awaited with interest by the many friends of Mr. Lofland in the valley.

Surprise Shower Fetes Bride-to-be

Mrs. Mabel White was hostess Tuesday evening at a surprise miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Bertha Stinson, whose marriage to William Strode of Myrtle Creek will be an event of August 18.

Many beautiful gifts were received by the bride-to-be.

Guests for the evening were the Misses Ruth LeClerc, Susy Mae Shelton, Martha Boshears, Linda Wright, Bertha Stinson and Mesdames Sadie Nichol, Harriet Watson, Mirell McDuffee, Marjorie Pena, Ruth Blackburn, Clara Hawley, Marguerite Boyd, Olive Warren and Nellie Loring.

The hostess was assisted at serving dainty refreshments by her sister, Mrs. Leona Gillespie of Salem.

Guest Accompanies Getchells on Trip Through California

Comings and goings continue to mark the social calendar, which is crowded this month with vacation trips. Among the most recent society folk who have left are Mrs. Delroy Getchell and daughter, Miss Gloria, who are being accompanied by their house guest, Miss Dorothy McCash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester McCash of Seattle, on a two weeks' motor trip to San Francisco, San Mateo and Burlingame.

Before leaving, early this week, Miss Getchell honored her house guest with a lovely luncheon at which covers were placed for eight. The luncheon was followed by contract.

In addition to the honoree, the guests were Misses Harriet Sparrow, Mary Louise Carpenter of Winchester, Mass., who is visiting here at the Leonard Carpenter home, Dorothy Roberts, Barbara Young, Mrs. Bayard Getchell and Mrs. Robert Maenta.

Both Miss Getchell and Miss McCash are students at University of Washington and have centered much social activity while here on summer vacation.

Miss Judy Weds Norman Fraley In Pretty Home Rites

The marriage of Miss Violet Judy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Judy, of Eugene, and Norman P. Fraley, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Fraley, of this city, was performed at an attractive mid-summer ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Minear on the Jacksonville highway last Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.

In the presence of about 50 relatives and friends of the bridal couple the Rev. James E. Morgan of the Christian church of Ashland read the impressive ring service.

The bride and bridegroom made their wedding vows before a prettily decorated altar, on the lawn, with masses of summer flowers arranged at the back and at either side. They took their places to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Genevieve Brown, "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly" were sung prior to the ceremony by Miss Helen Judy, sister of the bride.

The bride, who was attended by Miss Irene Judy, a sister, was given in marriage by her father, Adrian Fraley, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bride was attired in a white silk net gown made along princess lines. The full length veil was caught to the bandeau which bound her hair. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and yellow lilies, harmonized with delicate blue flowers.

Miss Judy was attired in a floor length blue silk organdy gown and carried a bouquet of sweetpeas and blue delphinium.

At a reception which followed the ceremony Mrs. Minear, Mrs. Judy and Miss Helen Judy were in the receiving line. Assisted by Mrs. Fraley and Mrs. M. B. Linsinger, of Ashland, they served refreshments, the bride cutting the wedding cake.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Fraley attended Bible college at Eugene last year and plan to return this fall. The bride is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Minear.

They left on a wedding trip to the coast, after which they will return to make their home in Medford during the summer.

Voorhies Return Portland Vacation

Col. and Mrs. Gordon Voorhies returned to their home south of Medford Saturday morning, after a week spent on vacation in Portland.

The Voorhies are two of many Medford folk who have been vacationing in the northern part of the state and in Washington and British Columbia.

Delegation Returns From Conclave Of Spanish War Vets

Several from Colonel Sargent Camp No. 23, United Spanish War Veterans and Auxiliary, attended the State Department convention held in Roseburg the past week. All report a splendid time in spite of the heat.

Those attending from Medford were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Alden, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hemstreet, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Young, Mrs. Lella Paxon and Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Clement. Those attending from Ashland who are also members of the organization, were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce, Mrs. Ruth McCollister and Mr. Lynn.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement are returning by way of Bandon and other coast points where they vacationed the remainder of the week. Mrs. Clement was appointed to an office in the state department.

Every one who attended the convention was very high in their praise for the way in which all of the citizens of Roseburg seemed to vie with each other to show every delegate a good time, and to make every one welcome to their city.

Lawn Is Setting For Meeting Of Missionary Club

On the beautifully lighted lawn, surrounded by trees in perfect tranquility, a lovelier setting could not have been found for the lawn party given by the Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Walter Frazer Brown.

Mrs. J. N. Merritt presided at the short business meeting in the absence of Mrs. Geo. Oliver, president. The meeting was opened with prayer by Reverend Shields.

A most interesting and versatile program followed with Mrs. E. Iverson as program chairman. All joined in singing, "How Firm a Foundation," after which Mrs. A. J. Hanby presented devotional thoughts, including the reading from the 25th chapter of Matthew, 31 to 41 and closing with a very fine poem "Unaware," followed by prayer and a free will offering which was taken by Clara Daniels and Dolores Ray dressed in Spanish costume. Miss Emily Brown and Mrs. Huson then delighted all with the singing of the beautiful hymn, "Silent Night," in Spanish.

After a few words by Mrs. Iverson regarding missionary work, Mrs. F. Bancroft was presented. She appeared in the native style of Guatemala, and impersonating Mrs. W. B. Atchson, who spent many years as a missionary in that country, gave an enlightening and interesting talk on the life and work accomplished by the missionaries in the field, their hardships and joys.

Edith Hodgkins and Mary Bean then sang a song learned in conference, "I Will Make You Fishers of Men," first singing in English and then in Chinese.

Miss Laura Bailey presented the names of missionaries for whom special prayers were offered. Mrs. Cunningham, who is Mrs. D. W. Luke's daughter, told of the life and work of her husband's uncle and his wife, who are missionaries in China and named on the list at this time. Mrs. Iverson closed with prayer, after which an enjoyable social time followed.

Delicious refreshments were served to the large group in attendance. The hostess was assisted by Mesdames Brommer, Hodgkins, Baker and Miss Bailey.

All-Day Picnic Is Event at Ashland

An all-day picnic in beautiful Litchia Park at Ashland was enjoyed by members of the Women's Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, last Tuesday.

Thirty ladies were present at the annual outdoor social gathering and an interesting program was prepared for the occasion. A covered-disco luncheon was a feature of the meeting.

Wenonah Club Meets For Card Party Thursday

Wenonah club met at the home of Juanita Thornton Thursday for the regular social card party. There were five tables of bridge in play, with Nellie Purdin winning high prize for the afternoon.

The tables were set beneath a large shade tree which helped to make the afternoon a very enjoyable one. Refreshments were served by Blanche Rinsberger, Mary Zundell and Vera Thomas, assisted by the hostess.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Edna Watkins, 1016 Court street for a luncheon and business session Thursday, August 1.

Plenic at Ashland Plan of Bible Class
