ASSIGN $125,000 TO HIGHWAY WORK SOUTH OF ASHLAND

Commission Adds $6,275,000 in Allocations of Federal Funds—Siskiyou Grading Given $120,000

PORTLAND, Ore., July 26.—(AP)—The Oregon highway commission today added about $6,275,000 in road allocations to a previous assignment of $1,249,500 in highway money which is to be supplied by the federal government for construction in this state. The total available from the government is $9,147,177.

The largest single allocation at today's meeting was $467,000 to the Wolf Creek highway. The next largest was the appropriation of $250,000 for the Wilson River highway. Two new roads were added to the system. One will be from Pendleton to Stanfield, a relocation of the Old Oregon Trail, and $145,000 was given toward the work. The other will consist of $200,000 worth of work for the Junction City-Eugene project.

For reconstruction of the Turkey Hill section of the Pacific highway in Douglas county, $116,000 was set aside, and an allotment of $120,000 was made for work on the Siskiyou mountain section of this road.

The Neskahmie project will benefit by $150,000 from today's allocation.

Funds in Three Classes

The federal money is in three classes. One is the regular federal aid in which the state contributes about 40 per cent; another is a 100 per cent grant for unemployment relief, and the third a grant for grade separations.

In making the allotment, the highway commission took the same factors used by the federal government—population, road mileage, and area. In the other two classes the apportionment was based on relief need.

The regular federal aid program as apportioned follows:

Eagle Creek bridge near Bonneville, $95,000. Bonneville grading and paving $160,000. Bridges and pavement on federal aid highway routes in Portland $180,000. Linton-Columbia county line, grading and paving $118,000.

Approaches to Coos Bay bridge, grading and surfacing $80,000. Approaches to Umpqua bridge, grading and surfacing $145,000.

$120,000 To Siskiyou

Siskiyou mountain section grading $120,000. Valley Falls-Paisley section Fremont highway widening, surfacing and oiling $110,000.

Klamath Falls-Midland section, surface and oiling $100,000. Klamath river bridge and overcrossing south of Klamath Falls $160,000. Valades ranch-Stewart bridge section John Day highway, regrade, surfacing and oiling, $100,000.

Gales-Tunnel section Old Oregon Trail grading and topping $100,000. Pendleton-Stanfield section old Oregon Trail, grading $145,000.

Highway relief program allocations follow:

Wolf Creek highway, Nehalem river east, grading $250,000. Wolf Creek highway, Sunset Camp west, grading $200,000. Wilson River highway-Brooks east grading $220,000. Wilson creek-Brooks east, bridges and culverts $30,000.

Neskahmie Mt. Tunnel section Coast highway grading $150,000. Rainer section Columbia river highway grading and paving $40,000. Approaches to Alesia bridge $16,000. Improvement of highway routes in Portland $280,000.

Salem-south section Pacific highway grading $54,000. South approach of Yaquina bay bridge $48,000. South Santiam highway grading $100,000. Toledo-Oalla section Corvallis-Newport highway grading $105,000.

Wolf Creek highway bridges $28,000. Astoria section Columbia river highway, grading and paving $53,000. Clackamas River bridge at Estacada $90,000.

Ashland-Nell creek section Pacific highway grading $125,000. Junction City-Eugene grading $200,000. Island City-Ove road oiling $40,000. I. O. N. highway, Oxyhee river east grading and bridge $85,000.

Markets

Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, July 26.—(AP)—The stock market got back on its feet today with the aid of the utilities, metals and assorted specialties.

While the trading pace was slower than that of yesterday's profit taking session, selective demand seemed to reassert itself. The close was fairly firm. Transfers approximated 980,000 shares.

Followers of the power group were heartened by signs of renewed opposition in congress to the "death sentence" clause in the holding company bill.

BUTTER MARKET CONTINUES QUIET

PORTLAND, July 26.—(AP)—Market for butter continued quiet with production little changed from the last few days. Supply was still greater than immediate needs of the trade with resulting movement into storage.

Egg quotations remained unchanged.

In the live chicken trade light broilers alone were scarce but there was plenty of other broilers to take care of demand. All chicken prices were unchanged.

Live ducks were extremely hard to move at this period. The weather has been against sale to the Chinese, who were the principal buyers.

Other officers are Frank DeSouza, Medford, first vice president; George Hartman, Pendleton, second vice president; N. J. Nelson, Cottage Grove, third vice president, and Winifred G. Wisecarver of McMinnville, secretary-treasurer.

Harrison Parkman of Washington, D. C., purchasing agent and administrative assistant to Postmaster Farley, told the Oregon postmasters that the postal service ended last year's operation with a surplus, built up by anonymous cost-cutting and insistence upon introduction of business-like methods in the postal service.

Parkman said Postmaster Farley had been "wrongfully attacked" by the press.
