FILE NO PROTEST ON SOVIET HELP COAST DOCK WAR

MOSCOW, Aug. 1.—(AP)—An appeal to workers to rise in arms against governments that "wage imperialistic" war was published by Pravda, communist party organ, on behalf of the seventh communist international today as speakers hurled further accusations against Germany, Japan and Italy.

"The comintern (internationale) calls on all united and friends of peace to form a united peoples front to be ready to change imperialistic war if it starts to civil war," the official party organ asserted.

The newspaper asserted that fascist cannon are "already charged and the first shots of a new war may be heard any moment."

The United States embassy, meanwhile, denied reports that a protest has been made to the soviet government over developments at the communist congress where an American delegate called for the comintern's support in the event that Pacific coast longshoremen again go on strike.

Ambassador William C. Bullitt was watching the congress carefully. It was said, but has made no move in the nature of a protest.

Sams Valley

SAMS VALLEY, Aug. 1.—(SpI)—The Sams Valley Extension Unit held a meeting at the school house on Thursday evening and planned their program for the coming year after enjoying recreation conducted by Mrs. Mack Refreshments were served to twenty-five.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Egghome returned to their home in Honolulu after visiting at the home of Mrs. Egghome's uncle, Ellis Garret. The Egghomes have spent several months in the United States visiting the states of Florida, Texas, New Mexico, Colorado, Arizona, California and Oregon. Mr. Egghome liked this locality better than anything he had visited and expects to locate here as soon as he disposes of his Honolulu business.

The Holcomb mineral springs has been a popular resort this summer with distant Oregon people as well as many from California. Mr. Holcomb states that in spite of the fact that California has highly advertised mineral springs, he always has plenty of Californians in his cabins throughout the year.

Luther Wilson, who has been incapacitated for some time with an injured leg, returned to Galice Sunday, where he is employed in a saw mill.

Mrs. J. J. Dale of Drain visited last week with Mrs. Glenn Spurlin.

Friends of John Day are pleased to learn of his recent betrothal to Miss Mary Parsons of Seattle, and well known in Medford. John, the son of Judge and Mrs. E. B. Day, is a recent graduate of the Oregon university and well thought of in this district where he was a former high school student.

Thirty members of the community attended the Sams Valley Grange picnic at McCloud Sunday. The picnic was held at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Eibert Glass where members of the McCloud Grange also assembled after a bouyantous basket dinner, swimming and horseshoe pitching were enjoyed. Everyone visited Mr. and Mrs. Glass fine homes.

House guests at the Glenn Spurlin home this week are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Winters and family of Denver, Colo. Mrs. Winters is a sister of Mrs. Spurlin and recently spent a week visiting a brother at The Dalles.

Miss Flossie Case was married to Lester Arnold in Medford Saturday evening. Both young people are well known here, the bride being a graduate of the Sams Valley high school class of '32, where she was quite popular as the school poetess.

Mrs. John Peffley is entertaining this week her sister, Mrs. G. O. Young and husband, from Wenatchee, Wn. Threshing is in full progress this week and the grain yield is reported as being considerably below the average.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy DeJarnett and children, accompanied by Miss Lois Peffley, all of Los Angeles, called Tuesday on Mr. and Mrs. John Peffley. Miss Lois and Mr. DeJarnett are cousins of Mr. Peffley and with other members of the party are enjoying an outing at Casey's camp.

SHEEP PARASITE CONTROL SOUGHT

CORVALLIS, Ore., Aug. 1.—(UP)—A campaign to control internal parasites of sheep, particularly liver flukes, will be launched at once in western Oregon under a $50,000 FWA allotment. It was announced today by Dr. Robert Jay, federal veterinarian at the Oregon State college experiment station.

During the next two and a half months men from relief rolls will carry out control work in pastures, following procedures originally worked out by members of the Oregon State college station staff.

Control consists of eliminating swampy areas where possible, or treating them with chemical to destroy the snail which acts as alternate carrier of "hook" for the flukes. The campaign is nation-wide. Flukes are a major pest of the livestock industry of western Oregon. It was pointed out.
