Miss Parsons and Fiance Honored at Supper and Shower

The week's social activity was closed last evening with one of the most interesting events of the summer, when Mrs. Robert Maents and Miss Dorothy Roberts entertained at the George M. Roberts home on Crown Hill in honor of Miss Mary Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Parsons of Seattle and Hillcrest and her fiance, John Day, son of Judge and Mrs. Earl B. Day.

The event was in the form of a shower and buffet supper, the decorative motif being blue. Lovely gifts to the bride-to-be were wrapped in corresponding blue. There were 20 guests.

Since news of the betrothal, members of the young social set of the valley have planned numerous affairs that will continue to mark the calendar until the day of the wedding.

Hurd-Waterhouse Engagement Told in Honolulu, T. H.

Joe Hurd's many friends will be interested in the following announcement, which appeared in recent issues of Honolulu papers.

"Mr. and Mrs. John Waterhouse announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Martha Waterhouse, to Joubert B. Hurd. The marriage will take place in New York city on November 18. Mr. Hurd is head of the Mason Navigation company in London, England. The two met on the mainland and have known each other for nine years. Miss Waterhouse is a graduate of Punahou and of Wellesley. The bridegroom-elect is a Stanford graduate. Miss Waterhouse will sail from Honolulu in September."

Mr. Hurd is a graduate of the Medford high school and the son of the late Attorney E. H. Hurd and Mrs. Hurd of 1136 W. 10th street.

Eugene McGranes Visit With Leaches During Past Week

Last week was "old home" week for Mr. and Mrs. Eugene L. McGrane of Vallejo, Calif., who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Leach. Mrs. McGrane will be remembered as the former Margaret English, whose father was superintendent of the Mail Tribune printing shop.

Mr. and Mrs. McGrane were returning from a "cruise" tour from San Francisco through the Panama Canal to New York City to Columbus, Ohio, where Mr. McGrane attended the national Elks convention, thence to Seattle by way of Lake Louise and Banff. During their brief stay in Medford, they were the inspiration for a series of delightful informal parties.

In their honor, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pace entertained with a dinner and dance at Boney's Grill, Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Leach entertained for Mr. and Mrs. McGrane with a dinner party at their country home near Central Point, Wednesday evening. Letters from absent members of the old Serious Ten club, including Doris Layne Henderson of Seattle, Redlith Jones Skoglund and Edna Marquis Howard of Portland, were read. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. McGrane, Mrs. Robert Kent, Mrs. A. E. Watson of Grants Pass, Della Whisenant, Eunice Davis, Mrs. A. E. Stratton and the host and hostess.

About 25 old friends and former schoolmates called during the course of the evening to greet the honor guests.

Honoring Mrs. McGrane, Mrs. Geo. Henselman entertained Thursday with a luncheon at her home on West Main. Those present were: Mrs. McGrane, Mrs. A. E. Dean, Mrs. Henry Pace, Mrs. Warren Butler, Mrs. Roland Hubbard, Mrs. Leach and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. McGrane left Thursday evening for their home in Vallejo.

Surprise Shower And House Party At Currier Home

Mrs. George Currier was delightfully surprised Friday afternoon when a group of friends and neighbors gathered at her lovely new home, 403 South Hamilton street, for a house warming. The ladies gave her a towel shower.

After a tour of inspection through the house, the group gathered in the living room about the piano to sing old favorite songs. A poem, "Out of the Old House into the New" by Carlotta, to dedicate the new home was read by Mrs. Emma Trowbridge. Then the ladies participated in a flower contest, won by Mrs. Sawyer.

Refreshments of food tea and cookies were served at 4 o'clock by the hostess, Mrs. Emma Trowbridge, assisted by Miss Georgia Currier. The social hour closed with everyone singing "Old Long Syne."

Those present were Mrs. Laura Cornwell, Mrs. Lillian Jaqua, Mrs. H. P. Spilver, Mrs. Belle Littrell, Miss Agnes Phillips, Mrs. Nellie Poole, Mrs. Phyllis Hewitt, Mrs. J. H. Young, Mrs. E. Iverson, Mrs. Sawyer, Mrs. F. Hagerty, Mrs. F. Lindley, and Mrs. Emma Trowbridge.

Trips Continue In Popularity During Busy Past Week

While entertainment in the valley has centered this week around visitors who have come to Medford and vicinity to spend a part of the summer, the calendar has also listed many local society folk who are taking advantage of the vacation season with trips away from home.

Among the most recent departures are Mr. and Mrs. A. S. V. Carpenter, who left on the midnight plane Friday for Pasadena, Cal., where they will be guests of Mrs. Carpenter's mother, Mrs. John Blue, for ten days.

Before leaving, Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter entertained at dinner Friday evening, having as guests, Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Aldrich, Miss Mary Louise Carpenter, Miss Anne Scherer, Dunbar Carpenter and Harlow Carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Chandler Bean were expected to return to Medford this week, but instead are spending a few days longer at their summer home at Pebble Beach. They motored south July 17.

Other vacationists during the past several days included Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Field, son, Harvey, Jr., and daughter, Jeanette, who returned Friday from a motor trip north. After spending a few days at Diamond Lake they drove through the McKenzie pass to Newport and Bend, returning home via the coast highway through Crescent City.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mikache and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hutchinson are others vacationing along the coast. They left recently to spend several days at Bandon By The Sea.

Vacation guests at Mrs. M. M. Snider's summer cabin at Shady Cove during the past several days have been Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Valentin of Eugene, who left Saturday for their home.

Deborah Tomy Is
Honoree at Dance

Twenty-six members of the very young social set were entertained July 23 at a delightful dance given at St. Mark's parish by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tomy for their daughter, Miss Deborah. The occasion was the honor guest's birthday. The guests who enjoyed the affair ranged in age from 14 to 16.

The W. C. T. U.

A very enjoyable gathering took place Thursday when nearly sixty members and friends of the W. C. T. U. from Medford, Ashland, Rogue River and Grants Pass met in the park at Rogue River for a bi-county picnic and picnic. Reese Creek members were unable to attend. County President Mrs. Augusta McCormick presided at both sessions.

The morning meeting opened with pep songs followed by an inspiring devotional service conducted by Mrs. Daisy Douglas of Medford. Mrs. Sams, president of Rogue River Union, was enjoyed in a reading, "Pledge with Wine." Mesdames Wm. Hill and Paul Byers of Ashland sang a duet, "Jesus Loves Me." Mrs. Marietta Pratt led the noontide prayer.

At noon all joined for picnic lunch and enjoyed the opportunity to become better acquainted with one another. The afternoon session was opened with an address by Rev. Giewitz of Rogue River who touched briefly on failure of repeal to do away with juvenile delinquency or to do away with unemployment. He also spoke of an increase in crime since repeal.

Rev. E. A. Oldenburg of Medford gave a talk on narcotics, speaking of the different narcotic drugs and the effect of each on the user. He particularly emphasized the rapidly increasing use of the marihuana cigarette. Mr. Oliver of Medford was enjoyed in a number of readings and impersonations relating to his early work in the temperance cause.

Mrs. Lulu Howard of Ashland presented the topic of Temperance and Missions in an interesting way. Mrs. Ellen Thrasher of Grants Pass led an enthusiastic discussion on the work of the Loyal Temperance Legion, of which she is state director. Mrs. Hayes gave the report of the resolutions committee. The president named Mesdames Pratt, Littrell, Sams and Byers as a nominating committee to report at the county convention to be held in Ashland, September 26.
