Ye Smudge Pot
By Arthur Perry
Scenic beauty lovers of the state protest unsightly shackles along the highways, but nothing is said about those wobbling down the highways on a trailer.

Reporters from London say that European diplomats, striving to prevent a war between Ethiopia and Italy, "are endeavoring to swing Mussolini."

Norman Woodpecker, Jr. was fined $5 hickory nuts for recklessly coasting on a "No Hunting" sign.

MISQUOTATION is always immoral. And sometimes, inexcusable. Why misquote, for instance, Such an easily obtainable book as the Bible?

IMPRISONED DOG AIDS OWN RESCUE
FORESTON, Minn., July 28.—(AP)—Untimely peak of the school bell sent neighbors hurrying to the building here, not knowing what to expect.

Sarajevo to Ethiopia
M. TROTZKY predicted the other day there would be war between Italy and Ethiopia, and this war would lead to another European war.

Unquestionably Europe is again a powder magazine. A spark in Africa, may well do in 1935, what a spark did at Sarajevo in 1914.

HOWEVER, we may well be mistaken. It is wise, at any rate, to REALIZE that in the modern world, so closely knit together economically, and therefore politically, war in one section of this commercial unit, may well lead to war in other sections,—perhaps in all.

THE Mail Tribune heartily agrees with the resolution passed by the Oregon Republican clubs, against the prevailing abuse of the recall.

Amendment!
The wordings of this resolution is in complete accord with what this paper has maintained for many years.

back to the wagon days and the trail of night ride. Probably the men who did it as much as any to keep the chancery alive were the late Clara Briggs and Harry Stacey, syndicate man and once a circus picnic agent.

Julius Tannen, after a sabbatical year in California, is back in Rialto circulation and swapping fast ones with Broadway's nimble witted.

In a word it is plain unadulterated blackmail and nothing else. It is greatly to the credit of the Oregon Republican clubs, that they have taken this action at this time, the chief effect of which, will be to give encouragement and uphold the hands of an outstanding representative of the opposing party.

NEW YORK DAY BY DAY
By O. O. McIntyre
NEW YORK, July 28.—(AP)—A scolding morning. Earl Carroll came by for breakfast and sat at my mail, especially pleased with an autograph.

From London Sketch: McIntyre often wrote his columns and sent out some a Cinderella paragraph. Often it still remains a pumpkin, too.

VITAMIN B AND METABOLISM.
Jesus Laird Brodie, of the Collins Laboratory of Nutritional Research, Oregon University medical school, found that ten out of twenty-three young in four litters of albino rats had pyloric stenosis or obstruction if the mother's diet was poor in vitamin B.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.
Wiscare Parents and Poor Child.
Three year old boy complains bitterly of thirst and hunger and is underweight. His parents will not permit him to have any food or water or even milk after 5 o'clock dinner, because some doctor told them that would prevent bed-wetting.—Mrs. T. P. W.

Another notion of mine—Just Old Doc Brady speculating, without a single rat or guinea pig to back me up—as that it is mainly vitamin B which has to do with the vital matter of overeating. What I mean is that I suspect the reason why so many persons have such an abnormal craving, hunger or fondness for the carbohydrates (which are mainly responsible for obesity) is that they do not get sufficient vitamin B.

Incidentally, Mrs. Megenhan recently rented a house for the summer at Cape Cod. The treasury secretary got away last week-end, to see the house for the first time. He liked it, inquired about the identity of the neighbor in the large house next door. It then developed for the first time that the next door neighbor was Joe Kennedy, the chairman of the SBC McKenna, also was weekend-ing with his family.

A major Washington misunderstanding seems to have arisen around the fact that Mrs. Garner has gone home. A sharp-eyed newsman noted her disappearance and concluded that this indicated congress would not be long adjourning. The story spread far and wide.

Comment on the Day's News
By FRANK JENKINS
HERE are two highly interesting paragraphs in the news: "Communiste ripped the German flag, with the Nazi swastika superimposed, from the bow of the liner Bremen in New York harbor early today, hurled it into the swirling Hudson and precipitated a bruising fight between nearly 2,000 of their own number and 375 policemen."

SO MUCH for what happened in New York. Let's now take a look at what happened in Germany, which is told in the following paragraph from a Berlin dispatch: "The German press tonight demanded diplomatic intervention and an apology from Washington for the incident at New York in which the German flag was torn from the stern of the steamship Bremen."

IT is exceedingly easy for us to SAY that the thing for us to do is to stay out of Europe's quarrel, but this incident shows us that it isn't so easy to STAY OUT. It is unthinkable, of course, that we should permit a mob of wild-eyed communists to precipitate us headlong into a foreign war, and no such thing will happen in this instance.

ANOTHER interesting dispatch: "More than 50 persons are believed to have been killed when an explosion shattered the Bickford-Smith munitions factory near Varese, Italy, today."

SALEM, July 29.—(AP)—The first portion of the $1,800,000 federal grant for construction of the five Oregon coast bridges was received here when $350,000 was telegraphed to the account of the Oregon highway department Saturday.

SPENDING of loss of life, this dispatch is interesting—especially to those who still refuse to ride in airplanes. "Four persons were killed at Milwaukee (Wisconsin) today when an airplane crashed as it was landing at the Curtis-Wright airport."

NEIGHBORS. Incidentally, Mrs. Megenhan recently rented a house for the summer at Cape Cod. The treasury secretary got away last week-end, to see the house for the first time. He liked it, inquired about the identity of the neighbor in the large house next door. It then developed for the first time that the next door neighbor was Joe Kennedy, the chairman of the SBC McKenna, also was weekend-ing with his family.

THAT gives us something to think about. When—or IF—there are as many airplanes as there now are automobiles, what will the toll of accidental death be? BUT this much is certain. No matter what the death toll may be when that time comes, plenty of people will still be found to ride both airplanes and automobiles.
