

O'Mahoney Undisputed World's Mat Champion

ED GEORGE CAST FROM RING, LOSES TITLE IN 1 FALL

Champion Braddock Referees, Floors Irate Second After Decision—45,000 See Hectic Melee.

BOSTON, July 31.—(AP)—Danno O'Mahoney, a 22-year-old Irishman, was hailed today as the first undisputed wrestling champion since the palmy days of Ed "Strangler" Lewis.

Before a Braves field crowd estimated at 45,000, O'Mahoney gained a 90-minute, one-fall victory over Ed George, title claimant, last night by tossing him out of the ring.

Under the prevailing code, which the announcer described as "world championship rules," George had 20 seconds in which to regain the ring.

When he failed to return in that time the referee, Jimmy Braddock, heavyweight boxing champion, declared the Irishman the victor.

This decision enraged the George camp and his seconds stormed into the ring. One of them, Frank Delamano, tried to attack Braddock, and the conqueror of Max Baer fell called on to launch a fight to the jaw that floored he would be assailant.

Shortly before being counted out, George twice hurled his opponent over the ropes.

Other results were:

Jim Browning, 235, New York, defeated Chief Little Moose, 240, Tulsa, Okla., one fall, 10:00.

Boston, threw Boris Demetoff, Hopkinsville, N. Y., one fall.

NAW, YOU FORGET! NOW WHEN—

That's the way the conversation went when George Van Haltern (left) and Ed George gathered with others of halldom's old timers for a three-night affair in San Francisco. Van Haltern started with the Chicago Nationals in 1887 and Knightly played with San Jose in '92. They had much fun arguing over happenings of the past. (Associated Press Photo)

DUNDEE SUSTAINS BROKEN JAW BY STEEL KNOCKOUT

Veteran Floored Eleven Times in Three Rounds by Tacoma Fighter in Hospital.

SEATTLE, July 31.—(AP)—Vince Dundee, former middleweight champion, of Baltimore, has a broken jaw well back on the left side "clear through the jaw" and is suffering from a slight concussion of the brain, Dr. H. T. Buckner said today after viewing X-ray pictures following Dundee's knockout here last night by Freddie Steele of Tacoma.

"The break is between the second and third molars," Dr. Buckner said. "There was no fracture of the skull. He will be confined to the hospital for a week or so and shouldn't do any fighting for three months or more."

Steele took the veteran's measure by a technical knockout here last night when Referee Tommy McCarthy stopped the fight in the third round of what was listed as a 10-round bout. Dundee was knocked down 11 times by Steele's slashing, two-handed attack before the fight ended.

The Baltimore boy had a five-pound advantage in the weight, coming in at 160½ pounds, while Steele weighed 155½.

The opening round was only a few seconds old when Steele half punched, half pushed his opponent to the floor. Vince bounced up without taking a count, only to run into a withering barrage of punches that sent him down for nine. From then until the end, the 22-year-old Tacoma had things all his own way.

In the eight-round semi-final, Cecil Payne, 136½ pounds, Louisville, Ky., pounded out a decision over Perfecto Lopez, 134½, Los Angeles Mexican. Payne held the edge most of the way, despite Perfecto's looping overhead blows.

CADDIES STRIKE FOR HIGHER WAGE ON LOCAL LINKS

There is no immediate necessity of calling out the state police or the national guard, President Harry McMahon announced today, but nevertheless caddies at Rogue River Valley golf club are on a determined strike. The purpose—higher wages.

Climaxing several weeks of secret organization, the caddies have united in a determined manner, advancing upon golf club officials as an authorized strike committee.

They have presented a Bill of Rights, weighted down with numerous signatures, to McMahon, demanding an increase in fees from 75 cents to $1 per 18 holes, and certain other concessions they claim they are entitled to.

"The whole thing is under arbitration," McMahon said today, keeping a nervous eye on the door as though he expected to see pickets arriving on the spot, "and we hope to have it all settled soon."

KLAMATH INVITES VALLEY GOLFERS TO MEET SUNDAY

Sam Coull of Klamath Falls, an ardent member of the Reames golf club in the sister city, was in Medford yesterday stirring up enthusiasm among Medford golfers who have been invited to attend an inter-city golf tournament Sunday at the Klamath course. Coull is in charge of arrangements for the tourney.

Delegations from this city, Grants Pass, Ashland, Yreka, Weed, McLeod, and Bend are expected to attend, and Coull says indications are that 25 or 30 will make the trip from here.

The tourney, which has been named the "Klamath Basin Invitational," will be supplemented by exhibition matches, a driving contest, and other entertainment. Refreshments will be served, including beer at the first and fifth tees.

Exhibition matches have been arranged between Pro Jack Hueston of Medford, Pro Bill Hackney of Klamath Falls, Hank Pringle of Medford and H. B. Bentley of Ashland, who have become squared-off in a tournament that has been underway for some time.

The beautiful Reames clubhouse will be thrown open to the visitors. Coull reports that there is a great deal of enthusiasm and life at Klamath Falls, and that their golf club membership has increased from 100 to 175 so far during the summer.

EDUCATED LIMBS TO FLY IN WOLFE SAM LETHERS GO

Topping a double main event wrestling feature that promises to be one of the season's greatest drawing cards, Sam Letthers of Dallas and Les Wolfe of Sherman, Texas, are pointed to furnish plenty of thrills when they get together tomorrow night at the Armory.

It will be the first time that Wolfe has been pitted against another grappler with equally-educated legs, and leg work promises to be the most important phase of the match. Both Sam and Wolfe specialize in rolling body scissor holds.

Lethers has threatened to defeat every wrestler "around here," but so far Wolfe is calling the bluff, confident that his margin of speed will make up for a handicap in size.

Al Stecher of Canada is slated to meet Johnny Sook, Indiana bad-man, in the other half of the main event. Curly Woods, former local boy who held the middleweight championship of the coast, will tussle a 20-minute opening engagement with Floyd Wolfgang, speedy mechanic-grappler.

ANGELS LOSE TO LEADING SEALS

(By the Associated Press.)
Los Angeles is down another notch in the Pacific Coast league today, thanks to the walkout the Angels staged as they opened the week's entertainment for the topnotch San Francisco Seals.

Thirteen walks to first base were taken last night, eight of them from Mike Meola and Newell Kimball pitchers, who also donated 13 hits as the Seals won 10-3.

Old Clarence Mitchell, dean of the circuit's spitball hurlers, and Wally Heber, young southpaw of Hollywood, hooked up in a tight pitchers' duel which the Missions won 4-3.

Sacramento did its best to get back to the cellar by losing to Portland 5-1.

Dick Barrett whiffed 12 Oakland batters while his heavy hitting Seattle teammates slugged out a 9-1 victory.

CHI-SOX MENACE TIGERS, YANKEES

(By Associated Press)
The Tigers and Yankees, tangled up in the fight for the American league lead, might pause today and peek over their shoulders.

Jimmy Dykes' White Sox are coming on again, and there's more than a little possibility the situation is going to get a lot tougher before it gets easier.

The White Sox have held grimly to third place. They play 32 of their next 40 games on the home lot at Comiskey park. Today they're nominally one game behind the second place Yankees, 3 1/2 behind the pace setting Tigers.

Actually they're just as good as either. The only advantage the Yanks and Tigers have is that they have played more games. Each of the three has lost 37. The Tigers have won 47, the Yanks 52, the Sox 50.
