

COUNTY BRIEFS

Willow Springs

WILLOW SPRINGS, July 26.—(Spl.)—Mrs. Clyde Richmond is quite ill and confined to her bed. Her daughter, Mrs. Frank Allen, is staying with her.

Mrs. Thomas Harrison, who has been in poor health for several weeks, is somewhat improved.

The Mail Tribune of July 24 stated in its Ten Years Ago Today column, "The Willow Springs Apricot Pie club held their annual meeting." This club is still in existence, although the members are widely scattered. They still meet almost every summer to enjoy a feast of apricot pie.

Harry Elden left here by motor last Saturday for a vacation trip in the northern part of the state and in Washington. He visited at Corvallis and Portland. He will join Marion Caster at Camp Lewis and they will visit Seattle and other points of interest before returning here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Ramstrom and son, Carl, spent Sunday at Prospect as guests of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Stark.

Earnest Dewise is remodeling the house on the Fred Gaskal place near Eagle Point. He will have several weeks' work there.

James Vincent underwent an operation for the removal of his tonsils last Saturday at a Medford hospital. He suffered a severe hemorrhage on Sunday, but is improving slowly and is now at home.

Miss Leah Parker has been camping the past three weeks at Camp Chaparral in the Santa Cruz mountains, and is visiting friends in San Francisco. Miss Parker has accepted a position as Girl Scout local director at Eugene and begins her work September 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Anderson have entertained a large family party during the month of July. Over the Fourth they had as house guests their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Anderson of Kamnia, Oregon, and their daughter, Miss Clara, of Portland. Mrs. Frank Adams and two children of Sacramento, Cal., were guests here for a few days, as was Mrs. George Murray of Portland. Both ladies are sisters of Mrs. Anderson.

Mrs. Albert Anderson and four children returned to their home in Portland this week after two weeks' stay. Albert was also a guest of his parents for a few days.

Miss Gertrude Nelson of Medford was a guest of Mrs. Anderson's granddaughter, Gloria, during her stay here.

Sams Valley

SAMS VALLEY, July 26.—(Spl.)—Ladies' club enjoyed a picnic last Thursday on the banks of the river at Bybee bridge. A basket dinner, swimming and recreation rounded out the day and the members voted to hold another such affair August 15 on the river banks near the Lyman place.

During the electric storm Sunday night lightning struck a transformer on the Copco power line at the Garrett place putting two families in the dark and about the same time, ignited a shock of grain in the Straus field. The dampness of the grain and the immediate discovery of the fire prevented the Straus grain crop going up in flames.

A new roof is being put on the school house by parties from McCloud.

Threshing is being held up by the stormy weather with grain men anxiously awaiting to get crops threshed and stored.

Matrimony seems to be the fad among Sams Valley residents for the month of July. The 2nd of July Mrs. Mary Magruder was married to Lloyd Clark of Grants Pass and will make her home at Gold Hill. The bride is a well known teacher in Jackson county and has contracted to teach her 3rd term of school at the Mead-ows.

The seventh of July the wedding of Miss Frances Arnold and Edward Williams took place at the Arnolds' residence in Medford, where the couple will make their future home. Both young people are well known here.

The following is a clipping from the Willows, Calif., paper concerning the marriage of Miss Mary Edington July 15 to A. B. Collett of Williams, Ore. and Arlie Benton Collett, Williams, Ore. school principal were married yesterday at the J. H. Butterbaugh home by Rev. H. S. Saxley. Mrs. Wretha B. West and Ivan Butterbaugh were the attendants.

Collett is a nephew of Mrs. Butterbaugh. "The couple enjoyed a visit of several days with the Butterbaughs and Tom West families." The couple is well known throughout Jackson county.

The bride was a former school girl of this district and the groom served as high school principal in the Sams Valley school for nine years. After visiting relatives through the middle-west they will return to Williams where the groom will be principal for this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Billie Mofford and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barlow of Boardman, are house guests of Ella and Glenn Garrett this week.

Mrs. Rose Crawford, Mrs. Dick Straus and Mrs. John Cole spent a two weeks' outing at the Holcomb Springs, returning to their home July 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tonn of Central Point visited home folks here Monday evening.

During the recent stormy weather very little rain fell in the immediate vicinity of Sams Valley, but several hard showers are reported from hill-side homes.

Foots Creek

FOOTS CREEK, July 26.—(Spl.)—Mrs. Floyd Bowers and father, Mr. Boomsliter, and her brother Nelson have returned from California, where they were called by the death of Mrs. Bowers' husband, who was killed in an auto accident while enroute to Pasadena. They were met at Bakerfield by Mr. Bowers' brother-in-law, Dr. Kleister, of Pasadena. The funeral was held in his former home.

Mr. Bowers came here from Pasadena two years ago and was engaged in mining on the left fork of the creek, and made many friends while here who were grieved to hear of his death. Mrs. Bowers has the sympathy of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. George Koster, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Griggs and Frank Irish were Grants Pass visitors this week.

IT'S BETTER TASTING GIN... THAT'S WHY THEY DARE ADVERTISE

"YOU CAN DRINK IT STRAIGHT"

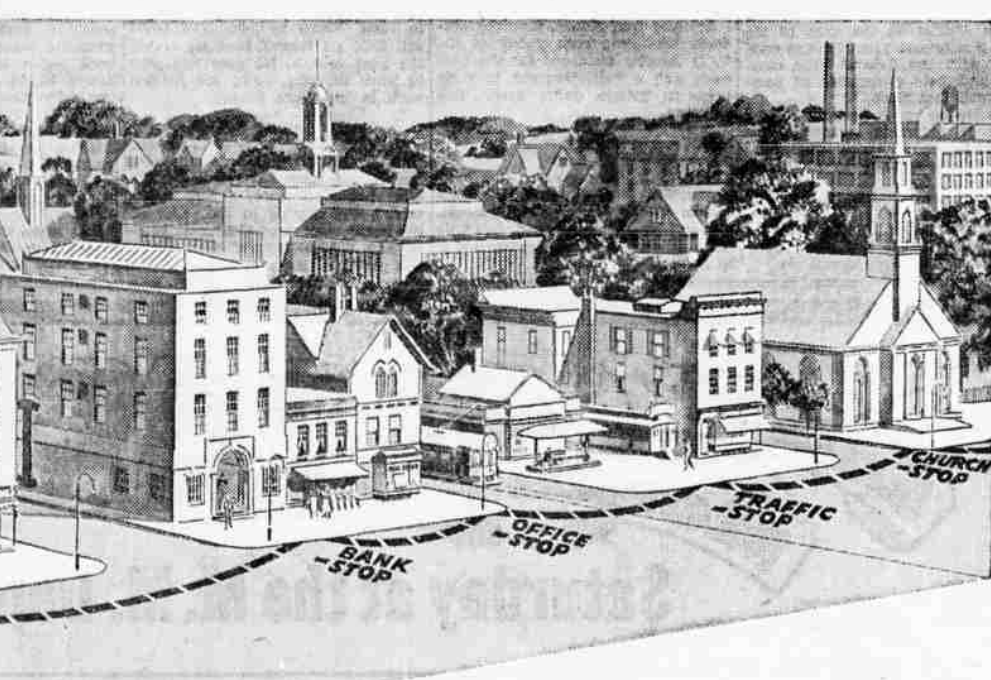

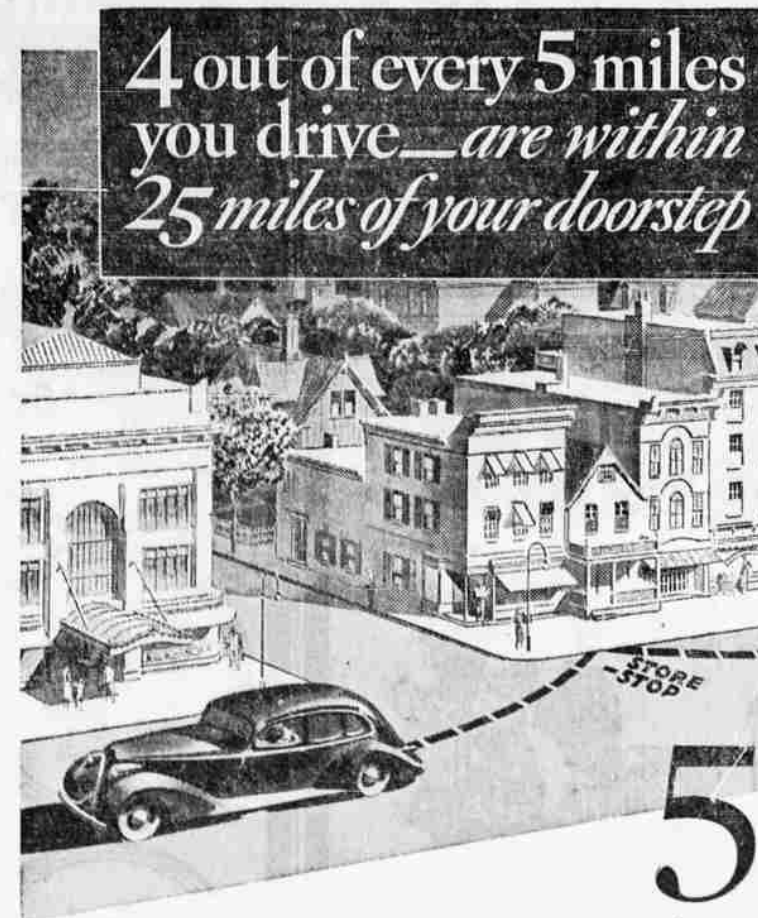

OLD MR. BOSTON Distilled DRY GIN

There's a radio broadcast into which an announcer can put all the sincerity he's got. You most certainly CAN drink Old Mr. Boston Gin straight. In fact, that's just the way I like it. I figure such grand gin flavor is far too good to mix, although I'm raising no arguments with the millions who think it's swell in cocktails. Old Mr. Boston is great all ways, even in price.
