

EXILES WATCH CRISIS IN MEXICO

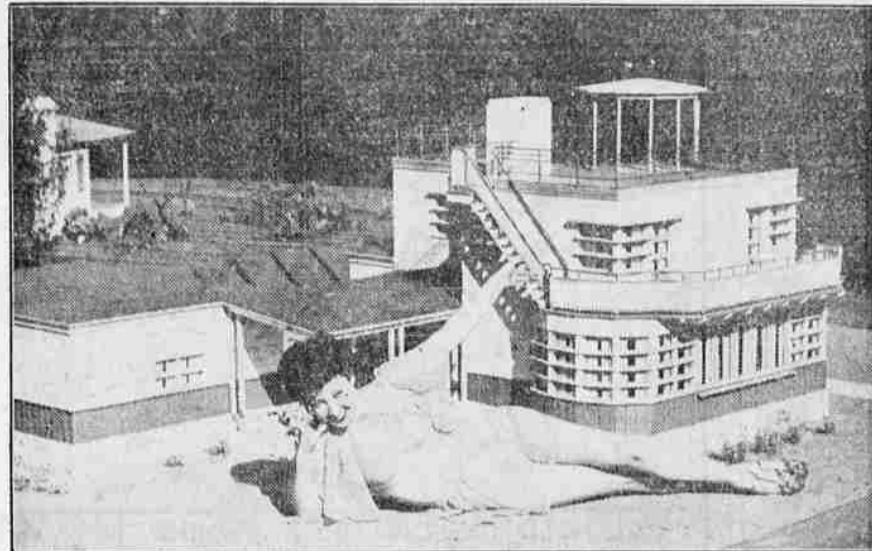

Two former Mexican officials, exiled from their homeland because of political beliefs, plan an early return while watching the present Mexican crisis in their Los Angeles refuge. Shown are Col. Ricardo Topete (left), president of Obregon's congress, and his brother, Fausto Topete, ex-governor of Sonora and leader of the revolution of 1929. (Associated Press Photo)

CANADIAN MOUNTIES ROUT STRIKERS WITH TEAR GAS

Scores were injured, including eight policemen, when 200 striking longshoremen and 800 sympathizers charged the Ballantyne pier in Vancouver, B. C. Tear gas and clubs were used in breaking up the scrap. Strikers are shown fleeing from tear gas. (Associated Press Photo)

SIZE COMPARISON OF VILLAGE GIVEN BY "GIANTESS"

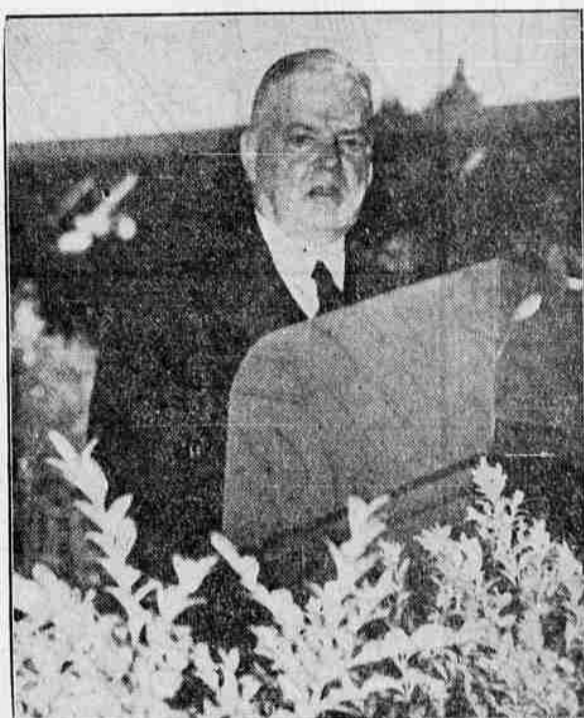

Modeltown, the perfect miniature village exhibited by the FRA at the San Diego, Calif., exposition has each residence, perfect in detail, and each one was designed by a different outstanding American architect. A size comparison of this modern beach home designed by Gordon Kauffman is given by pretty Joy Williams. (Associated Press Photo)

WAR TIME MINISTER IN NEW ROLE

William Hughes, 70, who won world recognition as war-time prime minister of Australia, is playing a new role now as minister of health, leading a campaign to reduce the maternal mortality rate. He's visiting a little friend at a Melbourne maternity home. (Associated Press Photo)

HOOVER OFFERS SOCIAL PROGRAM

Stanford's most distinguished alumnus, former President Herbert Hoover, addressing the 1935 graduating class at the 44th annual commencement exercises of the California university. He gave a 10-point social security plan based on the constitution and declared the future of the nation depended on business freedom. (Associated Press Photo)

BRITAIN KEEPS OPEN CUP AT HOME

Alfred Perry (left) British Ryder cup veteran, won the British open golf championship at Muirfield, Scotland, to give Great Britain firmer grip on the world's foremost golf trophy, long held by Americans. He is shown with Henry Cotton, last year's winner. (Associated Press Photo)

Damage estimated in excess of $400,000 was done when flames destroyed the Taylor Milling Company plant at Stockton, Calif. A section of the wall is shown plunging downward during the height of the fire. One fireman was injured by falling bricks. (Associated Press Photo)

CONVICTS SURRENDER IN MUTINY

Abandoning their underground revolt in the coal mine of the state prison at Lansing, Kas., after a day and night, 348 convicts emerged from the shaft. A group of the inmates after their "surrender" being checked at the surface. (Associated Press Photo)

SENATORS DISCUSS TAX LEVY DELAY

Senator King (left) of Utah and Chairman Harrison of the senate finance committee as they discussed the delay in committee action of the administration tax-the-rich program. Drafting experts asked more time to work out tentative rate schedules. (Associated Press Photo)

SCIENCE DENIES HER A NAME

Gurgling happily in her crib in New York Foundling hospital, Theresa Helene, eight months old, was unaware when this picture was taken that science had decreed her illegitimate. Her mother, Dolores Farrell, brought suit against a 20-year-old student, insisting he was the father of her child—but the test, physicians said, showed it was impossible for him to have been the father. (Associated Press Photo)

LAD TESTIFIES AGAINST MOTHER

"I don't care if I never see my mother again. I never loved her much." With these words 10-year-old Eric DeBrath, pictured above on the witness stand in an Oakland, Calif., courtroom, testified during proceedings brought by his mother, Mrs. Gloria Wainwright of Tahiti, to regain custody of Eric and his sister, Eve, 7, from Mrs. Grey Worswick, Alameda, Calif., society matron who claims custody under an "education agreement." (Associated Press Photo)

FIGHTS TRIP TO ALCATRAZ

In an attempt to prevent his return to California where he faces three state court sentences, Jacob Berman (right) was taken from the train in Chicago enroute from Lewisburg, Pa., to Alcatraz island penitentiary on a writ of habeas corpus hearing. Berman had but a week to serve of his federal sentence. (Associated Press Photo)

Given Film Contract

Seventeen-year-old Marsha Hunt, New York dramatic school student was given a seven-year optional contract with a Hollywood motion picture company. (Associated Press Photo)

Sails for Hawaii

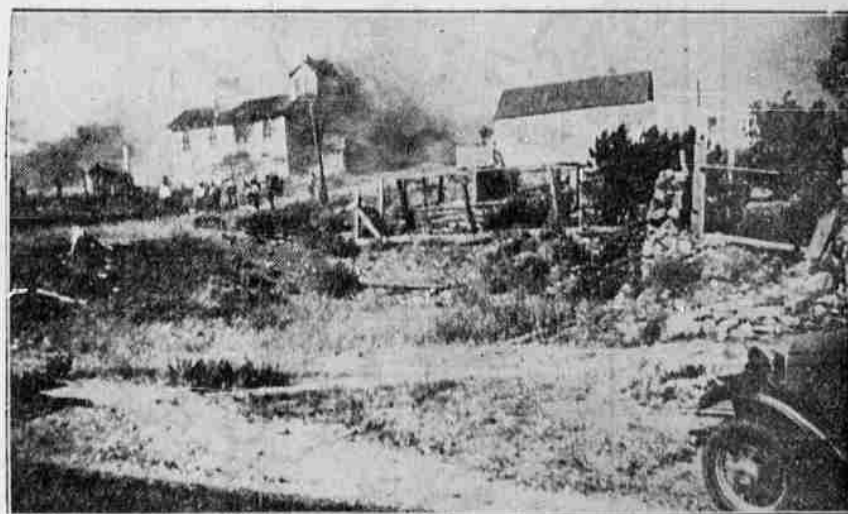

Heber J. Grant, president of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints, as he sailed from San Francisco aboard the Lurline for Hawaii where he was to dedicate a new stake, or territorial division of the Mormon church. (Associated Press Photo)

Accepts Challenge

Jean Borotra, French tennis ace, has accepted a challenge to fight a duel in Paris with Didier Poulain, French sports writer, over an alleged insult. (Associated Press Photo)

HISTORIC MINING TOWN NEARLY DESTROYED BY FIRE

One man was burned to death and approximately a third of Silver City, Nev., historic Comstock Lode mining town, was destroyed by fire. The large building in this picture is the Episcopal Church, built in 1870. (Associated Press Photo)