

Detroit Forges to Virtual Tie With Yankees; Giants Lead Cut

SINGLE IN NINTH ROBS WHITE SOX OF NO-HIT FAME

Tigers Win From Boston While New York Idle — Foxx's Homer Gives Macks Even Break.

BOSTON, July 20.—(AP)—The Tigers wiped out most of the difference between first and second place in the American league standing today as they turned back the Red Sox for the third straight time, 6 to 5 but the "law of averages" continued to favor the Yankees.

The triumph gave Detroit, which has climbed steadily ever since it moved out of sixth place late in May, a virtual tie with the Yanks, who were idle. The Tigers have won 23 games, three more than the Yankees, and lost 33, also three more. The percentage table, however, still shows New York on top, .620 to .612.

Detroit made four runs off Gordon (Dusty) Rhodes in the first two innings and seemed headed for an easy victory when General Al Crowder began to weaken in the seventh and the six rallied to knot the count in the semi-final inning. Wes Ferrell, who smacked a pinch double in Boston's big rally, failed to hold the Tigers, however, and a ninth inning run decided the game.

R. H. E.
6 13 2	Detroit
5 13 0	Boston

Crowder, Anker and Cochrane; Rhodes, Walberg, W. Ferrell and R. Ferrell.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—(AP)—After winning the first game of a double header, 1 to 0, as Charles Fischer limited the Senators to a single hit, the Chicago White Sox dropped the second to Washington, 9 to 2.

Turning in a perfect performance for more than eight innings Fischer, who was cast off by Detroit earlier this season, was nicked for a single by Osele Bluege, Washington's lane-hitting shortstop in the ninth.

With that exception runners reached first base only twice as Fischer walked Sam Holbrook on two occasions and allowed him to go to second base once on a wild pitch. The White Sox scored their lone run in the second inning when Appling walked, was pushed to third by Dyke's single and scored on Sewell's grounder.

R. H. E.
1 7 1	Chicago
0 1 0	Washington

Fisher and Sewell; Hadley and Holbrook.

R. H. E.
2 5 3	Chicago
0 13 2	Washington

Jones, Tietje, Phelps, Wyzat and Shea; Whitehill and Bolton.

PHILADELPHIA, July 20.—(AP)—Behind Roy Mahaffey's six hit pitching, the Athletics came back in the second game today to win 5 to 2 and even a double header after the Cleveland Indians had overwhelmed them, 15 to 3, in the first encounter.

R. H. E.
18 21 0	Cleveland
3 8 1	Philadelphia

Lee and Phillips; Brenzel; Dietrich, Caster and Richards, Berry.

R. H. E.
2 6 2	Cleveland
5 9 0	Philadelphia

Winegarner and Phillips; Mahaffey and Richards.

St. Louis at New York, postponed; rain (two games tomorrow).

Brooklyn at St. Louis, postponed; rain.

Roseburg Beats Klamath. KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., July 20.—(AP)—The Roseburg American Legion Junior baseball team took advantage of opponents' errors and scored a 7 to 6 win over Klamath Falls here today in the district championship series.

R. H. E.
7 9 4	Roseburg
6 9 0	Klamath Falls

Batteries: Baker and Nell, McLain; Smith, Erickson and Schoeller.

BEAVERS LOSE AS SEAL STAR HITS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—(AP)—

San Francisco's Seals pounded out an 11 to 7 win over Portland today in a dull game marked chiefly by Joe Dimaggio, Seals outfielder, hitting safely in his 25th consecutive contest.

The Seals drove Hank Ulrich from the box in the first inning in a four run rally gained from Garibaldi's walk, singles by Powers, Marty and Rhyme and Dimaggio's double. Portland trailed throughout the contest, although an eighth inning rally netted two counters and resulted in Win Ballou giving way to Walter Mills. Mills halted the rally by fanning Claybaugh and forcing Rice to ground out.

Dimaggio chalked up two singles in addition to the double. Previously he had been credited with hitting safely in 26 games but a check revealed two postponed engagements in the last Seattle series had been counted in.

R. H. E.
7 13 2	Portland
11 15 0	San Francisco

Ulrich, Radonits and Richards; Ballou, Mills and Woodall.

R. H. E.
3 6 0	Los Angeles
6 15 4	Oakland

Gahler, Frazier and Goebel; McDonald and Raymond; Kies.

R. H. E.
15 21 1	Seattle
2 14 1	Hollywood

Bryan and Duggan; Kerr; Horne, E. Donovan and Desautels.

Mantrum Ahead. ST. PAUL, Minn., July 20.—(AP)—Ray Mantrum, Los Angeles pro, smashed par again today with a 69 to pair with his first round 67 to gain what appeared to be the sure halfway lead in the St. Paul open golf championship with a 36-hole aggregate of 136 shots.

Vanderbilt Horse Wins. SUFFOLK DOWNS, Boston, July 20.—(AP)—Discovery, Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt's four-year-old champion and world record holder, today beat A. Shaw's Gov. Scholts by 15 lengths as the mighty golden colt romped away with the $10,000 added Bunker Hill handicap.

ing, the Athletics came back in the second game today to win 5 to 2 and even a double header after the Cleveland Indians had overwhelmed them, 15 to 3, in the first encounter.

R. H. E.
18 21 0	Cleveland
3 8 1	Philadelphia

Lee and Phillips; Brenzel; Dietrich, Caster and Richards, Berry.

R. H. E.
2 6 2	Cleveland
5 9 0	Philadelphia

Winegarner and Phillips; Mahaffey and Richards.

St. Louis at New York, postponed; rain (two games tomorrow).

Brooklyn at St. Louis, postponed; rain.

Roseburg Beats Klamath. KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., July 20.—(AP)—The Roseburg American Legion Junior baseball team took advantage of opponents' errors and scored a 7 to 6 win over Klamath Falls here today in the district championship series.

R. H. E.
7 9 4	Roseburg
6 9 0	Klamath Falls

Batteries: Baker and Nell, McLain; Smith, Erickson and Schoeller.

Fighter Killed. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 20.—(AP)—Tommy Barry, former national AAU and golden glove boxing champion, and Eddie Shea, also an amateur boxer, were killed and three companions injured when the car in which they were riding sideswiped a truck near here early today.

Japan's first color prints are attributed to Torii Kiyonobu (1664-1729).

CUBS ROUT JINX: BOSTON DROPS 24 STRAIGHT GAMES

CHICAGO, July 20.—(AP)—The league leading New York Giants suffered their fourth defeat in six games in the west today as the Cubs, coupling a ten-hit attack off Roy Parmelee with effective pitching in the clutch by Larry French, won their second victory of the series, 7 to 2.

The defeat clipped the Giants' margin over the St. Louis Cardinals, whose game with Brooklyn was rained out, to 3½ games. It also marked another step in the Giants' tumble as Parmelee hadn't lost to the Cubs in three years. A similar record was shattered last Monday when Hal Schumacher lost to Cincinnati after beating the Reds regularly for an even longer period.

R. H. E.
2 12 3	New York
7 10 1	Chicago

Parmelee and Mancuso; French and Hartnett.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 20.—(AP)—The Boston Braves dropped both games of today's doubleheader with the Pirates, running their consecutive string of defeats to 24. The scores were 14 to 2 and 6 to 3.

R. H. E.
2 10 3	Boston
14 15 1	Pittsburgh

Frankhouse, R. Brown, Betts and Hogan, Mueller; Brown and Padden (second game).

R. H. E.
3 9 1	Boston
6 11 1	Pittsburgh

MacPayden and Spohrer; Weaver and Grace.

CINCINNATI, July 20.—(AP)—Off to an early start with four runs, scored on three doubles and a single off Tony Freitas, the Phillies defeated the Reds 9 to 5 today.

R. H. E.
9 14 0	Philadelphia
3 9 1	Cincinnati

Walters and Wilson; Freitas, Johnson, Schott, Hermann and Campbell.

Brooklyn at St. Louis, postponed; rain.

Roseburg Beats Klamath. KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., July 20.—(AP)—The Roseburg American Legion Junior baseball team took advantage of opponents' errors and scored a 7 to 6 win over Klamath Falls here today in the district championship series.

R. H. E.
7 9 4	Roseburg
6 9 0	Klamath Falls

Batteries: Baker and Nell, McLain; Smith, Erickson and Schoeller.

Fighter Killed. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 20.—(AP)—Tommy Barry, former national AAU and golden glove boxing champion, and Eddie Shea, also an amateur boxer, were killed and three companions injured when the car in which they were riding sideswiped a truck near here early today.

Japan's first color prints are attributed to Torii Kiyonobu (1664-1729).

ROGUES MEET K.F. AT FAIRGROUNDS IN SEASON WINDUP

The Medford Rogues are developing a positive penchant for spoiling the pennant chances of Southern Oregon league teams. Last Sunday they swamped the Ashland chances of showing in the league race, while Klamath Falls was winning over Grants Pass to practically cinch the pennant. Now, with the Colored Clowns game cancelled, the Red Sox and the Rogues will meet today at the fairgrounds here, and if the Rogues win, the Red Sox will have to play off another tie with Grants Pass for the pennant.

This situation seems to please the Rogues, for they have, individually and collectively, announced that they are going to wallop the Sox. In tones that admit no contradiction, to support them in their argument is the fact that the Red Sox are suckers for a right-handed pitcher. Twice out of three games the locals have defeated Klamath with "Hoosier" Hoffer in the box, and Hoffer says no claims toward being a great chucker. Chief McLean of Ashland, arguer right hander, has defeated the Red Sox twice, but Frankie Earhart of Grants Pass, a southpaw rated as a big league prospect, has had considerable difficulty against the Klamath lads.

Bushman, the great southpaw who has been hurling for Medford after starting the season with Ashland, will be shifted to right field, and Lee Wolfe, a right hander with everything on the ball, according to Hoffer, will start the game. Wolfe, Texan wrestler, pitched great ball against Ashland Sunday, and Hoffer thinks that once he has the kinks out of his throwing arm he will be unstoppable.

There have been no other changes in the regular lineup, but Hoffer has asked the fans to keep an eye on the work of Bouchard, 18-year-old sensation from Bellingham, behind the platter. Bouchard is rated by Hoffer as one of the best catchers he has ever had, and Medford has generally had good ones.

GRID FANS CAST VOTES FOR MORSE, GRANNIS, PANGLE

PORTLAND, Ore., July 20.—(AP)—Oregon football fans tonight were staging a last quarter rally and boosting their "big three" candidates up the scoreboard in the national poll to select an all-star football team to meet the Chicago Bears next month in a charity game.

Practically all ballots received here today carried the names of Butch Morse of Oregon, Loren Grannis of Willamette university and Hal Pangle of Oregon State.

Butch Morse, Oregon's all-coast end who had a head start and was getting votes from far-away Louisiana, the bay region of California and other parts of the nation, also held a slight edge in voting here.

Today he received 16,000 more votes here; Grannis, the Associated Press Little All-American guard of Willamette university was second with 14,891, and Hal Pangle, Oregon State blocking back, was third with 14,260.

A few "gesture" votes continued to roll in for Norman Franklin of Oregon State college, Alex Eagle of University of Oregon, and others. However, none received as many as 1000 votes here today, although many votes are being sent direct to Chicago.

Portland, now well organized in the balloting, continued to lead the parade today and Salem was making a better showing in support of Grannis and the others.

Eugene seemed to have been slow in organizing, but a heavy vote from Lane county was expected tomorrow. Southern Oregon also was swinging stronger behind Oregon's favorites.

All votes postmarked not later than midnight Sunday night will be counted.

SEATTLE, July 20.—(AP)—Hans Steine, 249-pound German, defeated Casey Kazanjian, 223, former Stanford university athlete, with a body slam in the fourth round of five in the main event of a wrestling show here last night.

RAIN HALTS PLAY U. S.-TEUTON TILT

WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 20.—(AP)—

A heavy rain today caused postponement of the second Davis cup tennis match between the United States and Germany after Donald Budge, California redhead, sent the Americans off to a triumphant start by outplaying Heiner Henkel, 7-5, 11-9, 6-8, 6-1, in the opening singles contest of the interzone finale.

Wilmer Allison, veteran Texan, and Baron Gottfried Von Cramm, German ace, paired in the second match, will meet Monday.

This will put back the entire series a day, with the doubles scheduled Tuesday and the concluding two singles contests scheduled Wednesday.

Butch Morse, Oregon's all-coast end who had a head start and was getting votes from far-away Louisiana, the bay region of California and other parts of the nation, also held a slight edge in voting here.

Today he received 16,000 more votes here; Grannis, the Associated Press Little All-American guard of Willamette university was second with 14,891, and Hal Pangle, Oregon State blocking back, was third with 14,260.

A few "gesture" votes continued to roll in for Norman Franklin of Oregon State college, Alex Eagle of University of Oregon, and others. However, none received as many as 1000 votes here today, although many votes are being sent direct to Chicago.

Portland, now well organized in the balloting, continued to lead the parade today and Salem was making a better showing in support of Grannis and the others.

Eugene seemed to have been slow in organizing, but a heavy vote from Lane county was expected tomorrow. Southern Oregon also was swinging stronger behind Oregon's favorites.

All votes postmarked not later than midnight Sunday night will be counted.

SEATTLE, July 20.—(AP)—Hans Steine, 249-pound German, defeated Casey Kazanjian, 223, former Stanford university athlete, with a body slam in the fourth round of five in the main event of a wrestling show here last night.

SEATTLE, July 20.—(AP)—Hans Steine, 249-pound German, defeated Casey Kazanjian, 223, former Stanford university athlete, with a body slam in the fourth round of five in the main event of a wrestling show here last night.

SEATTLE, July 20.—(AP)—Hans Steine, 249-pound German, defeated Casey Kazanjian, 223, former Stanford university athlete, with a body slam in the fourth round of five in the main event of a wrestling show here last night.

SEATTLE, July 20.—(AP)—Hans Steine, 249-pound German, defeated Casey Kazanjian, 223, former Stanford university athlete, with a body slam in the fourth round of five in the main event of a wrestling show here last night.

SEATTLE, July 20.—(AP)—Hans Steine, 249-pound German, defeated Casey Kazanjian, 223, former Stanford university athlete, with a body slam in the fourth round of five in the main event of a wrestling show here last night.

SEATTLE, July 20.—(AP)—Hans Steine, 249-pound German, defeated Casey Kazanjian, 223, former Stanford university athlete, with a body slam in the fourth round of five in the main event of a wrestling show here last night.

SEATTLE, July 20.—(AP)—Hans Steine, 249-pound German, defeated Casey Kazanjian, 223, former Stanford university athlete, with a body slam in the fourth round of five in the main event of a wrestling show here last night.

SEATTLE, July 20.—(AP)—Hans Steine, 249-pound German, defeated Casey Kazanjian, 223, former Stanford university athlete, with a body slam in the fourth round of five in the main event of a wrestling show here last night.

SEATTLE, July 20.—(AP)—Hans Steine, 249-pound German, defeated Casey Kazanjian, 223, former Stanford university athlete, with a body slam in the fourth round of five in the main event of a wrestling show here last night.

SEATTLE, July 20.—(AP)—Hans Steine, 249-pound German, defeated Casey Kazanjian, 223, former Stanford university athlete, with a body slam in the fourth round of five in the main event of a wrestling show here last night.

SEATTLE, July 20.—(AP)—Hans Steine, 249-pound German, defeated Casey Kazanjian, 223, former Stanford university athlete, with a body slam in the fourth round of five in the main event of a wrestling show here last night.

SEATTLE, July 20.—(AP)—Hans Steine, 249-pound German, defeated Casey Kazanjian, 223, former Stanford university athlete, with a body slam in the fourth round of five in the main event of a wrestling show here last night.

SEATTLE, July 20.—(AP)—Hans Steine, 249-pound German, defeated Casey Kazanjian, 223, former Stanford university athlete, with a body slam in the fourth round of five in the main event of a wrestling show here last night.

SEATTLE, July 20.—(AP)—Hans Steine, 249-pound German, defeated Casey Kazanjian, 223, former Stanford university athlete, with a body slam in the fourth round of five in the main event of a wrestling show here last night.

LEZAR DECISIONS SHUPECK TO KEEP MIDWEIGHT TITLE

Rudy Lezar, 156, South Fork's hard hitting battler, slashed his way to a close decision over Bill Shupeck, 153, Coos Head, to retain his Medford district middleweight title on the CCC fight card here Friday evening.

The Lezar-Shupeck main event climaxed a brilliant card sponsored by the American Legion and Elks lodges. Stan "Sik" Stockins, 132, China Flats, former Golden Gloves fighter from Chicago, defeated Jess Saviczyk, 133, South Fork, in another close battle to win the Medford district lightweight title.

Two heavyweights, Hank Woodbury, 189, Oak Knoll, and Bill Millard, 190, Yreka, engaged in a slug-ging match for two and a half rounds before Woodbury dropped his opponent for a technical knock-out in the third.

Wild Man Simmons, 163, of Bradford, and Russ Lobell, 161, of Headquarters Detachment, staged the most exciting bout of the evening from the crowd's standpoint. With both boys leading with their chins, they hit each other with hard rights and lefts for two rounds until Simmons put Lobell down for the count.

John Burgiel, 132, Coos Head, a smooth working scrapper, defeated Bill Martell, 132, Oak Knoll, in another heated battle. John Polopolos, 136, of the forest service warehouse, lost a lusterless decision to Dick Espinor, 141, of Oak Knoll.

Ted Petropoulos, 134, China Flats, and Joe Luchest, 134, Anna Springs, battled to a popular draw. George Burns, 122, Coos Head, won the nod over Al Liguori, 125, Anna Springs, in a hair-raising curtain raiser.

The Klitte Band of Ashland was present and took part in the show. Bill Bowman, new high school football coach, refereed.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

136, of the forest service warehouse, lost a lusterless decision to Dick Espinor, 141, of Oak Knoll.

Ted Petropoulos, 134, China Flats, and Joe Luchest, 134, Anna Springs, battled to a popular draw. George Burns, 122, Coos Head, won the nod over Al Liguori, 125, Anna Springs, in a hair-raising curtain raiser.

The Klitte Band of Ashland was present and took part in the show. Bill Bowman, new high school football coach, refereed.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

In The Good Old Days

—gentlemen traveled from house to house with packing cases reeking of sandalwood, and filled with gaudy embroideries, laces and tapestries. Women bought their wares—but too often learned that it would be wiser not to! The local merchant makes himself worthy of confidence because he is always where you can reach him... Women have learned that—as well as the importance of regular saving so they can have private funds for buying "pretties".

The First National Bank

• A Departmentized Bank •
COMMERCIAL—SAVINGS—TRUST DEPARTMENT—SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS

"I'm glad that you like the new drapes and interior finish of my home. I've paid for every bit of it by selling odds and ends of things I've stored away and never use. Mail Tribune Classified ads certainly brought ready buyers. You girls probably have lots of things packed away that someone else can use. Why not advertise them in the Mail Tribune and have a little extra spending money. Classified ads cost so little and I've always had splendid results. You can either give your address or phone number or place a "blind" ad so that answers will be sent to a box number at the Mail Tribune office—that service costs no more."

Extra Spending Money For You!

LOOK over YOUR accumulated possessions—there are undoubtedly a number of articles that others are looking for every day—and what finer way is there to get a little spending money for "extras" around the home or your own pleasures.

MAIL TRIBUNE CLASSIFIED ADS Get Results!

Here Are The RATES

Per word first insertion..... 2c
(Minimum 25c)
Each additional insertion, per word 1c
(Minimum 10c)
Per line per month without copy changes.....$1.25